In Fall 2021, the Tufts University Chaplaincy will pilot a new Interfaith Ambassador Program for undergraduate students. Interested students are encouraged to apply to be an Interfaith Ambassador with the University Chaplaincy.

Apply to be an Interfaith Ambassador

Tufts University Chaplaincy | Goddard Chapel, 3 The Green | Medford, MA 02155 US

The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of Tufts University. The Interfaith Ambassador Program will offer students the opportunity to learn more about their own beliefs; to explore what interfaith engagement means within their own lives; and to apply their understanding to the wider community.

The program will focus on four key areas:

- Building interfaith relationships and understanding
- Advocating for religious and spiritual diversity on campus
- Exhibiting leadership in promoting ethical and social justice
- Promoting a community of inclusion and belonging

Students selected as Interfaith Ambassadors will be expected to participate in a series of training sessions, attend events, and engage in community service projects. They will also have the opportunity to work with the University Chaplaincy on various initiatives and projects.

The program will meet every other Wednesday from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the Goddard Chapel. Applications are due by May 14, 2021. For more information, please contact the University Chaplaincy at chaplaincy@tufts.edu.
