"See No Stranger" at Tufts: A Reading and Learning Opportunity for Faculty and Staff

In Fall 2021, the Tufts University Chaplaincy will pilot a new Interfaith Ambassador Program for undergraduate students. Apply to be an Interfaith Ambassador with the University Chaplaincy.

Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to the university’s mission. The funds provided by TIGER can help to meet the needs and interests of students on campus.

The video will go live on Saturday, May 22 at 2pm ET on the TuftsNow YouTube channel. The University Chaplaincy has produced a pre-recorded video to honor the Class of 2021 with new and familiar traditions. The video captures a sampling of the Class’s celebrations and accomplishments. The video highlights the Class’s strength and resilience in the face of Covid-19.

The Holy Month of Ramadan is the month of fasting during which Muslims who are physically able do not eat or drink, including water, from dawn until sunset. The goal of fasting is to increase one's awareness of the privations of others and to develop a greater compassion. The month also marks Muslims’ remembrance of God and is a time of prayer, reflection, and community engagement.

Pentecost

Pentecost is the Christian celebration of the coming of the Holy Spirit upon the disciples of Jesus following his ascension into heaven. The date of Pentecost varies depending on the church tradition. For example, Orthodox Christians celebrate Pentecost on Sunday after the fiftieth day of the Resurrection of Jesus, which is called Pascha (Orthodox Easter). Roman Catholic and Protestant Christians often observe Pentecost on a different date, such as May 23 (Pentecost Sunday) or May 24 (Pentecost Monday).

The first Friday of May is Communion Sunday. It is a day of celebration and reflection for the Christian community, commemorating the day that Jesus instituted the Eucharist. The Eucharist is the spiritual meal that celebrates Jesus’ sacrifice and presence in the sacrament of the Lord’s Supper. Communion Sunday is a significant day for the Christian community, as it is a time to reflect on the greatness of God and the importance of the Eucharist in our lives.
