A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear LSU families,

As September rolls in, we reflect on all the changes and opportunities that this month has to offer. First years, we want to congratulate you on your first semester(s) of college. Second years, we want to wish you well on your second semester(s). Third years, we want to acknowledge your determination and hard work. Fourth years, we want to recognize your commitment and passion for your academic and professional futures. For all of you, we want to encourage you to continue to pursue your dreams, to strive for excellence, and to find joy in your experiences.

We are excited to welcome your Tiger and others to campus in Family Weekend. There’s still time to register for LSU Family Weekend 2019! We invite all families to join us for an exciting weekend on campus October 4-6. Registration for Family Weekend will close this Thursday, September 12 at 11:59 p.m. CST. Registration is required to attend. For an exciting weekend on campus October 4-6. Registration for Family Weekend will close this Thursday, September 12 at 11:59 p.m. CST. ASK YOUR TIGER

Do you feel like you have enough time to do everything you want to? How have you been balancing classes, studying, extracurricular activities, and social time? Have you met with any professors or TAs during office hours? Do you have any questions about the LSU Code of Student Conduct? Please let us know by filling out this form.

LETTER TO YOUR TIGER

Dear LSU student,

We hope that you found the information helpful. Please contact us if we can be of assistance to you.

Tiger BITes (Bystander Intervention Training):

We are excited to announce that Tiger BITes, a bystander intervention training, is now available for all students, faculty, and staff. Tiger BITes is a 1.5-hour workshop that focuses on developing the skills and knowledge to intervene in potentially dangerous situations. This training focuses on developing the powerful messages about what is acceptable and expected behavior in their community.

Medical Amnesty Policy

All students call for medical help for themselves or friends in certain alcohol, drug, physical, and emotional distress-related emergencies and situations. By following the Medical Amnesty Policy, students will receive educational outcomes instead of disciplinary action.
