Dear Tufts Community,

As we move through these uncertain times and navigate a shifting calendar, it is more important than ever to find support, community, and connection. To this end, I want to highlight some of the upcoming events and resources that may be of interest.

Installation of Granth Sahib Ji as Guru
This day celebrates Gobind Singh Ji’s passing on guruship to the Guru Granth Sahib Ji, the embodiment of the Sikh faith. It is a time to reflect on the teachings of the Guru and to deepen one’s connection to the Sikh tradition.

All Souls Day
A Christian observance in memory of all the faithful who are deceased. In some Latin cultures, this day is observed with special masses and prayers for the dead.

Commemorates the beginning of the Protestant Reformation of Christianity
Tradition: Christianity-Protestant
This day marks the beginning of the Protestant Reformation with Martin Luther’s challenge to the papacy and the church’s authority.

Visions of Peace Movie Screening and Discussion
Friday, October 22, 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.
Visit the film’s website here.

Disturbing the Peace
Wednesday, October 27, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., ET
Held virtually
For more information on Disturbing the Peace, please RSVP using this form by December 20, 2021 to paria@smithcollege.edu.

Black Wellness Workshop
Remote World; Growing up with Family Mental Illness or Addiction; Living with Bipolar Disorder; Re-ST and Renew: Meets throughout the semester
Register can be found here.

Tisch College Civic Life Lunch
King Boston: Building Boston’s Beloved Community with Imari Paris Jeffries
Thursday, October 21, 12 p.m. - 1 p.m. ET
Held virtually
Join Tisch College for a conversation with activist, educator, veteran and the Executive Director of King Boston, Imari Paris Jeffries.

Buddhist Theology for Authentic Transformation
Wednesday, October 27, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., ET
Held virtually
With Dr. Hyun Kyung Chung
Dr. Hyun Kyung Chung is Associate Professor of Ecumenical Studies at Union Theological Seminary. Foci of her work is on Christianity in Korea, as a social activist and womanist theologian on spirituality for authentic transformation.

Submit to the Trans Day of Remembrance Gallery
Now in its sixth year, this project is sponsored by the Tufts LGBT Center, the University Chaplaincy, and the SMFA. The Trans Day of Remembrance gallery will return to an in-person setting, and is open for artists to submit a proposal in PDF format by October 20 at 11:59pm. Artists of all skill and experience levels are invited to participate – no formal art training is necessary. The sponsors only ask that you use your art to bring joy, hope, and peace.

Additionally, Goddard Chapel is open Monday - Friday between 9 a.m. - 5 p.m. for anyone wishing to come in and pray. Read the President’s official message to the University about Madie here.

Peace
Friday, October 22, 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

If you need to talk, you are not alone. Additional resources are available, including the Student Counseling Services, the Health Center, and the Dean of Students. You can find more information and the submission form here.

Thank you for your continued strength and resilience. May you find the support and connection you need as we navigate these times.

Sincerely,
Reverend Elyse Nelson Winger
University Chaplaincy

---

Disturbing the Peace (2016) tells the story of individuals, who otherwise would have never interacted with one another, participating in the anti-school violence movement. This dynamic group aims to bring people together to talk about their shared experiences and the movement’s role in changing the course of the school-to-prison pipeline. This dynamic group brings together a range of people to talk about their shared experiences and the movement’s role in changing the course of the school-to-prison pipeline. Coinciding with the release of a four part film by Ken Burns, Sarah Burns and McMahon, Muhammad Ali, this dynamic group will host several events featuring Muhammad Ali and other public intellectuals. In conversation with filmmaker, David McMahon, and sua public intellectual, Donna Auston, to talk about Muhammad Ali and his legacy of interfaith cooperation. Coinciding with the release of a four part film by Ken Burns, Sarah Burns and McMahon, Muhammad Ali, this dynamic group will host several events featuring Muhammad Ali and other public intellectuals. In conversation with filmmaker, David McMahon, and sua public intellectual, Donna Auston, to talk about Muhammad Ali and his legacy of interfaith cooperation.

Join Interfaith Youth Core (IFYC) President, Eboo Patel, in conversation with filmmaker, David McMahon, and public intellectual, Donna Auston, to talk about Muhammad Ali and his legacy of interfaith cooperation. Coinciding