Sustainability Minor pathway to service the community needs in Washington D.C. This research, and in partnership with a community partner, identify a course will allow students to identify an area of focus, conduct such as climate change, racial inequities, public health, poverty, and social justice. These courses also allow students to identify areas of interest, connect with others and enhance public service, potentially as an intern or volunteer. GW students!

Good deeds are a great way to focus on service, and they can be meaningful ways to show kindness and support. We encourage you to look for opportunities to perform acts of kindness and support others, whether in person or virtually. Here are some ideas for performing good deeds:

1. On September 1, visit 911day.org.
   - On this day, visit 911day.org to access a list of over 50 “good deeds” you can do for 9/11 Day. These deeds are happening for 9/11 Day. So please post a message about them.

2. Share your deeds!
   - Ideally, do your good deed or service itself, but you can do it anytime in September happening for 9/11 Day. So please post a message about it, for sure! If you are a community organization looking to table your good deeds based on what you care about.

3. English
   - Share your deeds! (preferably).
