What do you call a group of talented, dedicated, and enthusiastic students who love WCU? Orientation Leaders, of course! Every year it's our privilege to work with these students and watch them grow into their potential as student leaders. Being an Orientation Leader is a great way for new students to meet new friends, learn about campus life, gain experience, and develop skills in communication, teamwork, and leadership. We're looking for students who are committed to helping their peers and the WCU community.

Do you have what it takes to be an Orientation Leader? Here are a few key qualifications:

- Commitment to WCU and its mission
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Experience in leadership or student organization participation

If you're interested, please reach out to Student Leadership and Involvement at Ramconnect@wcupa.edu or visit the Office of Student Leadership and Involvement website for more information. The deadline to apply is October 12th.

Ram Connect is a program offered to help students find off-campus housing and connect with mentors. Students can search for housing and register for the Off Campus Housing Fair on October 30th, so take a few minutes to check out this program. To learn more about Ram Connect, visit the Office of Off Campus and Commuter Services website or contact them at Commuters@wcupa.edu.

Ram Connect is also available to students who are looking for academic mentorship. Students can search for mentors and register for the Off Campus Housing Fair on October 30th, so take a few minutes to check out this program. To learn more about Ram Connect, visit the Office of Off Campus and Commuter Services website or contact them at Commuters@wcupa.edu.

As always, please reach out to Office of Parent and Family Relations and the Office of Student Life and Involvement with any questions or need help. #RamFam Love,
