What a year!

Three SCIENCE students win Goldwater Scholarships

The College of Science honored its outstanding undergraduate and graduate students April 5 at a gala gathering on campus. Among the festivities were the announcement of College and College of Science awards for outstanding students.

The College of Science is committed to creating an environment where all of our students can flourish. As such, we strive to ensure that our students are engaged in a variety of activities that will help them excel, learn from others, and have fun along the way.

As I shook each SCIENCE graduate's hand, I was reminded that the holy grail at Clemson is the signature student experience. I hope that this academic year exceeded even your highest expectations. If you graduated this spring – congratulations! We welcome you into the Clemson Alumni family and look forward to your continued engagement with SCIENCE. Stay in touch so we can follow all of your accomplishments! Returning students: whether you are studying abroad, interning, taking classes, conducting research or just getting some rest and relaxation – we can follow all of your accomplishments!
