Graduate Student Newsletter - Oct. 27, 2022

Dear graduate students,

Congratulations on reaching the halfway point of fall term! And for or resources and opportunities to support your efforts.

Graduate Research Forum Prep

Take advantage of practical and in-depth sessions leading up to the Graduate Research Forum happening on Nov. 18.

3MT Workshops

When: Week of Oct. 9 - Oct. 21, 1 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

3MT: Panel Practice Sessions

When: Week of Oct. 9, 10, 11 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

For more information and to receive additional updates, visit www.graduate.uoregon.edu/3mt.

Events

graduateCON Film Festival

When: Fri., Oct. 20, 7 p.m. - 11 p.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

Cover Letter Writing for Grad Students

When: Wed., Oct. 19, 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

Individual Coaching for Students in Their Last Year of Dissertation

When: Fri., Oct. 21, 3 p.m. - 5 p.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

Wellness Q&A

When: Fri., Nov. 4, 11 a.m. - 12 p.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

Grad Student Newsletter - Oct. 27, 2022

Dear graduate students,

Congratulations on reaching the halfway point of fall term! And for or resources and opportunities to support your efforts.

Graduate Research Forum Prep

Take advantage of practical and in-depth sessions leading up to the Graduate Research Forum happening on Nov. 18.

3MT Workshops

When: Week of Oct. 9 - Oct. 21, 1 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

3MT: Panel Practice Sessions

When: Week of Oct. 9, 10, 11 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

For more information and to receive additional updates, visit www.graduate.uoregon.edu/3mt.

Events

graduateCON Film Festival

When: Fri., Oct. 20, 7 p.m. - 11 p.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

Cover Letter Writing for Grad Students

When: Wed., Oct. 19, 10 a.m. - 12 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

Individual Coaching for Students in Their Last Year of Dissertation

When: Fri., Oct. 21, 3 p.m. - 5 p.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

Wellness Q&A

When: Fri., Nov. 4, 11 a.m. - 12 p.m.
When: Online or geometric Center or Genome

Grad Student Spotlight

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Call for Student Spotlight Nominees

Do you know someone doing something great in your community? Nominate them for a student spotlight.

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Call for Student Spotlight Nominees

Do you know someone doing something great in your community? Nominate them for a student spotlight.

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Call for Student Spotlight Nominees

Do you know someone doing something great in your community? Nominate them for a student spotlight.

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Call for Student Spotlight Nominees

Do you know someone doing something great in your community? Nominate them for a student spotlight.

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Call for Student Spotlight Nominees

Do you know someone doing something great in your community? Nominate them for a student spotlight.

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Call for Student Spotlight Nominees

Do you know someone doing something great in your community? Nominate them for a student spotlight.

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Call for Student Spotlight Nominees

Do you know someone doing something great in your community? Nominate them for a student spotlight.

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Call for Student Spotlight Nominees

Do you know someone doing something great in your community? Nominate them for a student spotlight.

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Call for Student Spotlight Nominees

Do you know someone doing something great in your community? Nominate them for a student spotlight.

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Call for Student Spotlight Nominees

Do you know someone doing something great in your community? Nominate them for a student spotlight.

Michelle Mendoza

Michelle is a 3rd year in the PhD in Counseling Psychology. She works closely with her faculty advisor, Dr. Krista Chronister, an expert in marital and intimate partner violence in Filipino American communities.

Michelle and Dr. Chronister have recently been selected to present at the 1st English American Association of Counseling Psychology’s Annual Meeting, due to their dear to present at this year’s thematic. They are interested in research that explores the role of money-related stress and distress on the relationship between stress and resilience in individuals from the Philippines.

Please join us in supporting and promoting these incredible researchers. Thank you for your time and consideration.