Dear Colleague,

I can't believe it — we've already reached the middle of the year! Time goes by so fast.

And by the time you receive this newsletter, Jane, Jenna and I will be headed to Ecuador on a fam trip with our newest client, Enchanted Expeditions. Ten days exploring Quito and its surroundings, discovering Santa Cruz Island and sailing around the Galapagos.

Are you getting jealous? Don't worry, we'll share all of our insights with you in the upcoming weeks. But I can already tell you that Ecuador is a great destination for post-pandemic trips (did you know that everyone 18 years of age and over in Galapagos Islands is 100% vaccinated?).

Another great option to enjoy this summer holiday, especially if you're looking for a domestic trip, is to spend some days in the spectacular wilderness of New Mexico. Canyon Madness Ranch offers a wide range of activities like hiking, climbing, mountain biking, horseback riding, shooting, etc that will guarantee a lifetime experience for everyone in the family.

The good news keeps coming and we're pleased to announce that Travel Pioneers is joining our portfolio this month. The Costa Rica-based firm creates unique itineraries for Costa Rica, Belize, Panama, Colombia, Nicaragua and Guatemala.

On another note, even though the borders are still closed to international travelers in Argentina, Chile and Uruguay, the vaccination process is moving fast. Chile and Uruguay have inoculated 60% of their populations with at least one dose. Hopefully, in the upcoming months we can share news about easing travel restrictions and reopening borders.

Below you'll find latest news and inspiring travel ideas from the cool companies in our portfolio.

Enjoy the read and let's plan a trip!
