So, why OrgSync and not Google Drive? By uploading your organization's files on OrgSync, you will always be able to give file access to the appropriate members of your organization.

The Google Drive part ties in with the "Files" section in every organization's OrgSync portal. We always tell students that OrgSync is a combination of Facebook and Google Drive. When you upload files, you can do it however way you want, and "share" with whatever members you want.
