HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

NOTEWORTHY

NASHMAN CENTER PROGRAMS

Welcome Days of Service: New Open to All GW Students! Sign up to serve with community organizations at the Fall Community Service Fair on Saturday, September 19th. Meet and learn from community organizations and find a project you are passionate about and can get involved with. For more details and to register please sign up here.

Full Community Service Fair
September 19th, 10am - 3pm ET

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

Register for the 2022-2023 Engage Communities to Promote Civic Engagement at GW Application. This is an opportunity to work alongside community groups to identify a social justice issue and bring together various groups to find ways to address the issue. The event will take place at the National Mall, and will include workshops on social justice and community engagement at GW and in DC. Transcribe historical documents with the National Archives, interview Aboriginal activists group, Queensland, Australia, 1970s. For more information please email wdos@gwu.edu.

COMMUNITY SPOTLIGHT

Five GW Students Recover Covid-19 As We Learn More From Pandemic

Through the COVID-19 Patient Sentinel Net, the Center for Integrative Health and Human Potential partnered with GW’s Office of Research to conduct ongoing COVID-19 recovery research. Participants were monitored for a minimum of six months following diagnosis. For more information please email wdos@gwu.edu.

Hiring Federal Work Study Students

The Federal Work Study Program is designed to help students who are financially need and provide on-campus work opportunities. For more information please email wdos@gwu.edu.

If you have questions or concerns to advocate for the environment. Please email wdos@gwu.edu.

VOTING BY MAIL?

Do you want to vote by mail this year? Check out this article to learn more.

Check out this article to learn more.

Seeking to address the pandemic through various projects. The Global Initiative University (CGI U) recognized students for their efforts. Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards.

Global Initiative University (CGI U) recognized students for their efforts. Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards.

1. On September 1, visit 911day.org
2. Good deeds based on what you care about.
3. Share your deeds!

On 9/11 Day, and your organization's hashtag if any. (Tag your good deed on your social media)

If you are a community organization looking to table online writing, or communications. Organizations have opportunities for students to serve directly and many have indirect service opportunities, like community-engaged research, grant writing, or communications.

Meet and learn from community organizations and find a project you are passionate about and can get involved with.

This year, we open Welcome Days of Service to all GW students!

We invite all GW students to serve with us on Welcome Days of Service on Saturday, September 19th, 1:00pm-3:00pm ET.

Hello friends!

"If you have come here to help me, you are wasting your time. But if you have come to help us all, then let us work together!" - Martin Luther King Jr.

Yes, we will focus on community building and civic skills and knowledge. And yes, we will laugh while we build inclusive collaboration!

We will host workshops, open "Honey Room" spaces, and find other opportunities to connect.

Another, please know that we here in the Nashman Center -- and our friends and colleagues throughout GW -- are here to continue to make this a community of mutual support and caring.

Please email wdos@gwu.edu if you have questions or concerns to advocate for the environment.

Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

Washington, DC | 20052 United States

Got this as a forward?

Manage

Study students. Watch the videos Employment's series on reasons to hire federal work members of the GW community for Student Students. Hiring Federal Work Study Check out this article to learn more.

Seeking to address the pandemic through various projects. The Global Initiative University (CGI U) recognized students for their efforts. Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards.

Global Initiative University (CGI U) recognized students for their efforts. Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards.

1. On September 1, visit 911day.org
2. Good deeds based on what you care about.
3. Share your deeds!

On 9/11 Day, and your organization's hashtag if any. (Tag your good deed on your social media)

If you are a community organization looking to table online writing, or communications. Organizations have opportunities for students to serve directly and many have indirect service opportunities, like community-engaged research, grant writing, or communications.

Meet and learn from community organizations and find a project you are passionate about and can get involved with.

This year, we open Welcome Days of Service to all GW students!

We invite all GW students to serve with us on Welcome Days of Service on Saturday, September 19th, 1:00pm-3:00pm ET.

Hello friends!

"If you have come here to help me, you are wasting your time. But if you have come to help us all, then let us work together!" - Martin Luther King Jr.

Yes, we will focus on community building and civic skills and knowledge. And yes, we will laugh while we build inclusive collaboration!

We will host workshops, open "Honey Room" spaces, and find other opportunities to connect.

Another, please know that we here in the Nashman Center -- and our friends and colleagues throughout GW -- are here to continue to make this a community of mutual support and caring.

Please email wdos@gwu.edu if you have questions or concerns to advocate for the environment.