A note from the Muslim Chaplain

Ramadan is the most sacred month in the Islamic calendar and is observed by Muslims around the world. It is a time for spiritual reflection, self-improvement, and community. During Ramadan, Muslims fast from dawn to dusk, and many also perform additional prayers, read the Quran, and spend time reflecting on their faith. The Muslim Chaplain encourages the community to support and respect their Muslim peers during this month of spiritual observance.

Virtual Buddha Day Celebration

Tufts Buddhist Sangha's Virtual Buddha Day Celebration will take place on May 8, 2021, from 12:00 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. ET. This celebration will include meditation, chanting, and Dharma discussion in honor of the Buddha's birthday. It is an opportunity for the Buddhist community to come together virtually and reflect on the teachings of the Buddha.

Volunteer Virtually and Locally with Tisch College

Tisch College is supporting the Tufts community response to the COVID-19 crisis by training and deploying volunteers. Volunteers can choose to work remotely or in the Boston area and can make a significant impact on the community. If you are interested in volunteering, please email Aidan O'Shea at aidan.oshea@tufts.edu.

Check-in with a Chaplain

The University Chaplaincy wants to celebrate your presence in our community. If you are a graduating senior, you can contact Jennifer Howe Peace, University Chaplain, at simp@tufts.edu to schedule a time for conversation, meditation, prayer, or to check in about anything else on your mind.

Appreciating Our Seniors

Are you a graduating senior? The University Chaplaincy wants to celebrate your presence in our community. Contact Jennifer Howe Peace at simp@tufts.edu to schedule a time for conversation, meditation, prayer, or to check in about anything else on your mind.

About the University Chaplaincy Enews

Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to our mission.

Volunteer Virtually and Locally with Tisch College

Tisch College is supporting the Tufts community response to the COVID-19 crisis by training and deploying volunteers. Volunteers can choose to work remotely or in the Boston area and can make a significant impact on the community. If you are interested in volunteering, please email Aidan O'Shea at aidan.oshea@tufts.edu.

Check-in with a Chaplain

The University Chaplaincy wants to celebrate your presence in our community. If you are a graduating senior, you can contact Jennifer Howe Peace, University Chaplain, at simp@tufts.edu to schedule a time for conversation, meditation, prayer, or to check in about anything else on your mind.