The Circle: Campus Conversations on Hate-Bias

November 12th, 2018 in the Nyumburu Multipurpose Room at Stamp Student Involvement Suite.

This event is presented by Black Student Leadership (BSL), the University of Maryland’s Student Government, and the Student Organization Resource Center (SORC) at Stamp. The Circle: Campus Conversations on Hate-Bias is a program that features a panel of renowned Black leaders and allies from Maryland College Park and elsewhere. The panelists will discuss historical and contemporary issues of bias, hate, and discrimination within the Black community.

The event is open to the public and is free of charge. However, registration is required, and space is limited. To register, please visit https://orgsync.com/31654/forms/340972.

Student Group Highlight of the Week:

The SORC is proud to highlight the Maryland NAACP, a student organization dedicated to fighting racism through education and action.

The Maryland NAACP is the largest and most influential civil rights organization in the state. The organization was founded in 1917 and has a long history of fighting for racial equality and justice. The Maryland NAACP is a member of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), the nation’s oldest and largest civil rights organization.

The Maryland NAACP is dedicated to promoting equal rights and opportunities for all people of color. The organization advocates for policies that promote racial equality and justice, and it works to improve the quality of life for all Marylanders.

The Maryland NAACP is also committed to fighting against systemic racism and discrimination. The organization works to address the root causes of racism and to create a more just and equitable society.

Student Organization Registration—URGENT

Student organizations are required to complete the registration/renewal process by October 29th, 2018.

The registration/renewal process is designed to ensure that each student organization has the appropriate level of access to campus facilities and services.

SOs that do not complete the registration/renewal process may face the following consequences:
- Lose ability to become SGA recognized and apply for funding
- Lose their current/future space reservations
- Be removed from SORC's organization directory

Please note that all registration/renewal forms must be submitted online by 301-314-1912.

For more information, please contact Donna Lim at dylim@umd.edu or by calling 301-314-8491.
