Coach

By Patrick McFetridge

Hello everyone! My name is Patrick McFetridge and I am an Elementary Physical Education teacher at Edison Elementary. I have been coaching with Parent to Parent for around 17 years which has included baseball, soccer and basketball. I believe this is currently my 14th year helping with basketball and I have learned so much working alongside Angie Witt, Cyndy Knight and all of the amazing parents and grandparents that I get to meet at our Friday practices. Read More

A Note from Parent to Parent

Hi Families,

I can't believe January has flown by. I am so happy that our students are able to go back to school part time. I know for my son, it has made a huge difference in his life. I hope your kids and young adults are enjoying being back with their friends and teachers. I would like to give a shout out to our teachers and paraprofessionals who have worked very hard during distance learning and in the classroom. I have hope for the future that things will start to get back to "normal," whatever that may look like for you.

Just remember if you have concerns, would like more information about resources, or meet with a helping parent, please contact your Parent to Parent Coordinators, Ysabel and myself. We are available for you!

Sincerely,
Angie and Ysabel
