Dear LSU Students,

As we approach the holiday season, we wanted to take a moment to reflect on the past year and express our gratitude for all of you. Despite the challenges we've faced, your resilience and dedication have been nothing short of inspiring. Whether you're working hard in your classes, taking care of others, or finding ways to stay connected with loved ones, your commitment to personal and academic success is truly impressive.

In addition to the challenges of the pandemic, we've also encountered some setbacks. Unfortunately, we've faced some financial difficulties and had to make tough decisions about how to allocate our resources. These decisions have been made with the safety and well-being of our students and families as our top priority.

We also recognize that some students are still facing significant financial pressures and are urging the LSU Foundation to continue to consider incremental increases in the student emergency support fund. We are committed to doing everything we can to support our students during these difficult times.

As we look forward to connecting with family and friends for the Thanksgiving holiday later this month — whether it be in-person, by phone, or even via Zoom — I send you my warmest wishes for a safe and healthy holiday. As we progress through the rest of the fall semester, we will continue to provide as much support as possible to our students.

Thank you for all that you do for your Tiger and for LSU!

LSU Parent & Family Programs
Manager, Parent & Family Programs
Lindsay McCrory

Geaux Tigers!

Thanksgiving Gratitude

Gratitude is never out of fashion this time of year. Connect with LSU Parent & Family Programs on social media and let us know what you’re thankful for or tell us your favorite stories of gratitude.

LSU Foundation:

LSU Olinde Career Center:

LSU Libraries:
http://bit.ly/32l85wC

LSU Dining Virtual Office Hours:
http://bit.ly/32l85wC

LSU Interim President and Professor of Law

Warmly,

Lindsey McCrory
Manager, Parent & Family Programs