NOTEWORTHY

Welcome Days of Service: Your Campus Students and Community Service Activities!

GW students and the surrounding community are encouraged to participate in Welcome Days of Service. These events provide opportunities for students to engage in community service projects and learn about the needs of the community. The events include a variety of activities such as cleaning up parks, volunteering at food banks, and helping seniors with administrative tasks.

Volunteers are needed for these events, so please consider signing up to participate. The events are open to all GW students and community members.

NASHMAN CENTER PROGRAMS

Full Community Service Fair

Saturday, September 11th, 10:00 AM - 2:00 PM

The Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service will host the Full Community Service Fair on September 11th. This event will feature a variety of community-based organizations that will provide information about their volunteer opportunities and service projects. Attendees can learn about different ways to get involved in the community and make a positive impact.

Community Opportunities

Register for GW 2021 Engage Community to Promote Civic Engagement and Public Service.

This year, the Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service is offering a variety of opportunities for students to engage in civic engagement and public service. These opportunities include community-based research, community service projects, and community-based organizations. The goal is to provide students with opportunities to learn about community service and make a positive impact on the community.

Welcome Days of Service

Welcome Days of Service is a great opportunity for students to engage in community service projects and learn about the needs of the community. The events include a variety of activities such as cleaning up parks, volunteering at food banks, and helping seniors with administrative tasks. Volunteers are needed for these events, so please consider signing up to participate. The events are open to all GW students and community members.

Community Spotlight

Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards

Through the COVID-19 Action Fund, the Clinton Global Initiative University (CGI U) recognized students for their innovative projects to address the impact of COVID-19. Five GW students were awarded grants to support their projects, which focus on topics such as mental health, economic impact, and social justice.

Evidence-Based Environmental Justice

Students in the Evidence-Based Environmental Justice course will work alongside community partners to understand how environmental justice intersects with social issues. The class will be held Tuesdays 4:10pm - 6:00pm. Students will have the opportunity to work alongside community partners to understand how environmental justice intersects with social issues.

Evidence-Based Environmental Justice

The Evidence-Based Environmental Justice course will allow students to identify an area of focus, conduct research, and in partnership with a community partner, identify a project. This course will allow students to identify an area of focus, conduct research, and in partnership with a community partner, identify a project. This course will allow students to identify an area of focus, conduct research, and in partnership with a community partner, identify a project.