The Circle: Campus Conversations on Hate

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) of the University of Maryland. The State of Black Leadership is a panelist-styled event where we encourage dialogue within a panel of renowned community leaders and local public figures by targeting issues related directly to the Black community activism and its history at the University of Maryland. The State of Black Leadership is a time where we address the political, social, educational, and economic equality of rights to all people and dismantle racial discrimination across this campus. From October 29th to November 2nd, NAACP hosted voter suppression, and other rationale of inequality and discrimination. The Annual State of especially people of color, towards microaggressions, systematic and institutional racism, popular soap opera, but towards the exhausting oppression and strife young people face, Call for Student Regent Applications for 2018-2019
