In Brief:

Squad Sport

Sports; something they have done their entire lives. Connecting people through sports will happen.

The co-founders hope to utilize the skills they've learned in their Lake Forest College family, hobbies, and life.

How will I find my tribe? How will I build community? How will I find sports schedules, camp schedules, doctors' appointments – you name it! It's madness. It's utter chaos. And it's soul crushing.

PlanOrganise unburdens parents from all the misery, time, and tedium of data managing their work schedules, their children's school schedules, after-school activities, liberating them to do what they love with the people they love.
