A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Welcome to the fall semester!

The LSU Office of the Dean of Students is encouraging our student communities to engage with each other, our culture, and our environment as we begin the academic year.

One challenge many students face is learning how to manage their time. The LSU Office of the Dean of Students is committed to supporting all students as they balance life with their studies. Join CAS for our Signature Series - Geaux Forward to career game plan!

ASK YOUR TIGER

STATEMENT OF THE WEEK

Tenacity: a word that describes our Tiger!

CAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS

• LSU Shield - Follow LSU Shield on Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, and our new YouTube channel! Every Thursday, a new LSU Shield video is released showing our guests how to get creative in the dining halls.

• LSU Circle of Excellence - The LSU Office of Diversity will host an Open House on Thursday, September 12. Students are encouraged to attend to learn about opportunities to be part of a community that values diversity and social justice.

• Tower Drive - LSU Office of Diversity Open House - Visit the LSU Office of Diversity for information about all the ODS programs.

• Family Weekend - LSU Family Weekend 2019 is scheduled for August 29-31. There's still time to register for LSU Family Weekend 2019! We invite all families to join us on campus to experience LSU and the vibrant community that exists here.

• TrueRemove - LSU implemented the TrueRemove System. This is a one-of-a-kind self-removal system that allows students to self-removal themselves and their friends from the university's disciplinary processes.

• Medical Amnesty Policy - LSU implemented the Medical Amnesty Policy to help ensure that students who seek medical help for themselves or friends in a time of need are not penalized.

• Hack The Hall - LSU Dining released the Hack The Hall video showing how to get creative in the dining halls. Follow LSU Dining on social media for the latest and greatest in dining.
