To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

This email was sent to .

Washington, DC | 20052 United States
837 22nd St NW

View this email
Got this as a forward?
Manage

---

NOTEWORTHY

Full Community Service Fair
Saturday September 11th, 10am-12pm ET

- More than 40 community organizations will be on hand with opportunities for students to get involved.
- Organizers have opportunities for students to learn about various projects and other important volunteer opportunities, including mentorship programs, research work, and community engagement.
- If you are a community organization looking to table or meet people, please sign up.

COMMITMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Register for the 2021-2022 Engage Communities to Promote Civic Engagement and Public Service.

- You will have the opportunity to work alongside community leaders to make a positive impact on the community.
- Join us to engage in various activities such as climate change, mental health, poverty, and homelessness.
- You will help students and faculty identify areas to focus on and engage with communities.
- The event is open to all GW students and will take place on September 29th, 2021.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

Welcome Days of Service:
Now Open to All GW Students!

- Welcome Days of Service is an event in support of COVID-19 relief!
- Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards
- Five GW students received CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards,
- Community service is a core component of GW’s mission.
- Students are encouraged to get involved.

HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

Welcome Days of Service:
Now Open to All GW Students!

- Welcome Days of Service is an event in support of COVID-19 relief!
- Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards
- Five GW students received CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards,
- Community service is a core component of GW’s mission.
- Students are encouraged to get involved.

Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards

- The COVID-19 Pandemic has been a significant challenge for communities worldwide.
- Five GW students have been awarded CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards to support their work.
- These students are making a positive impact on communities affected by the pandemic.

Hiring Federal Work Study Students

- The Sustainability Minor course serves as a capstone experience for students who have an interest in sustainability.
- Students will identify an area of focus, conduct research, and in partnership with a community partner, identify a project.
- The course will allow students to engage in research projects that engage and support DC residents from marginalized or underserved communities.
- Students will learn how environmental justice intersects with social issues and have the opportunity to work alongside community partners.
- The class will be held Tuesdays 4:10pm -6:00pm Students will have the opportunity to work alongside community partners to engage and support DC residents from marginalized or underserved communities.

NOTEWORTHY

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

Register for the 2021-2022 Engage Communities to Promote Civic Engagement and Public Service.

- You will have the opportunity to work alongside community leaders to make a positive impact on the community.
- Join us to engage in various activities such as climate change, mental health, poverty, and homelessness.
- You will help students and faculty identify areas to focus on and engage with communities.
- The event is open to all GW students and will take place on September 29th, 2021.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

Welcome Days of Service:
Now Open to All GW Students!

- Welcome Days of Service is an event in support of COVID-19 relief!
- Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards
- Five GW students received CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards,
- Community service is a core component of GW’s mission.
- Students are encouraged to get involved.

HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

Welcome Days of Service:
Now Open to All GW Students!

- Welcome Days of Service is an event in support of COVID-19 relief!
- Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards
- Five GW students received CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards,
- Community service is a core component of GW’s mission.
- Students are encouraged to get involved.

Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards

- The COVID-19 Pandemic has been a significant challenge for communities worldwide.
- Five GW students have been awarded CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards to support their work.
- These students are making a positive impact on communities affected by the pandemic.

Hiring Federal Work Study Students

- The Sustainability Minor course serves as a capstone experience for students who have an interest in sustainability.
- Students will identify an area of focus, conduct research, and in partnership with a community partner, identify a project.
- The course will allow students to engage in research projects that engage and support DC residents from marginalized or underserved communities.
- Students will learn how environmental justice intersects with social issues and have the opportunity to work alongside community partners.
- The class will be held Tuesdays 4:10pm -6:00pm Students will have the opportunity to work alongside community partners to engage and support DC residents from marginalized or underserved communities.

NOTEWORTHY

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

Register for the 2021-2022 Engage Communities to Promote Civic Engagement and Public Service.

- You will have the opportunity to work alongside community leaders to make a positive impact on the community.
- Join us to engage in various activities such as climate change, mental health, poverty, and homelessness.
- You will help students and faculty identify areas to focus on and engage with communities.
- The event is open to all GW students and will take place on September 29th, 2021.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

Welcome Days of Service:
Now Open to All GW Students!

- Welcome Days of Service is an event in support of COVID-19 relief!
- Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards
- Five GW students received CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards,
- Community service is a core component of GW’s mission.
- Students are encouraged to get involved.

Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards

- The COVID-19 Pandemic has been a significant challenge for communities worldwide.
- Five GW students have been awarded CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards to support their work.
- These students are making a positive impact on communities affected by the pandemic.

Hiring Federal Work Study Students

- The Sustainability Minor course serves as a capstone experience for students who have an interest in sustainability.
- Students will identify an area of focus, conduct research, and in partnership with a community partner, identify a project.
- The course will allow students to engage in research projects that engage and support DC residents from marginalized or underserved communities.
- Students will learn how environmental justice intersects with social issues and have the opportunity to work alongside community partners.
- The class will be held Tuesdays 4:10pm -6:00pm Students will have the opportunity to work alongside community partners to engage and support DC residents from marginalized or underserved communities.

NOTEWORTHY

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

Register for the 2021-2022 Engage Communities to Promote Civic Engagement and Public Service.

- You will have the opportunity to work alongside community leaders to make a positive impact on the community.
- Join us to engage in various activities such as climate change, mental health, poverty, and homelessness.
- You will help students and faculty identify areas to focus on and engage with communities.
- The event is open to all GW students and will take place on September 29th, 2021.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

Welcome Days of Service:
Now Open to All GW Students!

- Welcome Days of Service is an event in support of COVID-19 relief!
- Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards
- Five GW students received CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards,
- Community service is a core component of GW’s mission.
- Students are encouraged to get involved.

Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards

- The COVID-19 Pandemic has been a significant challenge for communities worldwide.
- Five GW students have been awarded CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards to support their work.
- These students are making a positive impact on communities affected by the pandemic.

Hiring Federal Work Study Students

- The Sustainability Minor course serves as a capstone experience for students who have an interest in sustainability.
- Students will identify an area of focus, conduct research, and in partnership with a community partner, identify a project.
- The course will allow students to engage in research projects that engage and support DC residents from marginalized or underserved communities.
- Students will learn how environmental justice intersects with social issues and have the opportunity to work alongside community partners.
- The class will be held Tuesdays 4:10pm -6:00pm Students will have the opportunity to work alongside community partners to engage and support DC residents from marginalized or underserved communities.