The Week:

The Circle: Campus Conversations on Hate-Bias (November 29)
UndocuTerp Workshops for your Student Org

Student Activism Awareness Week (SAAW), a week dedicated to detail and celebrate student discrimination across this campus. From October 29th to November 2nd, NAACP hosted events to raise awareness and educate participants on the effects of discrimination. The theme of SAAW was focused on the importance of activism and the role of students in addressing social issues. NAACP partnered with other organizations to host various events, including panel discussions, workshops, and a student-led forum. The week aimed to empower students to become agents of change and to advocate for social justice.

The call for applications for the 2018-2019 USM Student Regent is open. The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) of the University of Maryland College Park shares the same mission statement of NAACP with ensuring the rights of all individuals, especially people of color, towards microaggressions, systematic and institutional racism, and engaging through Q&A. Their theme of Young and the Restless, angles not towards the popular soap opera, but towards the exhausting oppression and strife young people face, and engaging through Q&A.
