Wyoming Public Radio's Timeline

44 years ago Wyoming Public Radio celebrated the bicentennial year with Music Director, John Baxter, News Director, Stan Stefanik, and the former KUWR Operator-Announcer, Dale Barkley, on the air shortly before KUWR's move from UW's student union to Knight Hall, adoption of NPR programming, and increase in wattage.

In 1976 we launched Wyoming Public Radio's summer mini-season: three episodes that take you deep into the real West to meet some of America's most iconic landscapes to discover the people and places shaping the American West's present and future. Listen to a.

Don't miss the mini catch up fund drive June 23 - 25, complete with Pet Wednesday!

Please feel free to contact me or any organization I've mentioned at questions@wyomingpublicmedia.org.

Christine Kuzmych
General Manager

[Click image below to listen]

“Open Spaces” is a Northern California radio program celebrating the natural landscapes, arts, and cultures that shape the Intermountain West. Chef George Tart and engineer/Pilot Tom Stagg broadcast live every Saturday from 8am to 10am Mountain Time from the summit of Hot Springs Peak. Internet listeners enjoy the program online.

Subscribe to our Instagram account
Follow us on Facebook
Follow us on Twitter
Follow us on Spotify
Follow us on YouTube
Follow us on LinkedIn
Follow us on SoundCloud
Follow us on TikTok
Follow us on Pinterest

NATIONAL STORIES

Wyoming Public Radio Timeline

Be sure to check out the Open Spaces Podcast or visit wyomingpublicradio.org for more information on the program.

Must Listen

The Modern West Podcast

This new podcast series from Wyoming Public Radio explores how modern life is reshaping the American West. This is a place where traditionalism and modern-day pragmatism coexist, where political and cultural divides are stark, and where some of America’s most iconic landscapes to discover the people and places shaping the American West’s present and future.

Podcast Launches A New Season

Please feel free to contact me or any organization I've mentioned at questions@wyomingpublicmedia.org.

Christine Kuzmych
General Manager