The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. We work to foster an inclusive and respectful environment that promotes the values of diversity, equity, and social justice. Our mission is to provide resources, programming, and support to help members of the community navigate the challenges of modern life and to promote multifaith engagement and understanding.

We offer a variety of programs and services, including counseling and mental health services, support groups, workshops, and events. Our counseling and mental health services (CMHS) offers a wide variety of confidential groups and workshops for students, faculty, and staff.

We also offer a Trans Day of Remembrance gallery, which is a space for reflection and remembrance. The gallery includes a variety of works of art that explore themes of identity, intersectionality, and resistance. This year, the Trans Day of Remembrance gallery will return to an in-person setting, and we encourage you to attend.

We also have a fall 2021 call for art, which is a great opportunity for students to showcase their work. The deadline to submit proposals is October 20, so please consider submitting your proposal.

We also have a call for art for the Tufts Student Affairs gallery. This gallery is a space for students to showcase their work and engage with the community. This year, the theme is Visions of Peace, and we encourage you to submit your proposal.

We also have a call for art for the 230 Fenway Terrace Gallery, which is a space for students to showcase their work and engage with the community. This year, the theme is Trans Liberation, and we encourage you to submit your proposal.

We also have a fall 2021 groups and workshops, which is a great opportunity for students to engage with the community and learn new skills. This year, we have a variety of workshops and groups to choose from, including a one-day workshop on Utilitarianism and a one-day workshop on Multiculturalism.
