Student Organization Resource Center (SORC) hosted a session on November 12th, 2018 in the Nyumburu Multipurpose Room. This session focused on the popular soap opera, but in a more critical light, addressing topics such as police brutality, socioeconomic disparities, misogyny, and homophobia. Attendees engaged through a Q&A session.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) of the University of Maryland hosted an event from October 29th to November 2nd. This event aimed to bring together leaders and local public figures to discuss issues directly related to the Black community.

Students are encouraged to apply for the 2018-2019 USM Student Regent position by November 14, 2018. The single nominee will be reviewed by the University System of Maryland Student Council and then forwarded to the Governor.

SORC is looking for student leaders to represent the University of Maryland to the Governor. Students interested in applying should visit http://thestamp.umd.edu/events/usm_student_regent for more information.

The Student Involvement Suite offers a variety of services to student organizations. These include "The Circle: Campus Conversations on Hate," a monthly event to provide a space for discussion about hate and its impact.

The endowed position of Student Regent is available for University System of Maryland students. The deadline to apply is November 14, 2018.

For more information about student government, visit the Student Organization Resource Center (SORC) at https://orgsync.com/31654/forms/340972 or contact sorc@umd.edu.

And that's the Word!