THOUGHTS FROM THE DIRECTOR

My role at the CINA center puts me in contact with a wide variety of people at GMU and throughout the nation. This allows me to see the fruits of the work we are doing and to see others doing similar work. These interactions are priceless - I learn from everyone, everywhere.

I always return to the their messages with renewed respect, deeper understanding, and ideas.

One of the ways in which I connect with the community is through the CINA Science Committee Spotlight. These are short talks given by members of the science committee about their role in addressing transnational crime.

The White House Initiative on Historically Black Colleges and Universities is set to host a HBCU Career and Recruitment Fair on December 2 for students, recent alumni and other job seekers. The event will be held at the University of Texas at San Antonio.

In her presentation, Dr. Shelley will describe ways sophisticated data analytics are being used to uncover the indicators of high-density crime areas. Dr. Shelley is set to host the next installment of the CINA Distinguished Speaker Series with Ian Cheney and Sharon Shattuck, the Netflix documentary, "Picture a Scientist," on December 16 at 1:30 p.m. The event will be held at the University of Texas at San Antonio.

I always leave the interactions with renewed respect, deeper understanding, and ideas.
