Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

Why join the Nashman Center? By choosing to work with us, you will:
- Gain practical experience: Working with us will equip you with the skills you need to make a difference. We provide opportunities for students to conduct community-engaged research, volunteer in the community, and advocate for public policy.
- Get access to resources: Our center offers a variety of resources, including funding opportunities, mentorship programs, and networking events. You will have access to a robust network of professionals and experts in the field of civic engagement.
- Enhance your career prospects: Participating in civic engagement activities will enhance your resume and demonstrate your commitment to making a positive impact in your community. This experience will also be beneficial when you apply for internships, jobs, or graduate school.
- Impact lives: Through your work with us, you will have the opportunity to positively impact the lives of your fellow students and community members. You will be part of a team that is working towards a common goal.

Hone your skills in public service and civic engagement by joining the Nashman Center. Apply today to be part of the change.

Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

NOTEWORTHY

Full Community Service Fair

September 4, 10:00am-2:00pm. Join us for the Full Community Service Fair! This event is open to all GW students and will feature over 50 service opportunities, including volunteering, advocacy, and community engagement projects. Attend the fair to find a project that aligns with your interests and helps you make a difference in your community.

Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards

The Clinton Global Initiative University (CGI U) awarded five GW students with CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund awards. These students are working on innovative projects that address the global impact of COVID-19. The awards range from $10,000 to $25,000 and will support the students in their efforts to implement their projects.

Nashman Center Programs

Evidence-Based Environmental Justice

Register for SUST 2097 Engage Communities to Promote Justice and Environmental Improvements. This course will provide students with the opportunity to learn about evidence-based environmental justice. Students will engage with communities affected by environmental injustice and develop strategies to promote justice and improve the environment.

Plan Your Own Good Deeds

Perform your deed. Ideally, do your good deed or service activity in September, but you can do it anytime in September.

1. Visit 911day.org.
2. Find a good deed that you care about.
3. Share your deeds on social media.

Nashman Center News

1. On September 1, visit 911day.org.
2. Find a good deed that you care about.
3. Share your deeds on social media.

Nashman Center Activities

1. 911 Day At Home:
   - Join “9/11 Day At Home,” a nationwide virtual event.
   - Plan your own good deed or service activity.
   - Share your deeds on social media.

Community Opportunities

Register for the 2021-22 Volunteer Opportunities to Promote Justice and Environmental Improvements. The Nashman Center offers a variety of opportunities for students to engage in civic engagement and public service. These opportunities range from volunteering in the community to conducting research and advocating for social justice.

Contribute to the Team

Have a story, opportunity, or event you want to share? Submit it to our email list.

Thank you!

We are grateful for all the dedicated students, staff, and faculty who have made the Nashman Center a place of learning and growth. Your contributions have made a difference in our community and we look forward to continuing our work together.

Rebecca Melvoin-Klein
Executive Director
Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

NOTEWORTHY

VOTING BY MAIL?

See voting options for the 2020 election.

VOTE IN-PERSON?

Find your local polling place.

FALL COMMUNITY SERVICE FAIR

September 4, 10:00am-2:00pm. Join us for the Full Community Service Fair! This event is open to all GW students and will feature over 50 service opportunities, including volunteering, advocacy, and community engagement projects. Attend the fair to find a project that aligns with your interests and helps you make a difference in your community.

Welcome Days of Service: More Open to All GW Students!

Welcome Days of Service are an opportunity for students to engage in community service projects. This year, the Nashman Center is making Welcome Days of Service open to all GW students. Students can sign up to participate in a wide range of service opportunities, including volunteering, advocacy, and community engagement projects.

Nashman Center Activities

1. 911 Day At Home:
   - Join “9/11 Day At Home,” a nationwide virtual event.
   - Plan your own good deed or service activity.
   - Share your deeds on social media.

Contribute to the Team

Have a story, opportunity, or event you want to share? Submit it to our email list.

Thank you!

We are grateful for all the dedicated students, staff, and faculty who have made the Nashman Center a place of learning and growth. Your contributions have made a difference in our community and we look forward to continuing our work together.

Rebecca Melvoin-Klein
Executive Director
Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

NOTEWORTHY

VOTING BY MAIL?

See voting options for the 2020 election.

VOTE IN-PERSON?

Find your local polling place.

FALL COMMUNITY SERVICE FAIR

September 4, 10:00am-2:00pm. Join us for the Full Community Service Fair! This event is open to all GW students and will feature over 50 service opportunities, including volunteering, advocacy, and community engagement projects. Attend the fair to find a project that aligns with your interests and helps you make a difference in your community.

Welcome Days of Service: More Open to All GW Students!

Welcome Days of Service are an opportunity for students to engage in community service projects. This year, the Nashman Center is making Welcome Days of Service open to all GW students. Students can sign up to participate in a wide range of service opportunities, including volunteering, advocacy, and community engagement projects.

Nashman Center Activities

1. 911 Day At Home:
   - Join “9/11 Day At Home,” a nationwide virtual event.
   - Plan your own good deed or service activity.
   - Share your deeds on social media.

Contribute to the Team

Have a story, opportunity, or event you want to share? Submit it to our email list.

Thank you!

We are grateful for all the dedicated students, staff, and faculty who have made the Nashman Center a place of learning and growth. Your contributions have made a difference in our community and we look forward to continuing our work together.

Rebecca Melvoin-Klein
Executive Director
Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service