Greetings!

Greetings World Citizen Peace Friends!

Hoping this newsletter finds you well and enjoying a change of season wherever you might be at this time. World Citizen Peace has experienced another year of challenging work and progress. If only we could tap a magic wand and immediately bring Peace and Justice to all.

We hope you have had the time to view the Peace Education videos on our website: worldcitizenpeace.org. Presently there are 4 videos, each one focusing on a different Peace Action. The fifth video about the last Peace Action will be released the first part of May. The videos are approximately 10 minutes in length and definitely worth your time to view. It is our way to share how all of us can actively engage in living the Five Peace Actions daily.

A reminder that April 22nd is Earth Day. Each person has been given the responsibility to help maintain a healthy environment for future generations to thrive. If you are able, work with others to plant trees, care for gardens, help make a stream or park clean and free from litter, and recycle. We need to make thoughtful choices, mindful of how our actions will affect our shared planet.

Thanks to all who continue to support and commit to the work of World Citizen Peace. Peace and Justice will take the work of all of us.

Peace is needed and Will Prevail,

Kathy Millington, Executive Director
