NEWS FROM LMU-PARENT AND FAMILY PROGRAMS

November 12, 2020

YOU'VE GOT YOUR BACK

Parent and Family Programs is here to help create and maintain a supportive and welcoming environment where your student can access resources related to your needs. We are committed to the wellness of each student – mind, body, and soul. The Lion Wellness website will connect students to services, activities, groups, and events that help students juggle the demands of life in the virtual environment and make self-care a priority.

STUDENT AFFAIRS

Student Psychological Services (SPS)
Student Psychological Services (SPS) provides a variety of counseling and support services for students who are concerned about a student. There is no charge for SPS services. SPS also offers psychological consultations; emergency psychological services; personal counseling for academic, social, and personal issues; and psycho-educational outreach services. To schedule an appointment, students should call 310-338-1798 or email SPS@lmu.edu. For additional resources, visit the Student Online Learning Hub online here.

Virtual Intramural Teams
Virtual Intramural Teams offer students the opportunity to stay connected to their university and college through team sports. Virtual Intramural Teams are available in a variety of sports and include teams for students with same interests in fun online competition. Intramural Sports offers a variety of virtual sports including fantasy sports leagues and bracket challenges for students who are concerned about a student. There is no charge for SPS services. SPS also offers psychological consultations; emergency psychological services; personal counseling for academic, social, and personal issues; and psycho-educational outreach services. To schedule an appointment, students should call 310-338-1798 or email SPS@lmu.edu. For additional resources, visit the Student Online Learning Hub online here.

Loyola Marymount University

At LMU, our Jesuit values emphasize the education of the whole person. They include a commitment to the formation of the whole person through academic and spiritual growth, engagement in the world, and service to others. These values guide all aspects of LMU’s mission and core curriculum. The Lion Wellness website is a part of our commitment to support the wellness of each student – mind, body, and soul. The Lion Wellness website will connect students to services, activities, groups, and events that help students juggle the demands of life in the virtual environment and make self-care a priority.
