Engagement Scholarship Consortium: Call for Proposals

The Engagement Scholarship Consortium seeks proposals for our annual conference on October 9-10, 2024, in Portland, Oregon.

The 2024 theme will be “Pathways to Prosperity: Building Sustainable Futures through Community Engagement.”

The 2024 ESC Conference will be a place for engaging conversations about the many ways that we work collaboratively to define and build social and economic prosperity. We will come together to share the outcomes and impact of our work, explore new ideas and approaches to building pathways for change, and co-create solutions to society’s most pressing problems. Presentation proposals will be considered on any topic clearly connected to the advancement of community engagement.

Proposals are due April 1, 2024.

Engaged Scholars Initiative

Campus Compact in partnership with the University of Nebraska at Omaha, is now accepting applications for the 2024-2025 cohort of the Engaged Scholars Initiative (ESI).

This is an opportunity to strengthen your community-engaged scholarship and develop your leadership skills in civic and community engagement by joining the 2024-2025 cohort. Those selected will form a closely connected network of diverse early-career scholars and participate in yearlong programming grounded in community building, scholarship, field leadership, and individualized support.

The cost to participate is $1,000 per person. Limited scholarships are available.

Applications are due Friday, April 19.
