students by creating opportunities for them to engage in civic work.

Top priorities are to ensure that community and student needs are met. We aim to create a culture of service and civic engagement that can support students in their academic and personal development.

The program offers a variety of opportunities, including participation in service projects, workshops, and other events aimed at promoting civic engagement.

HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

"In the name of the people, we say no more. We must not only say no more but we must say yes..." said Andrew Young, former UN General Assembly President and Civil Rights leader, during a session of the CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE series. The series is sponsored by the Nashman Center and the Department of Government.

This year, the Nashman Center is partnering with the Department of Government to bring you a series of events focused on civic engagement and public service. Each event will feature speakers from the local community who will discuss the importance of civic engagement and public service and how you can get involved.
