with any questions.

weeks, you will have the option to connect with an assigned partner to share your responses to the stories and deeper ways of engaging social transformation. The group will meet every other Wednesday from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00

“radical and joyful practice to heal ourselves and transform the world around us.”

Solidarity is only possible if we are brave enough to reckon with the past and how the past shapes the present. In the communities, will be equipped to understand and engage religious diversity on campus, in their own communities,

Applications due May 15

Apply to be an Interfaith Ambassador with the University Chaplaincy

The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of

Tradition: Baha'i

Tradition: Judaism

Tradition: Christianity-Protestant, Christianity-Roman Catholic

Thursday, 5.13.2021

Tradition: Islam

meal is celebrated with family.

The Holy Month of Ramadan is the month of fasting during which Muslims who are physically able do not eat or entire Tufts community throughout the summer. If you have an idea for how the Tufts University Chaplaincy can Regular weekly programming has finished for the 2020-2021 academic year. Chaplains are still available to the intersection of religion and race in authors such as Baldwin, Morrison, Robinson, Banks, Okada.

theological and literary imagination can play in confronting issues of structural racism today, as we look at the oppression (especially, though not exclusively, anti-Black racism and white supremacy). We will ask what role racialized imaginations, and how it has alternatively supported and subverted modern structures of racialized

This course explores the intersection of modern Christianity and race through contemporary literary fiction. To Thursday of June 1, 2021 to September 1, 2021, the Fellow will be tasked with overseeing the project in collaboration with

Community Curator Fellow with The History Project stipends for their work, which can be carried out anytime June - December 2021. You can program also includes training and mentorship from both IFYC and Hebrew College. All ambassadors will receive new Covid-19 vaccine options and supporting vaccination efforts throughout the city. This timely public health program spearheaded by the Interfaith Youth Core (IFYC). The Faith in the Vaccine Ambassador Program provides

The Miller Center of Hebrew College is launching a summer-fall initiative in Greater Boston as part of a national Specialist, for more information and leadership opportunities; they will receive a stipend. Please email

Information and constituency: they will receive a stipend. Please email

Mental Health Reps will be matched with groups for whom they can be a liaison, or with individuals. Mental Health Reps for all Tufts community members. The Mental Health Reps will work directly with CMHS staff to help advocate for

The Baccalaureate Ceremony 2021

A reflection from our Africana Spirituality Advisor

A reflection from our Africana Spirituality Advisor

In my tradition, our capaciousness to grapple with life’s complexities and shifting rhythms are honored, processed made whole? My day of birth also happens to fall on the day of George Floyd’s death, which makes it particularly notably, graduation. Simultaneously, the murder of George Floyd has marked May as a moment of deep mourning

Presentsight

Subscribe

Give Today