I'm typing this day after the October time view period ended - the two week period when Europe’s clocks go back one week before North America. The chaos of European workgroups will be happy to see the lack of it because invariably we have valuable meeting time it earned that we managed pretty well this Fall, with only very minor upset (despite the Leadership Council and I) at the inevitable GTC choices that comprise for good management.

Consumer Identity World EU Recap

We had a great turnout of Kantara members and supporters. Gianluca Monetta is a Martin Schulz and Ed Coyle was present in the Trustbuilding track - Colin Wallis (Kantara) Trustbuilding activities to curtain-close Martin’s thought-provoking presentation ‘Consent vs technical/privacy’ (Dfensa). There were great sessions too from Esther Hoeksema, ForgeRock’s Ian Glazer (ID Pro and Salesforce), Allan Foster (Onfido), Dan Johnson (Mastercard), Jo Vercammen (Meeco) and Colin Wallis (Kantara) all on one stage? ;-)

There was little need for moderation as these folks sparred with each other, trading perspectives and predictions. What a blast!
