October 2024

Dear Colleague,

It's unbelievable how fast time goes...we've already arrived in the last quarter of the year, deciding on menus and where to celebrate Thanksgiving and Christmas.

This is also a busy time of the year for the Emerging Destinations team.

Last week, Jane and Jenna attended the Adventure World Travel Summit in Panama on behalf of Guyana and also had the chance to spend time with Judy from Enchanted Expeditions (Ecuador) and Josian and Juan from Las Torres Patagonia Cultural & National Reserve (Chile), who were attending the event as well.

Great news! The 2025 Adventure World Travel Summit is taking place in Puerto Natales (Chile), which is an amazing opportunity for all those attending the conference to undertake pre- or post-trip adventures at either River House Lodge Patagonia in Argentina or Las Torres Patagonia in Chile. Don't wait until the very last minute and start planning now!

This week, Paula is attending the Fora Live Forum in NY. If you're going to be there, please stop by her table!

For those doing virtual trade shows, I'm participating in the Romance Virtual Travel Xpo this week. Please pop into our virtual booth and chat with me about the amazing new offers from clients in the portfolio. Like the new beach club from La Coralina Island House in Panama and great discounts on October and November departure dates to sail the Galapagos Islands with Enchanted Expeditions.

Our upcoming sales calls/trip calendar has been slightly changed and we're now doing PA, MO, KS and NE in November (instead of October). Browse our new dates below and let us know if you would like to schedule an in-person meeting or join any of our intimate events.

Best regards,

Ana (on behalf of the Emerging Destinations team: Jane, Jenna, Paula & Ana)

Tips for Positive and Low-Impact Travel in Guyana

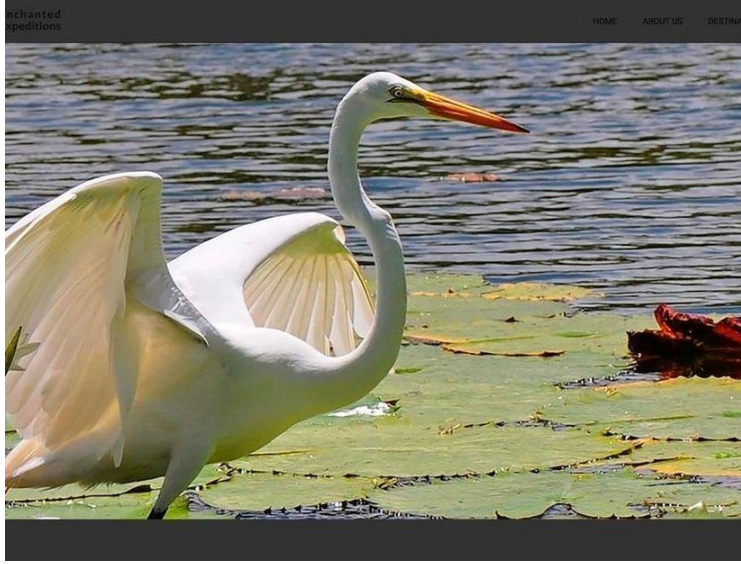

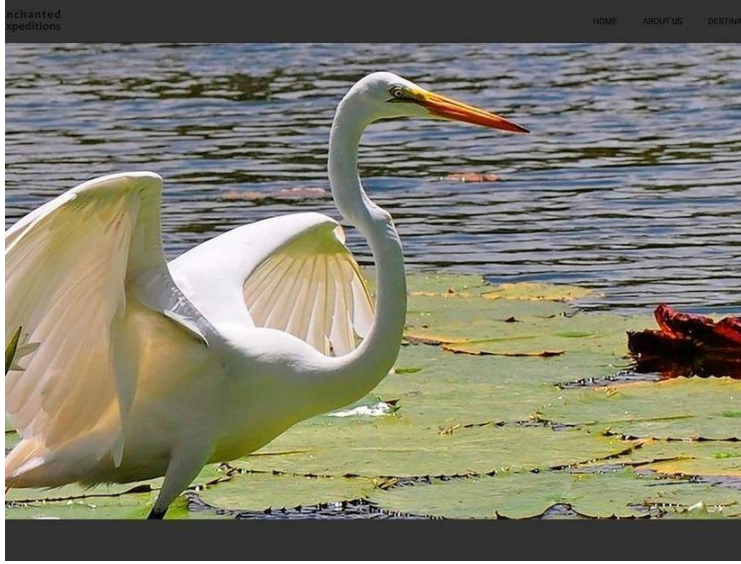

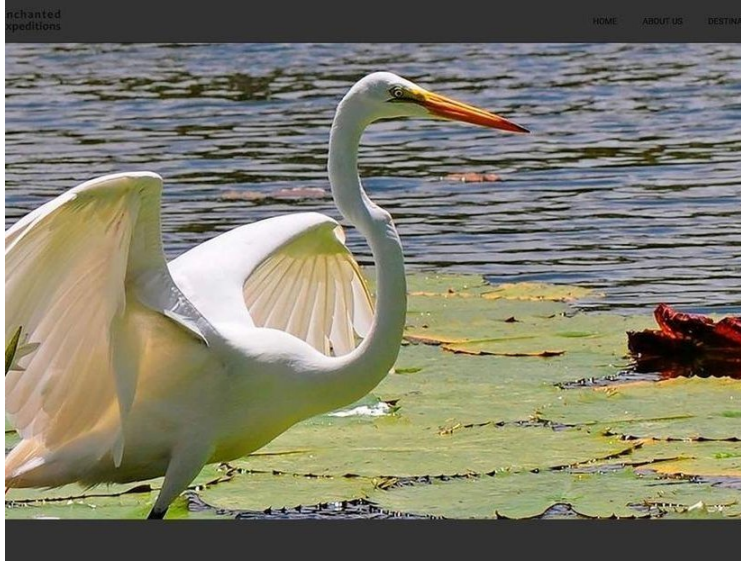

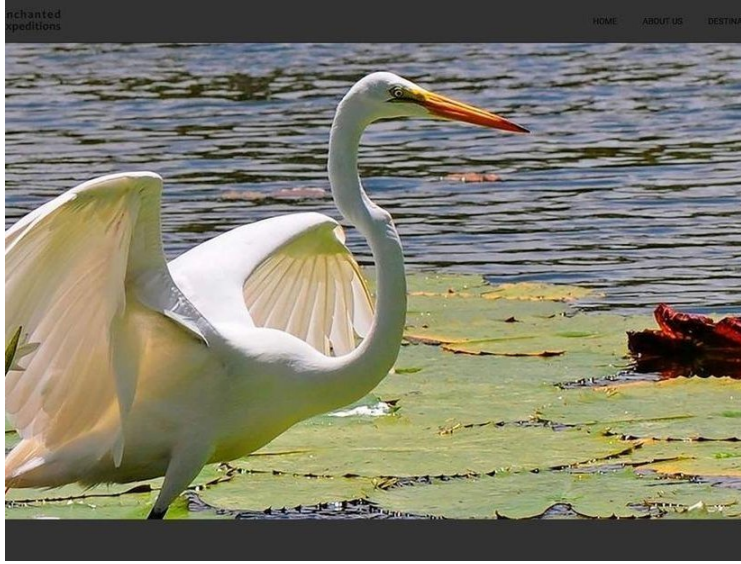

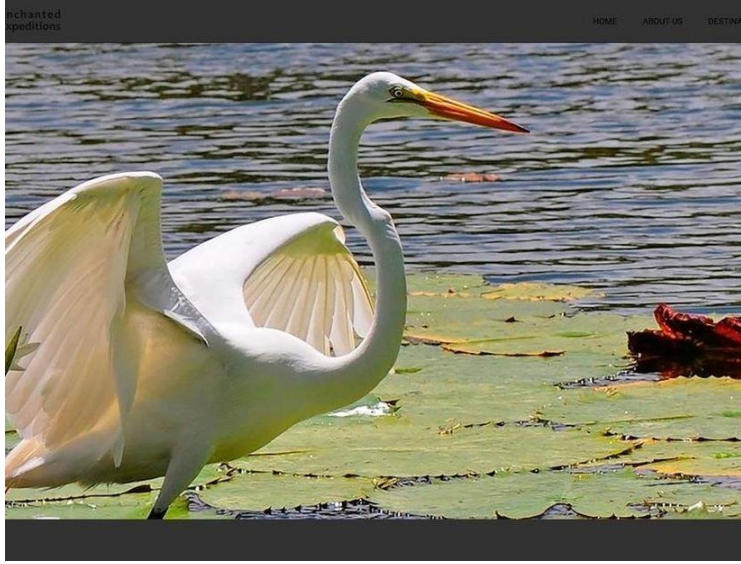

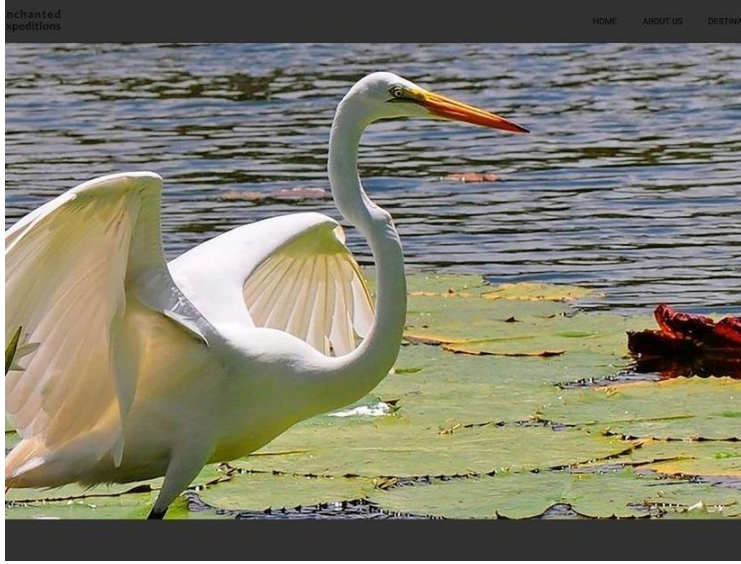

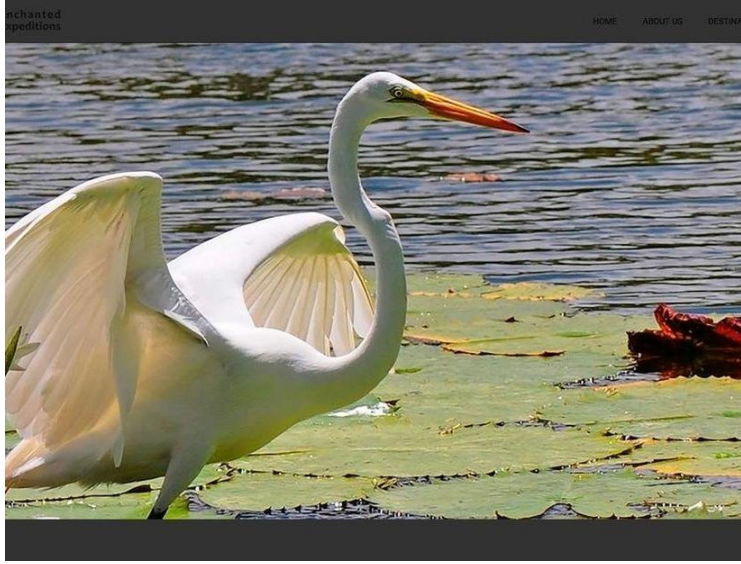

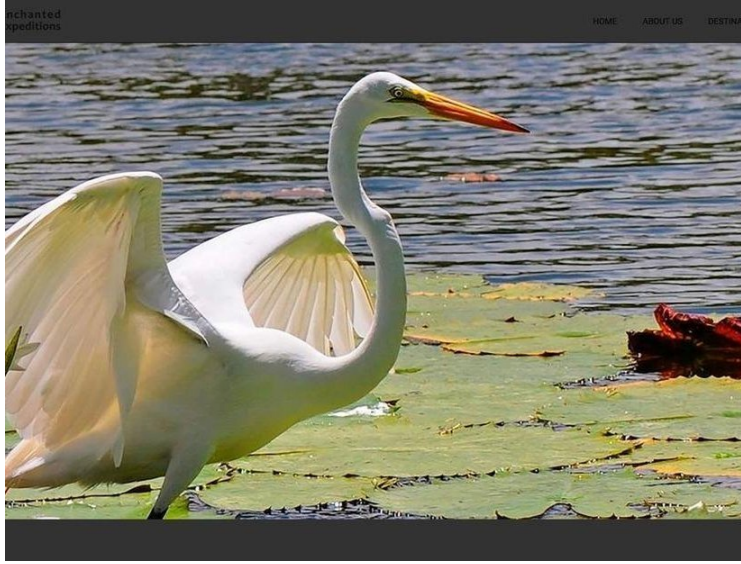

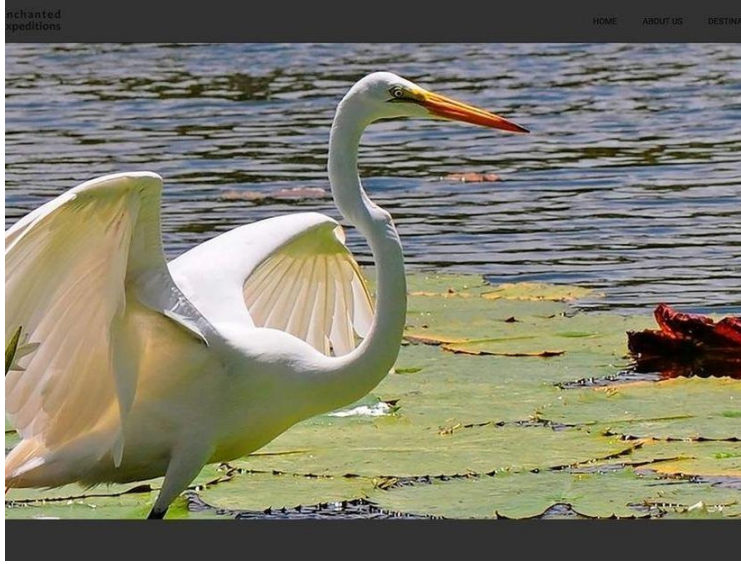

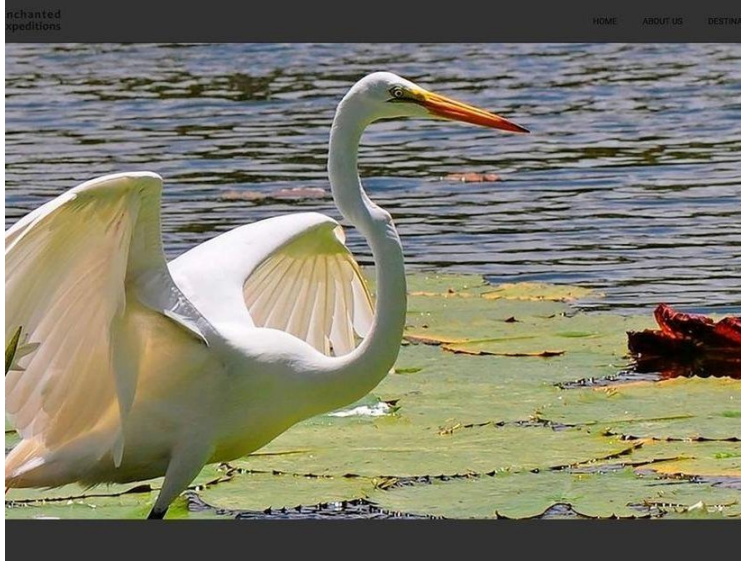

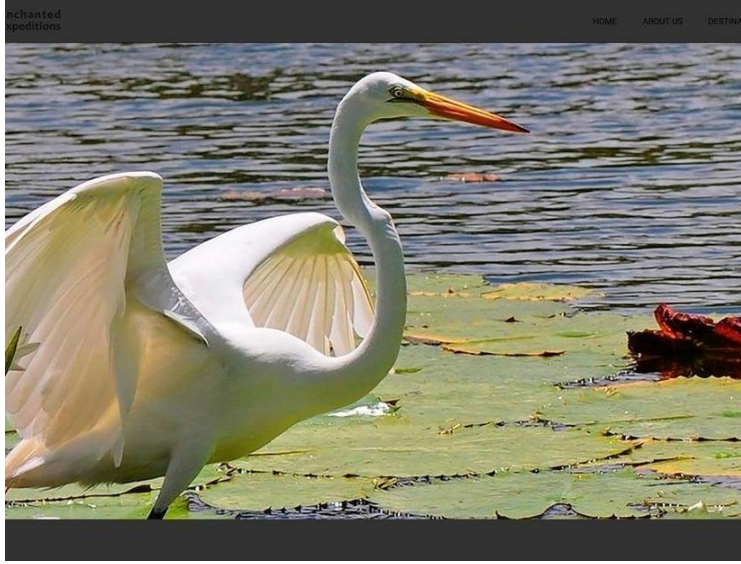

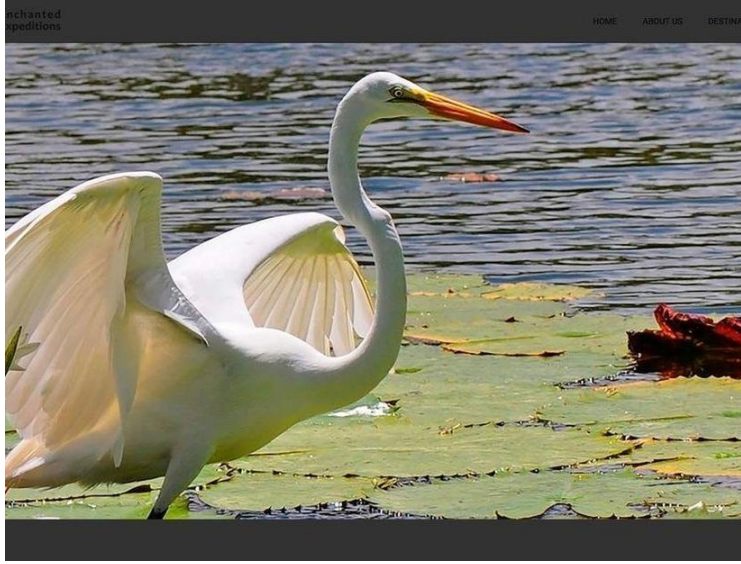

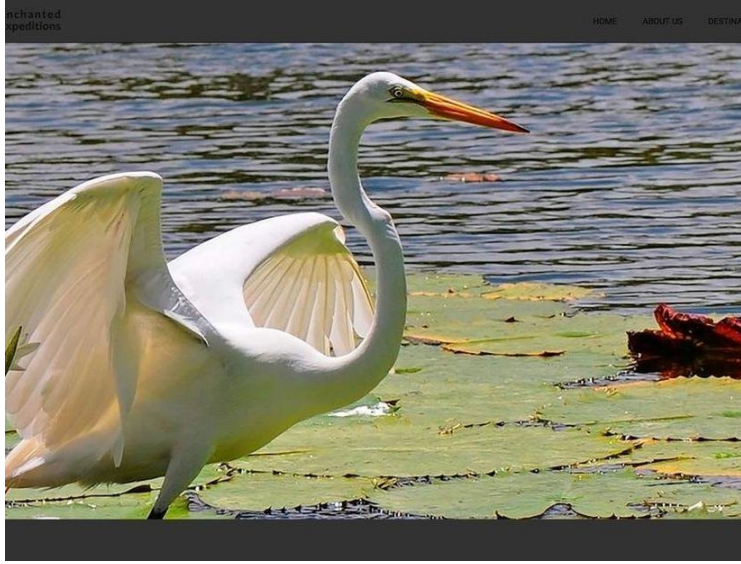

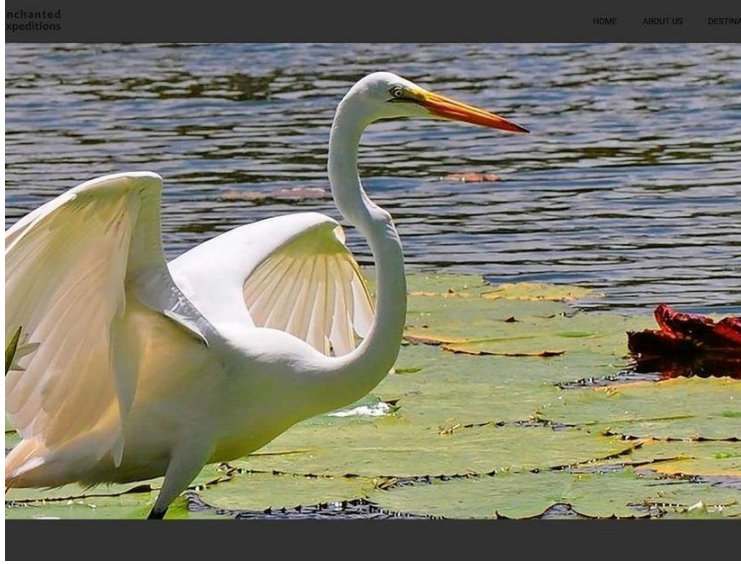

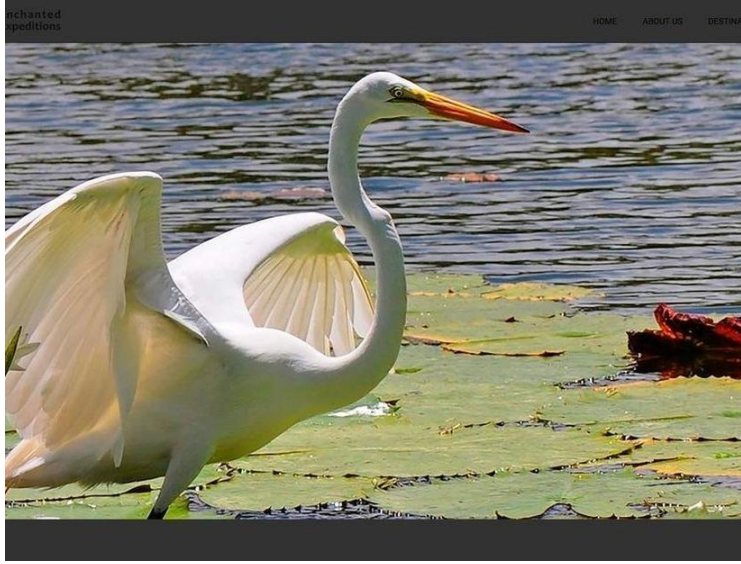

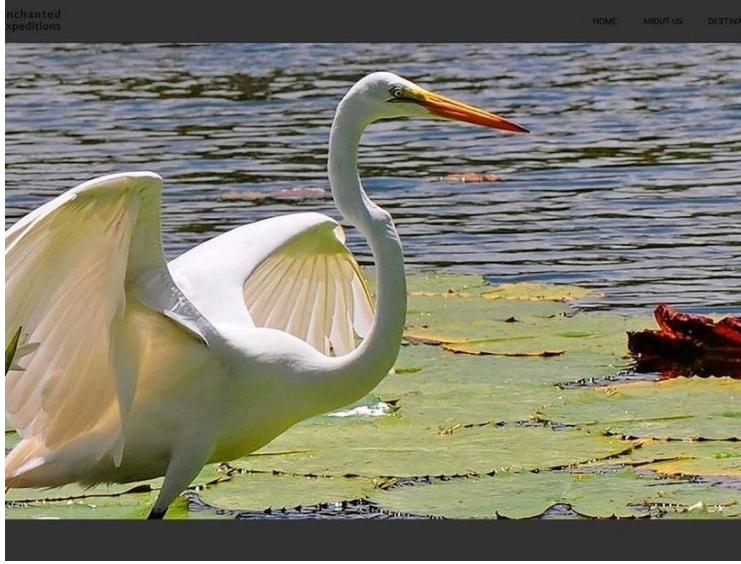

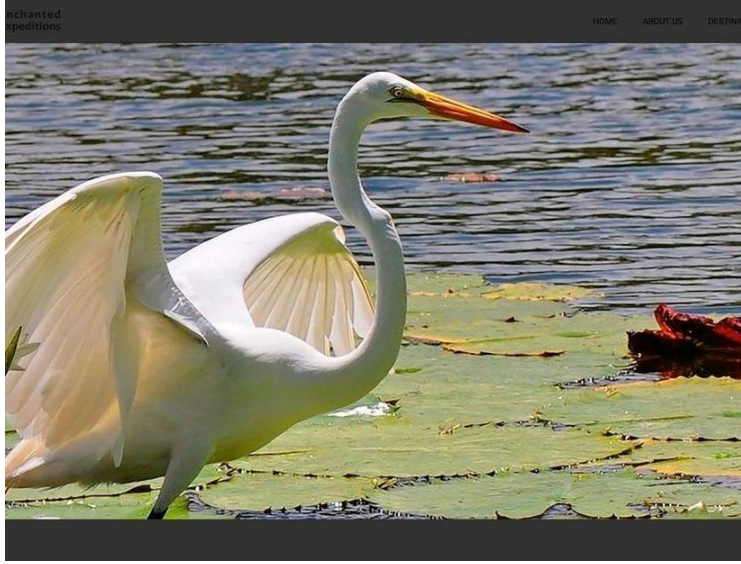

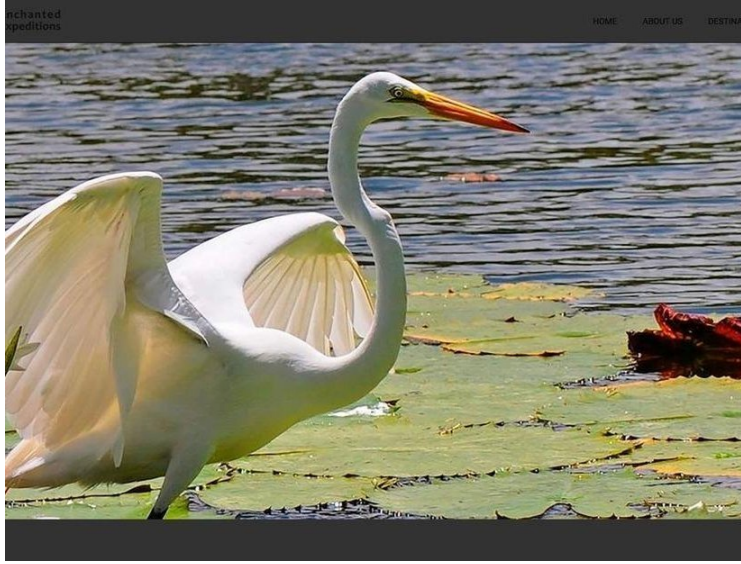

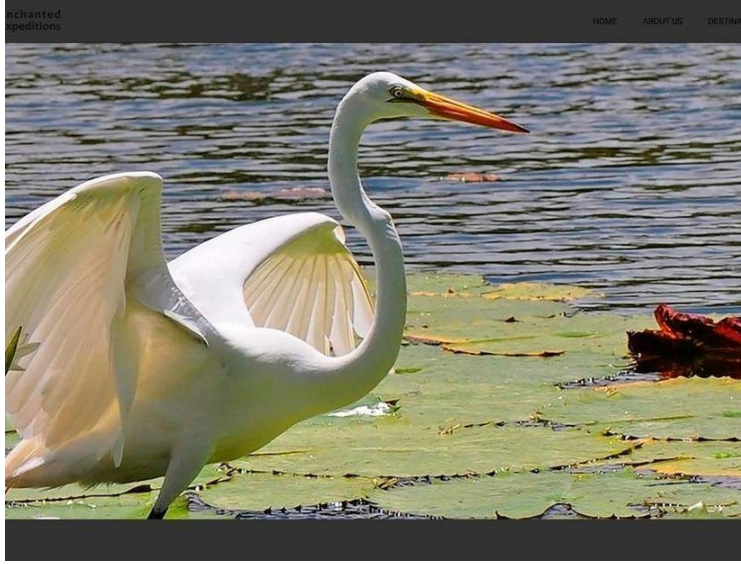

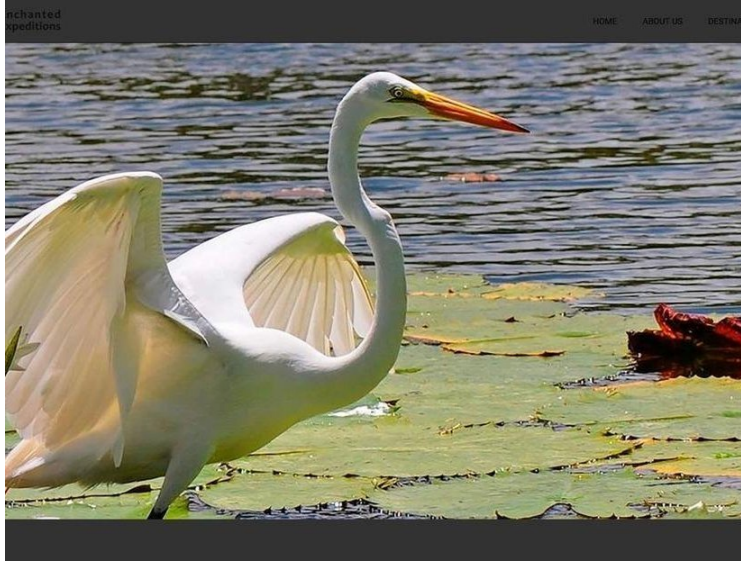

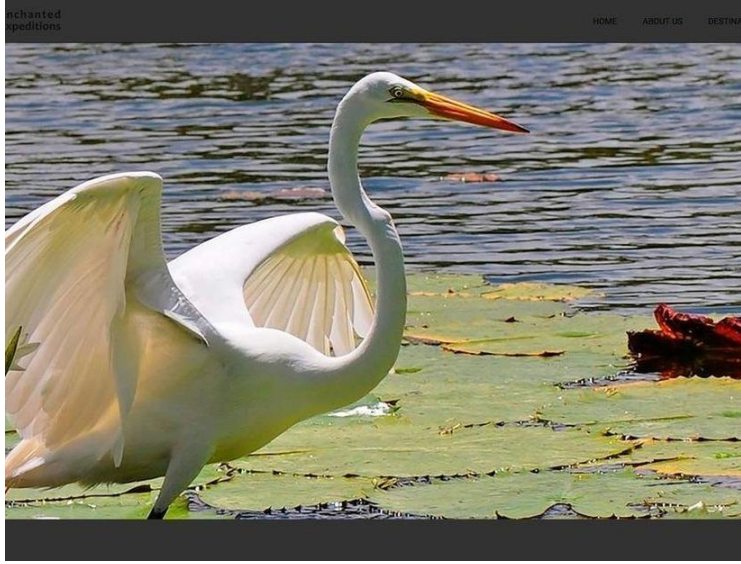

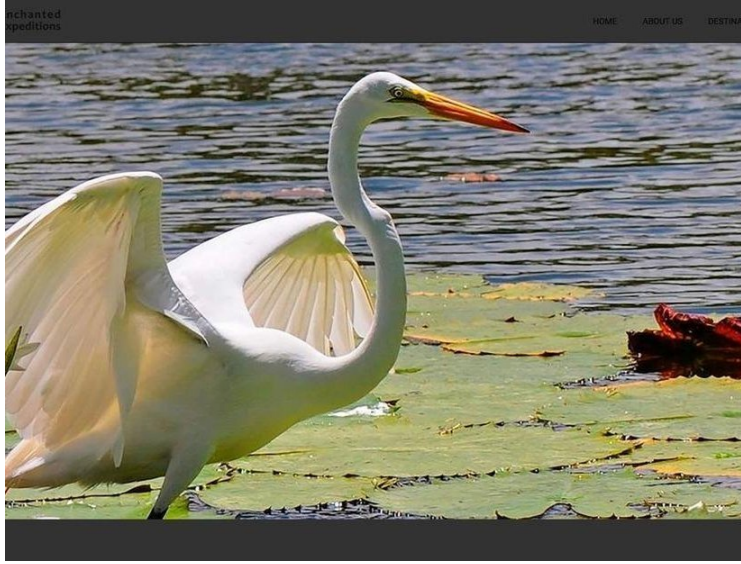

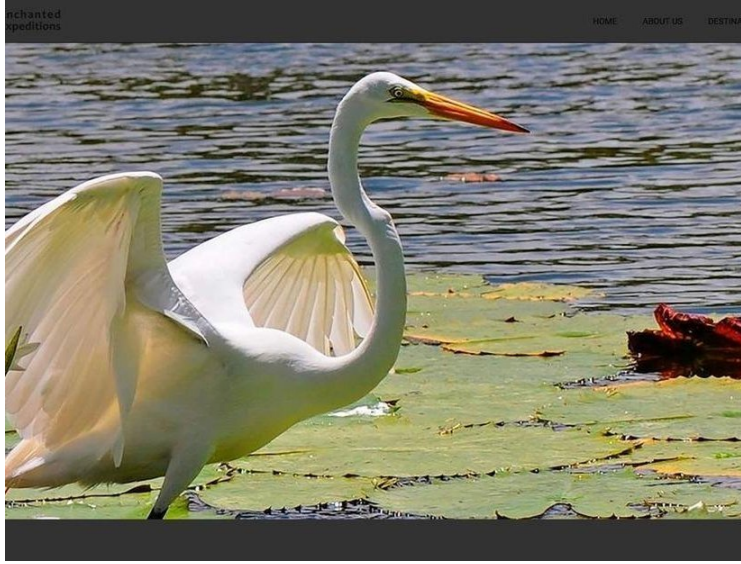

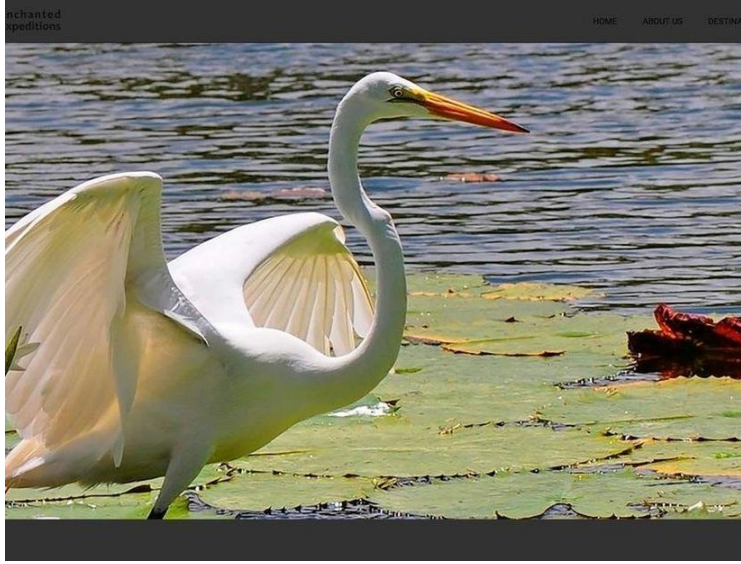

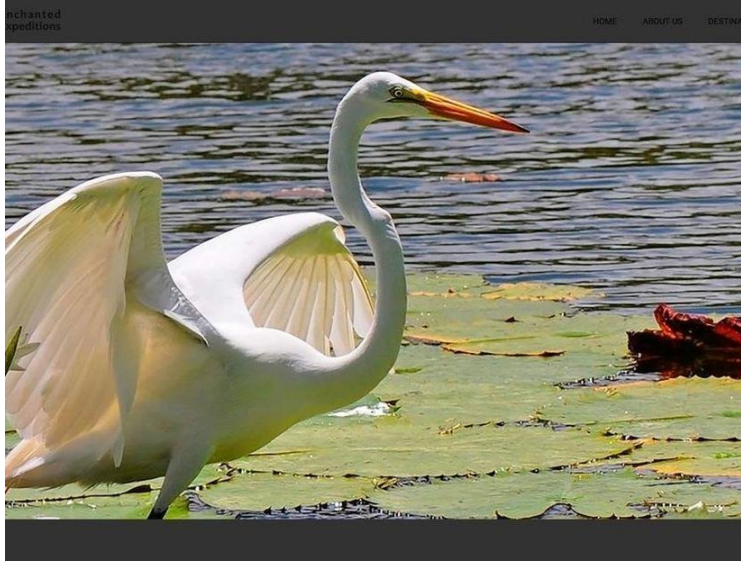

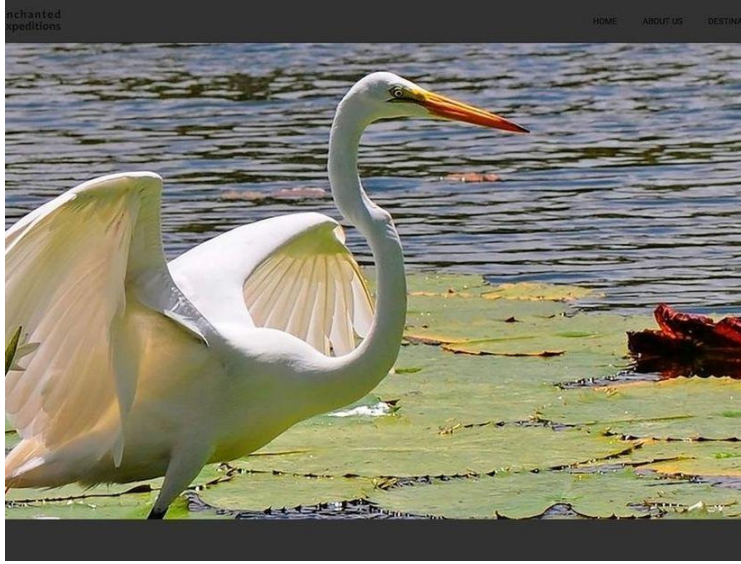

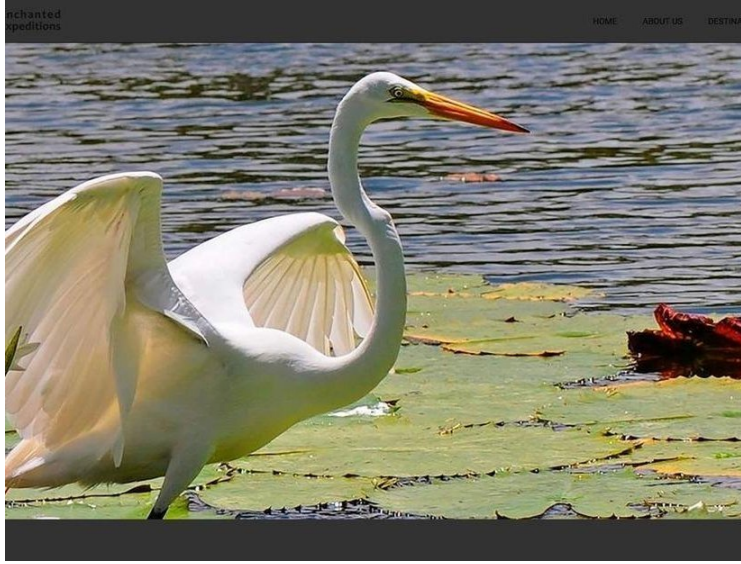

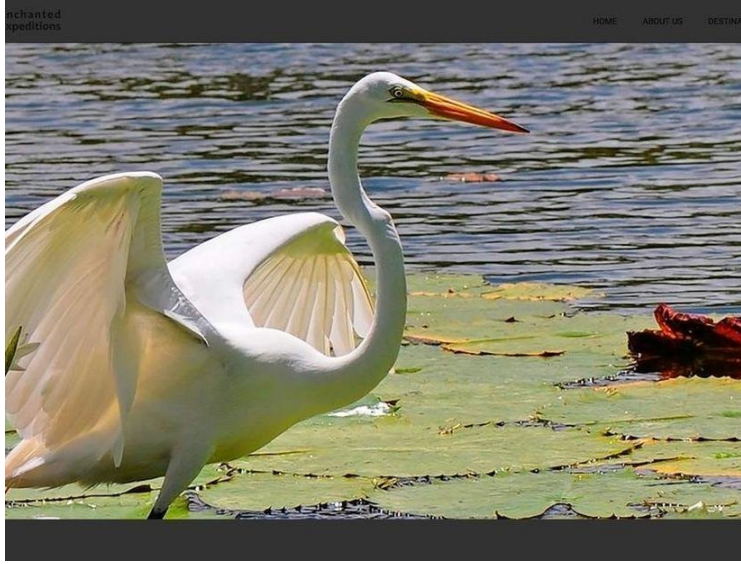

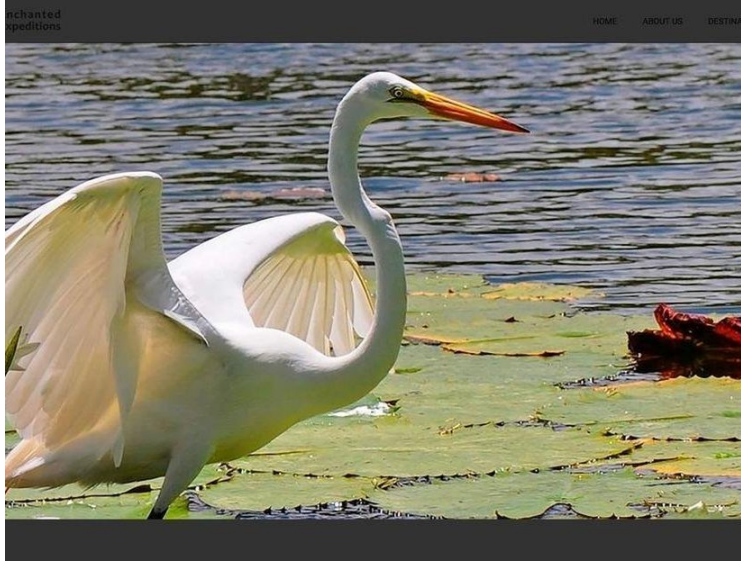

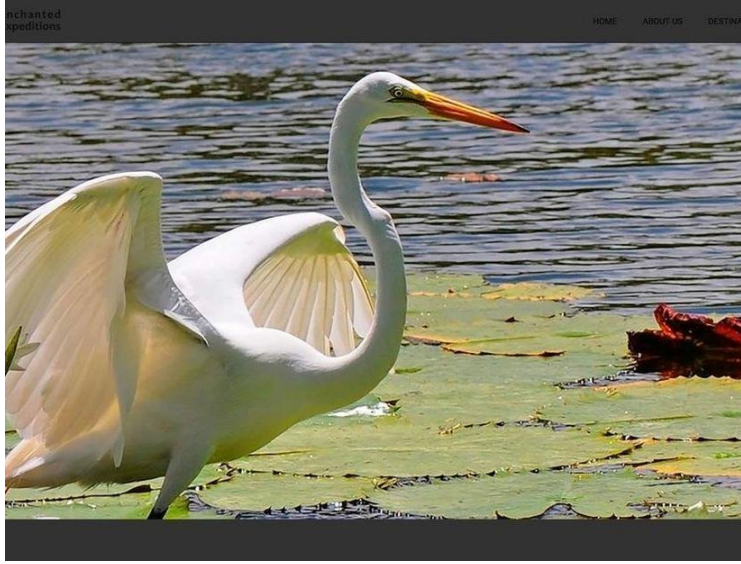

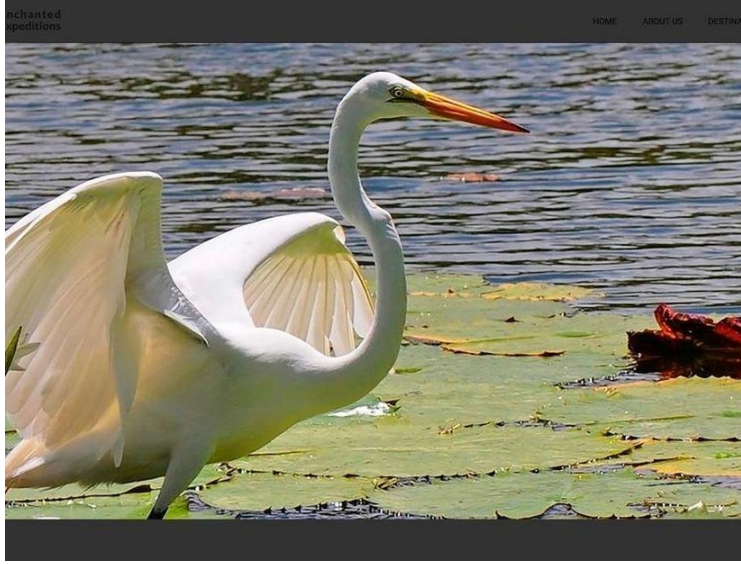

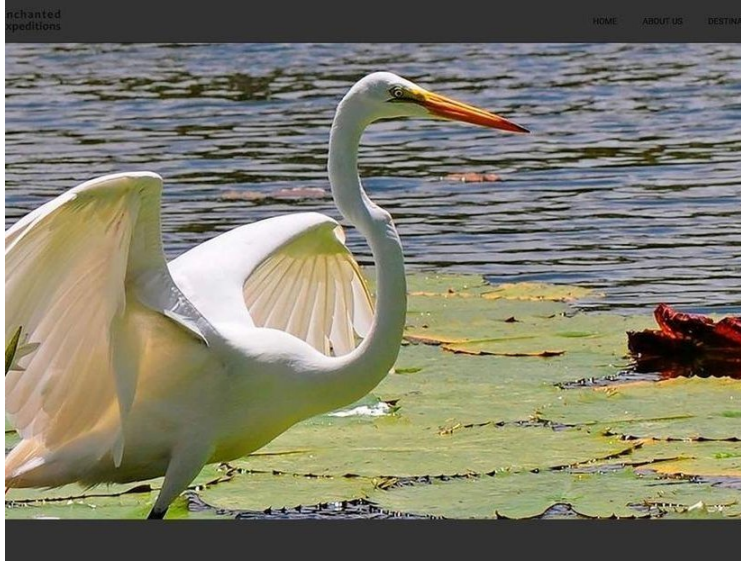

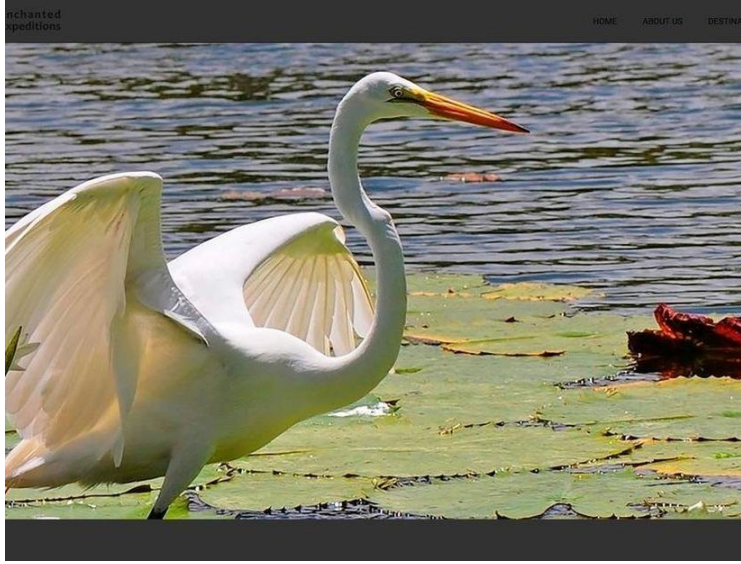

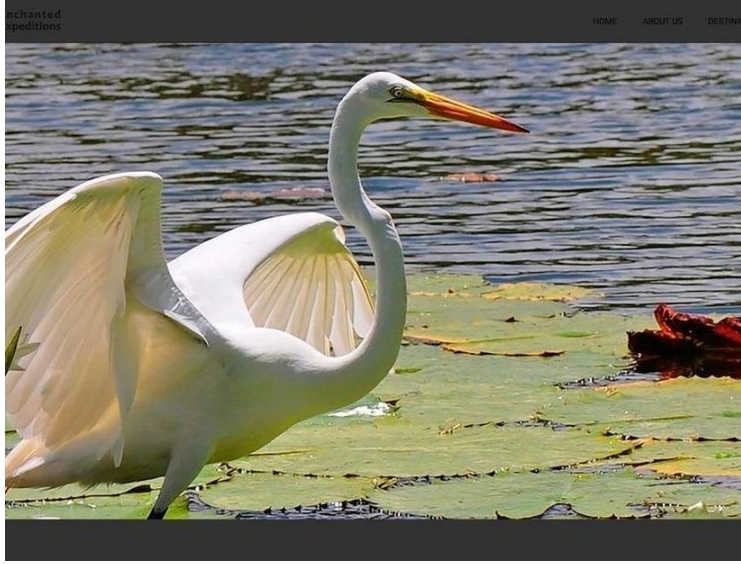

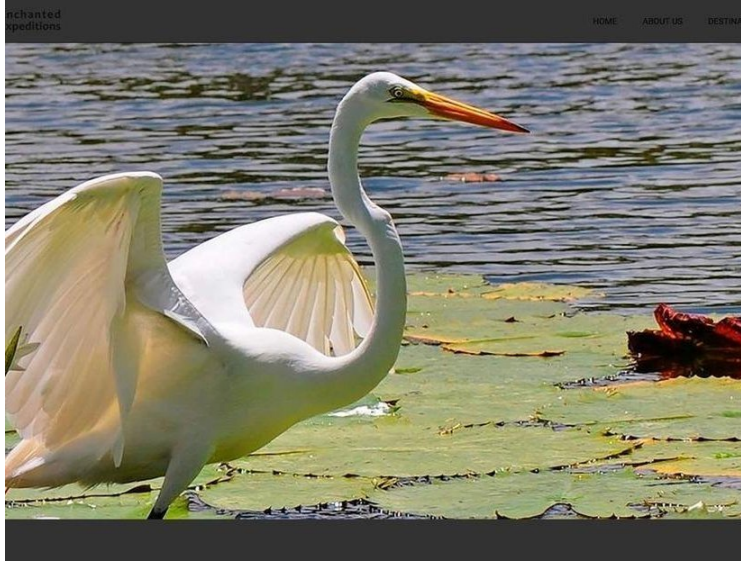

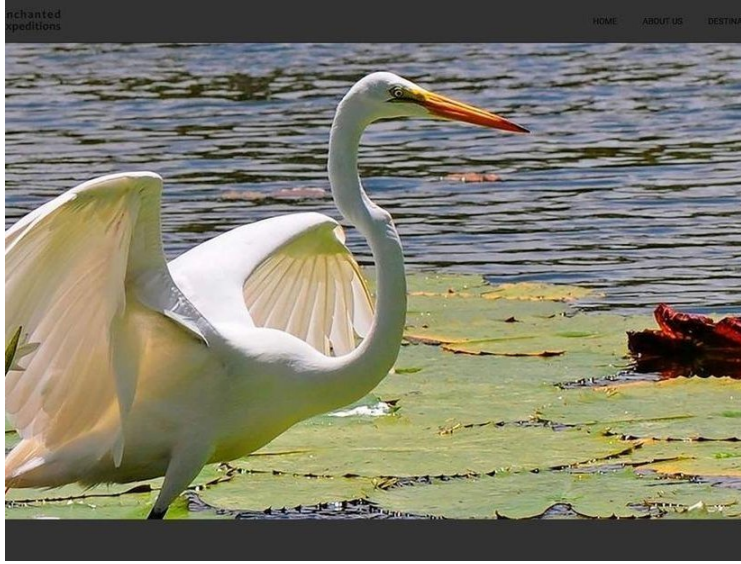

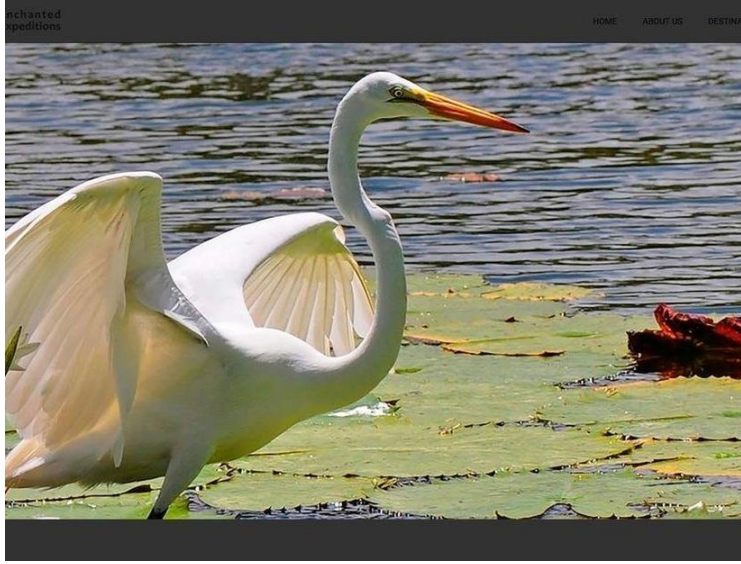

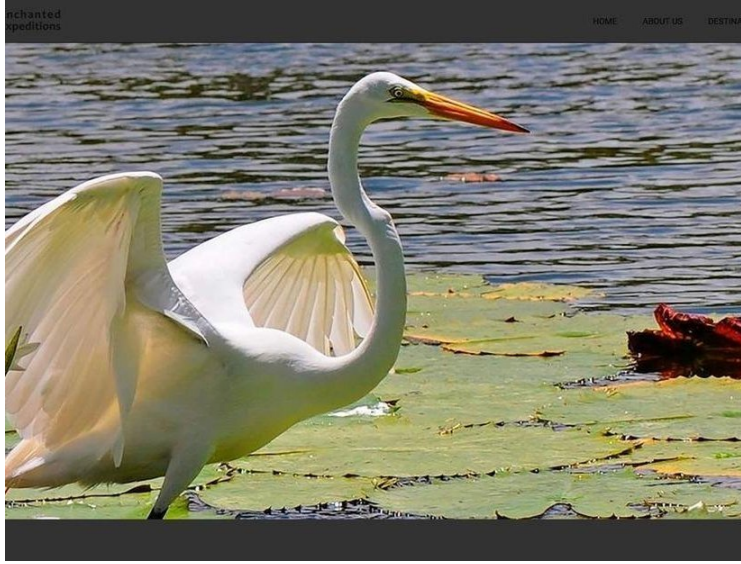

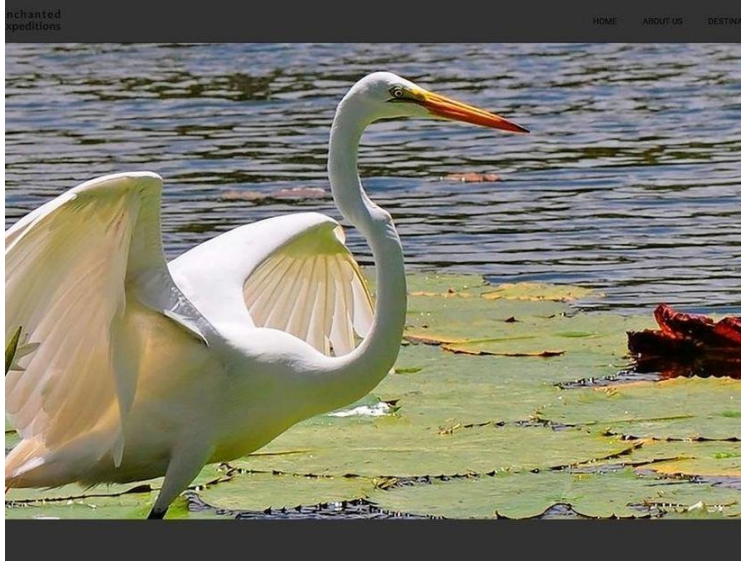

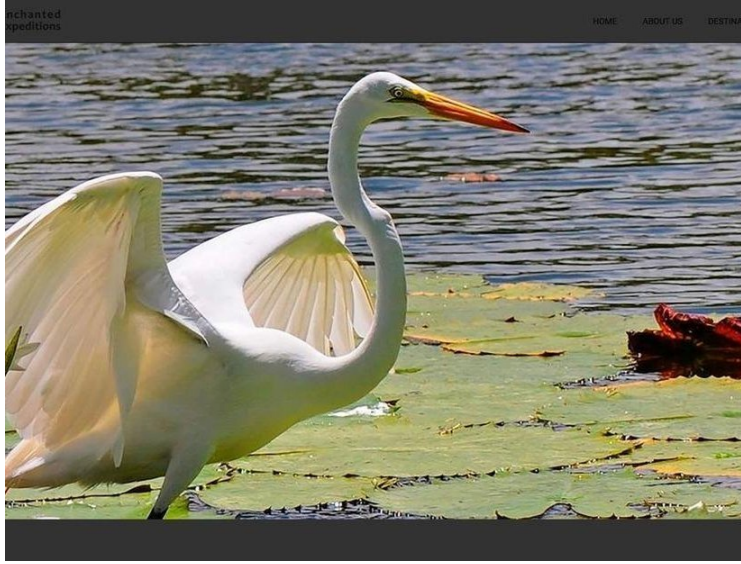

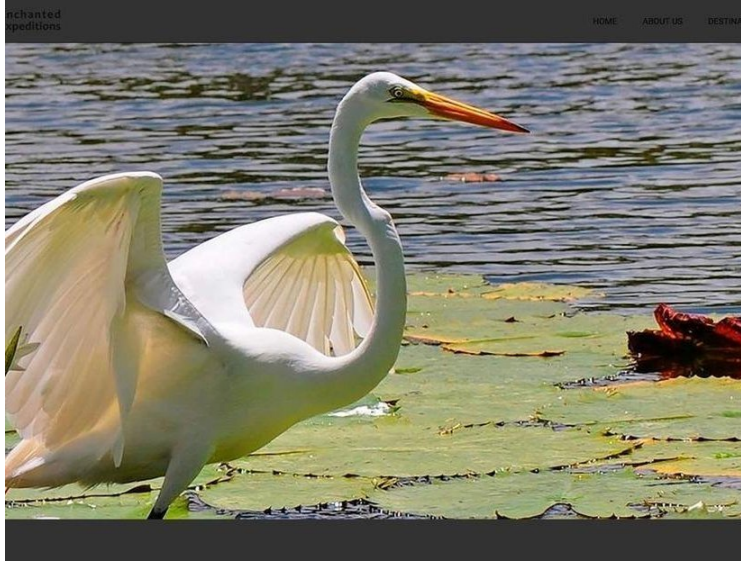

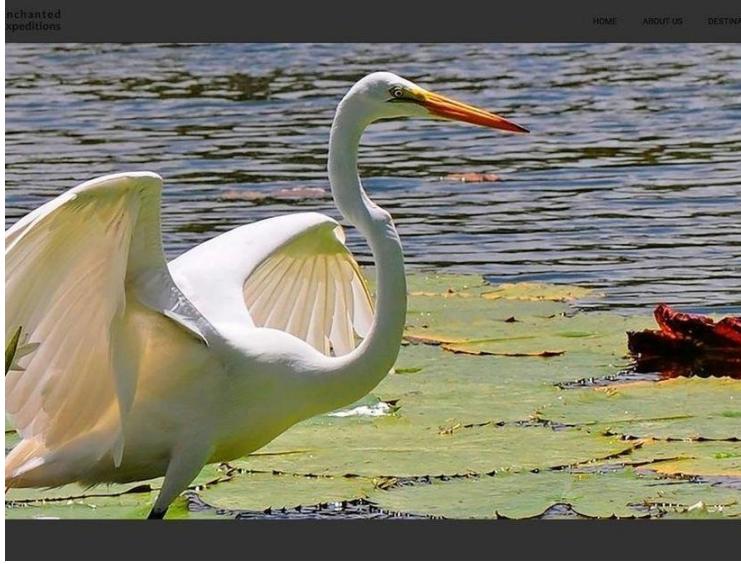

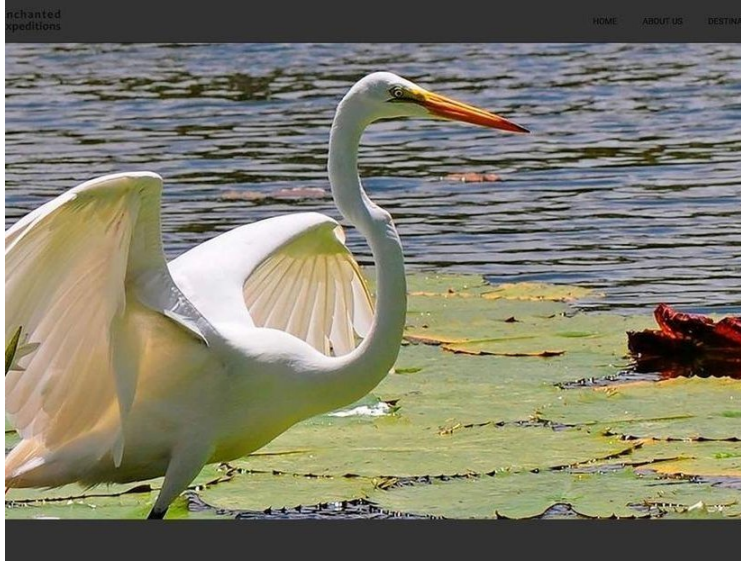

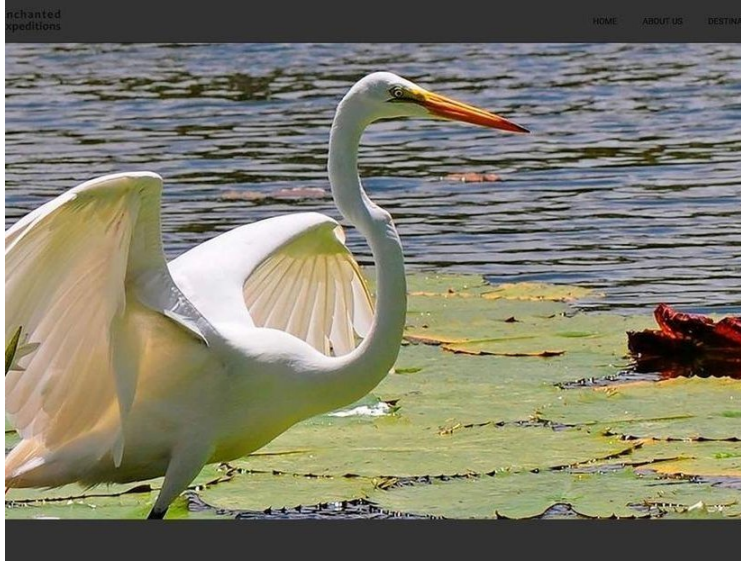

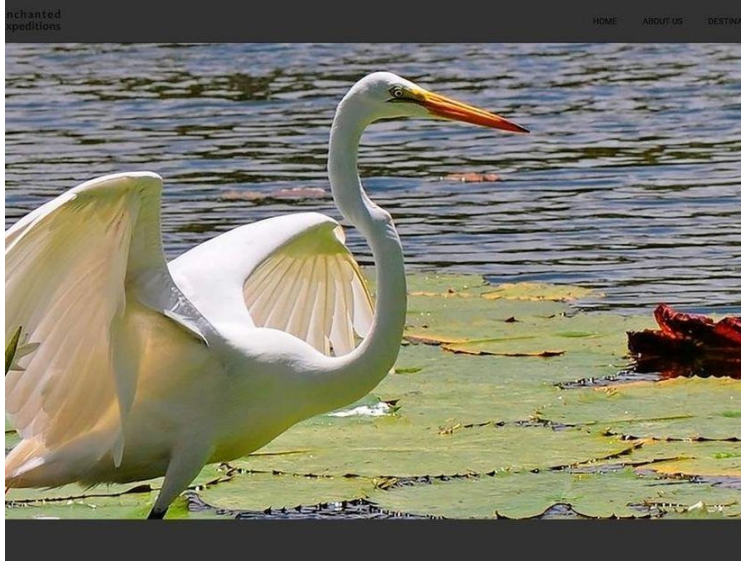

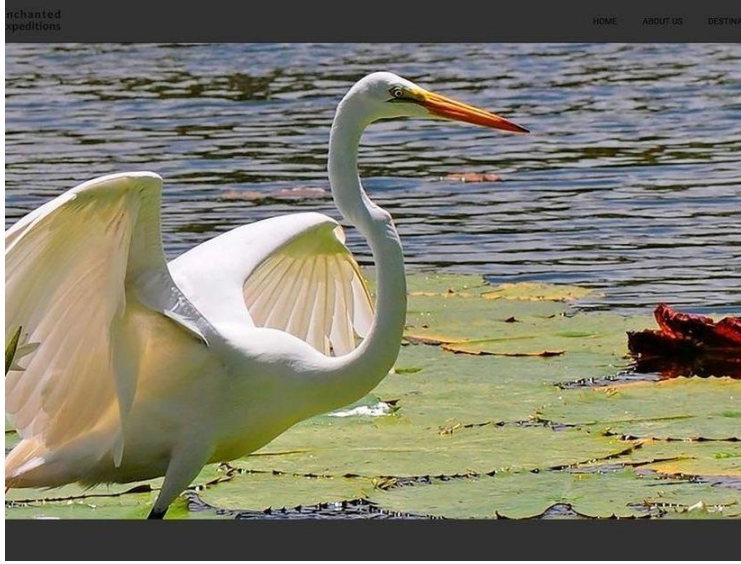

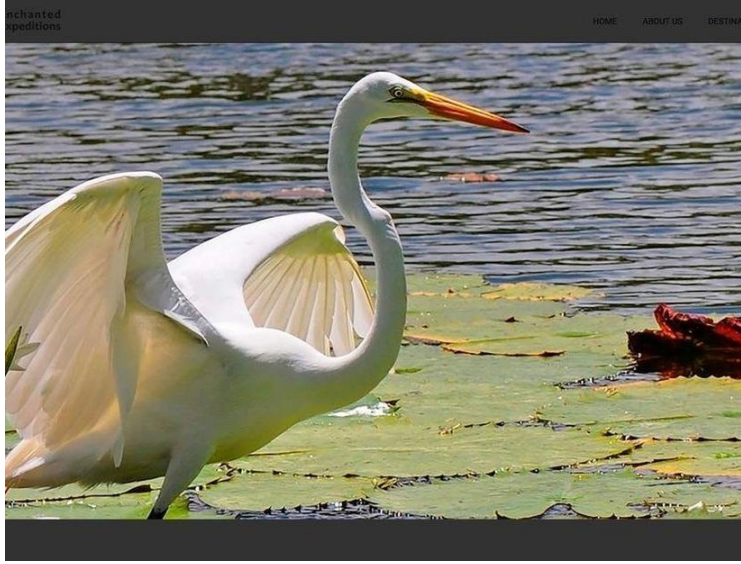

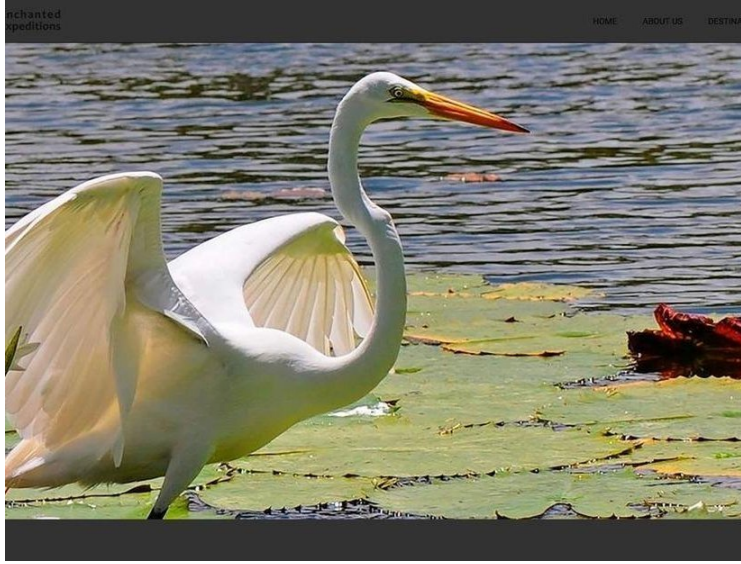

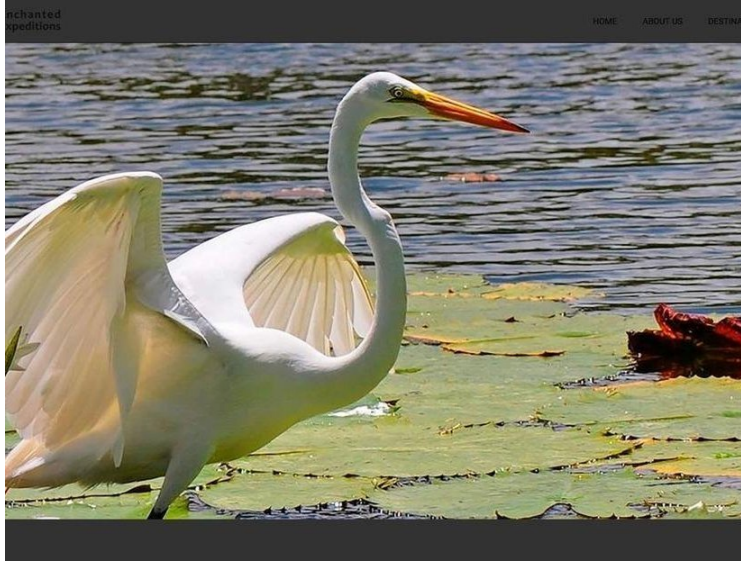

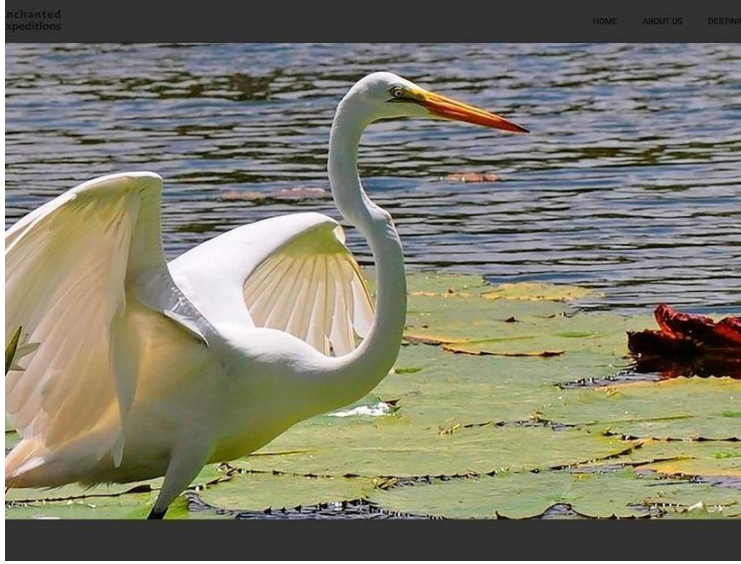

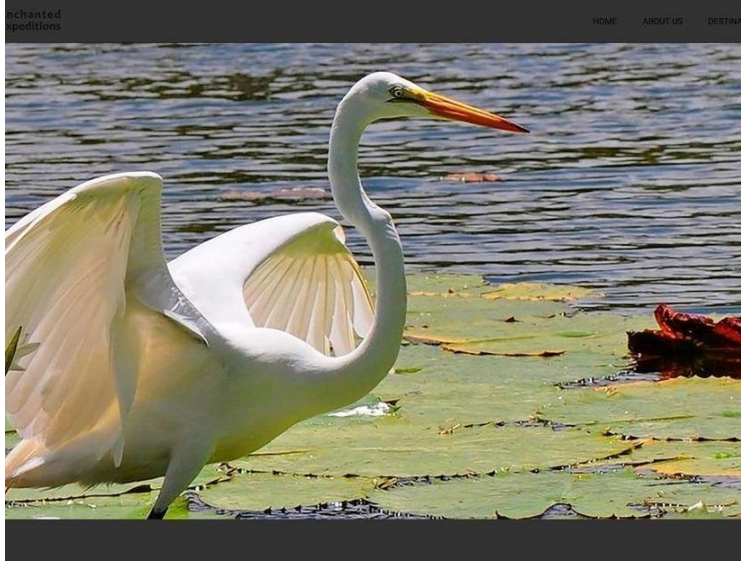

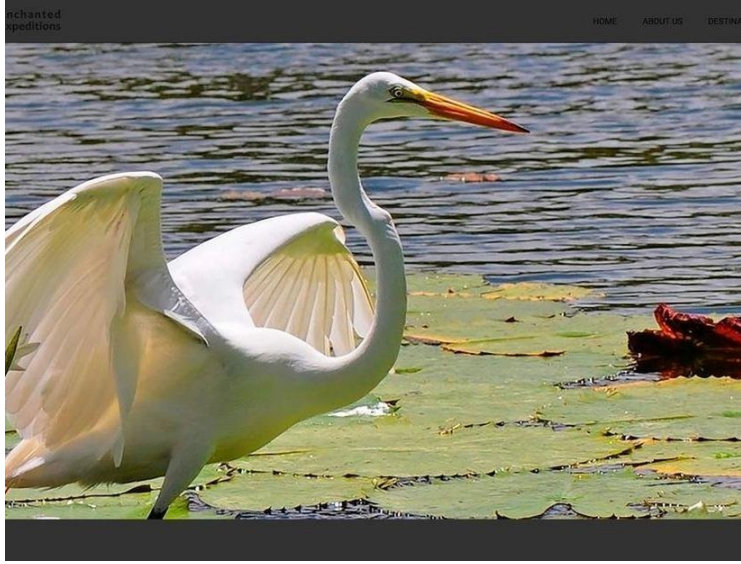

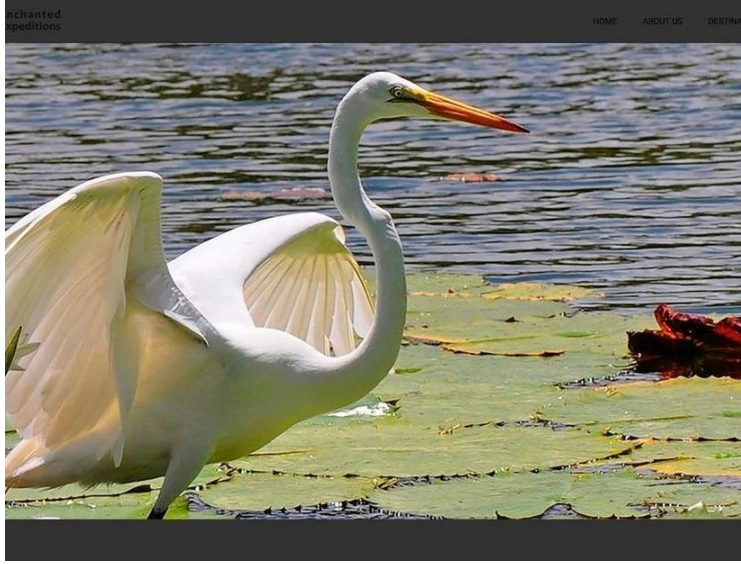

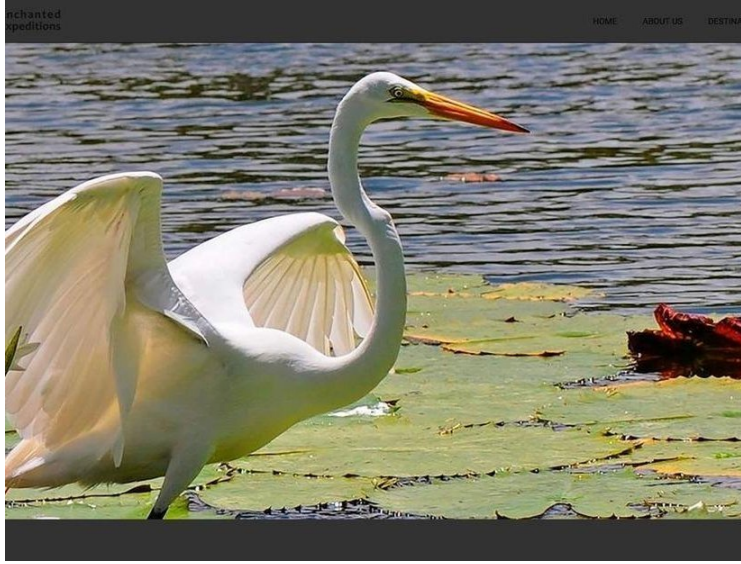

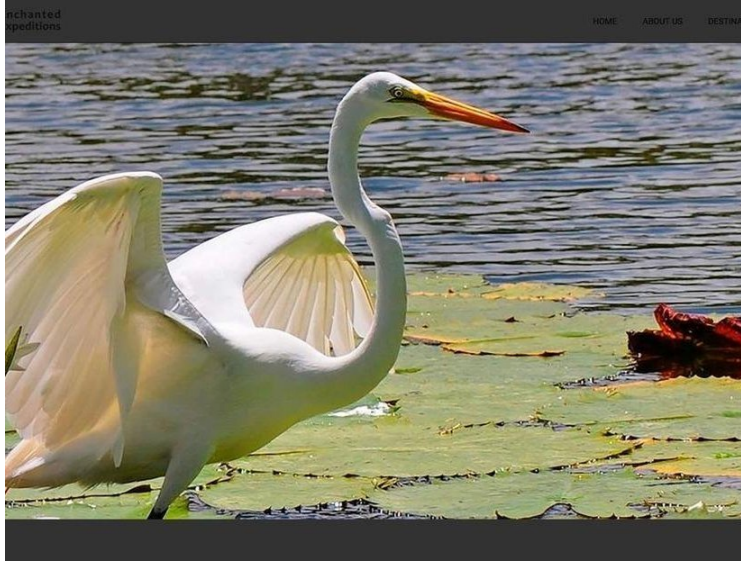

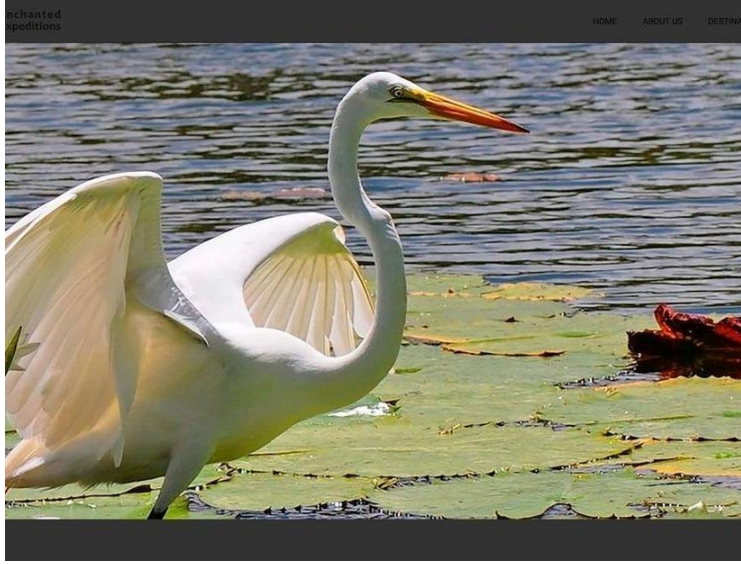

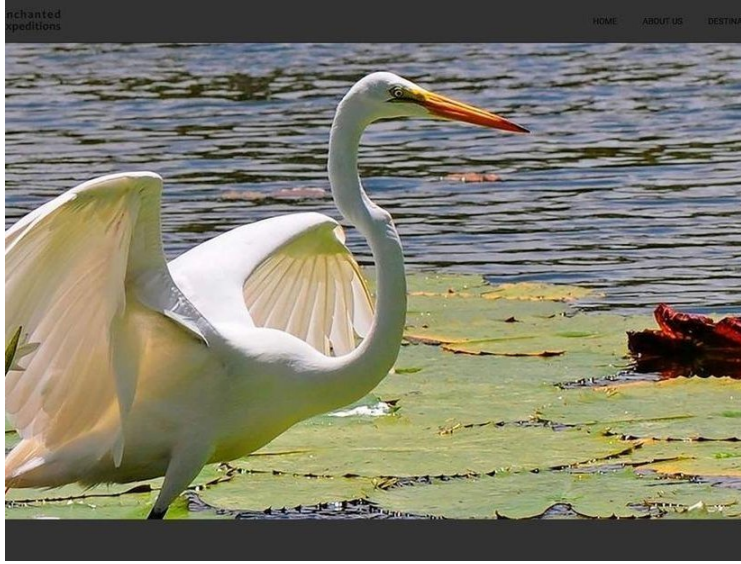

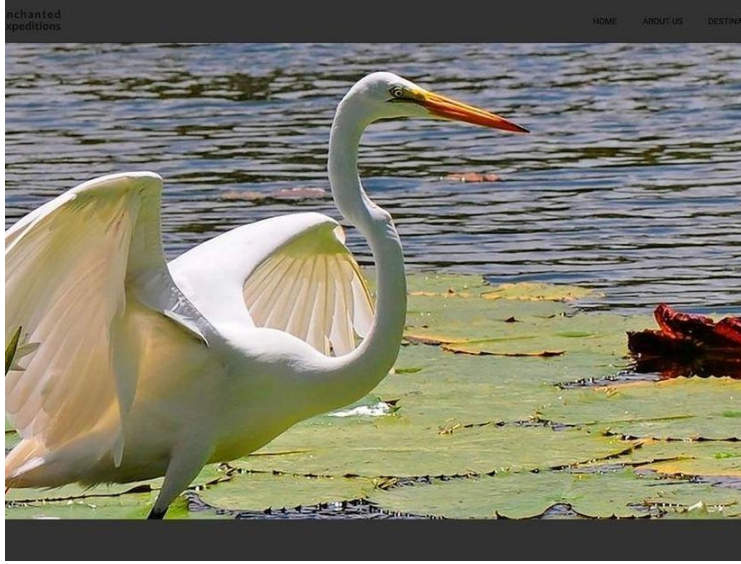

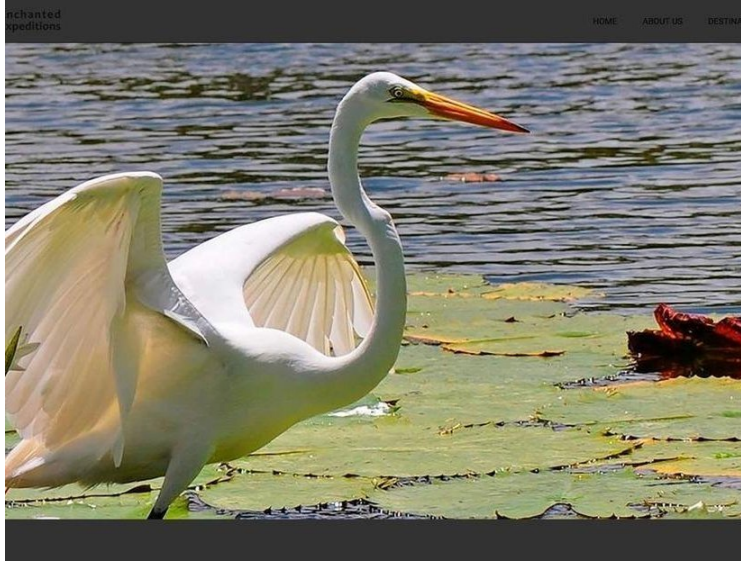

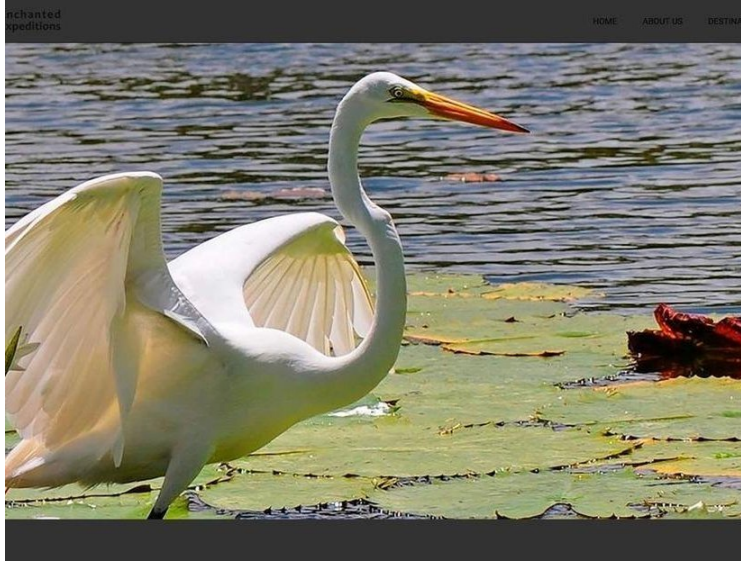

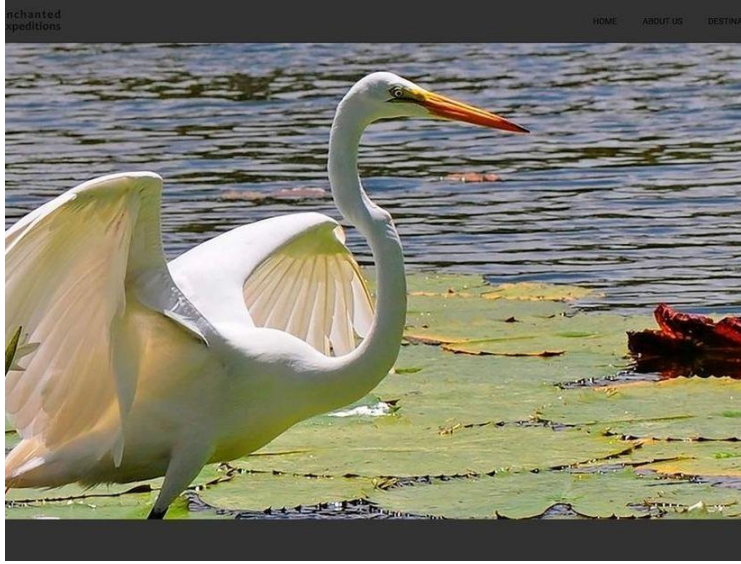

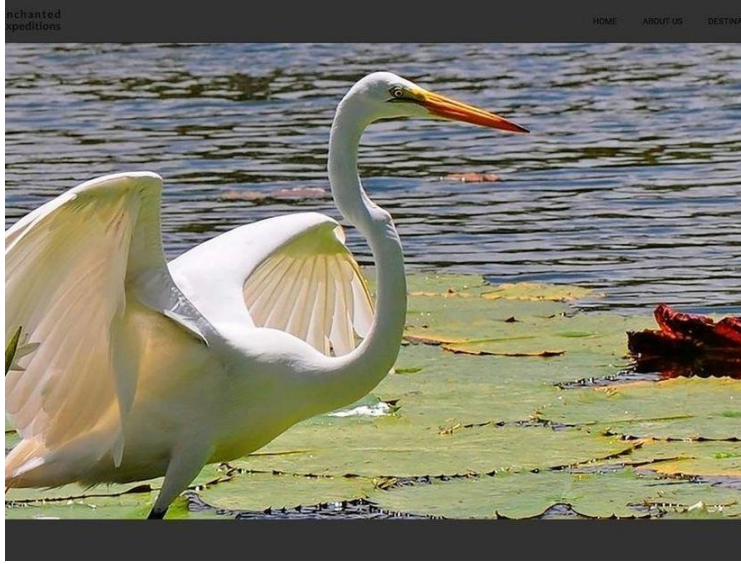

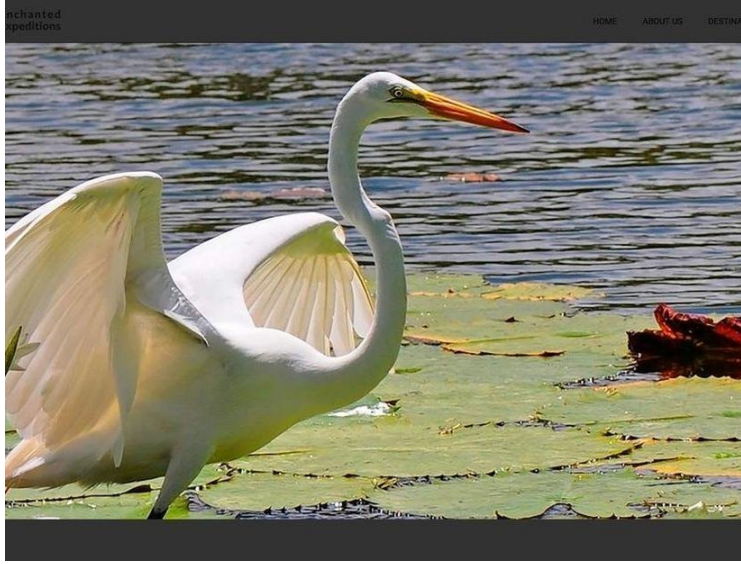

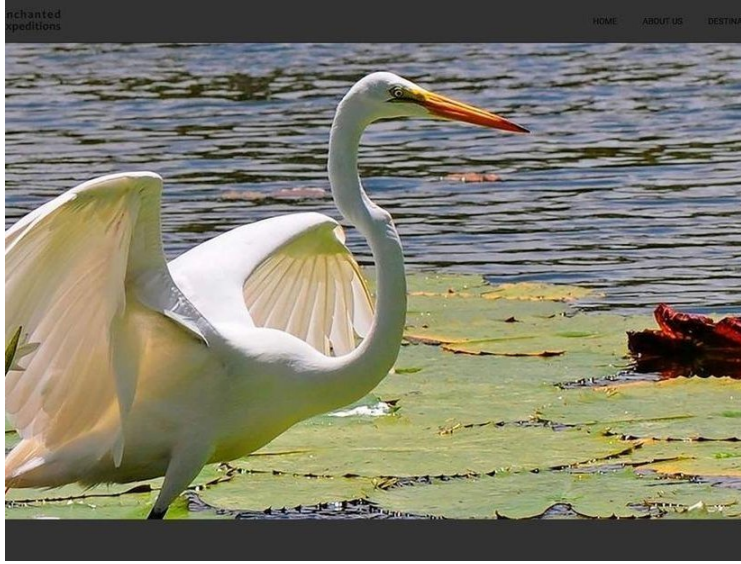

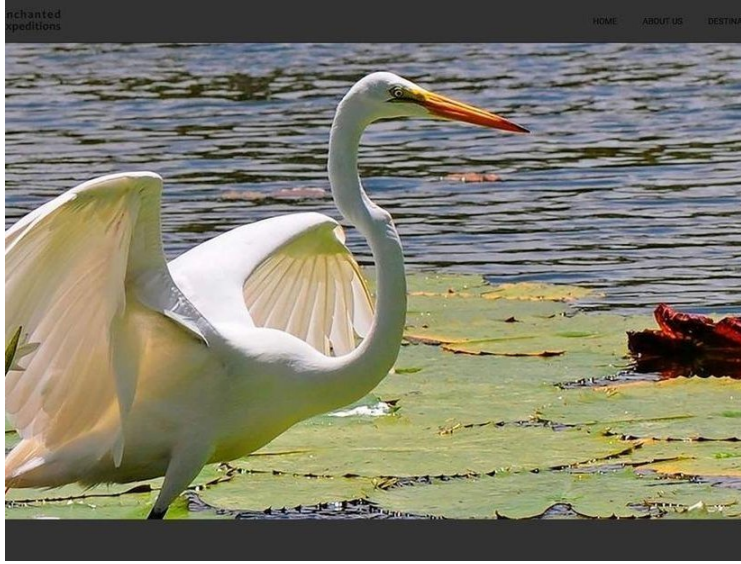

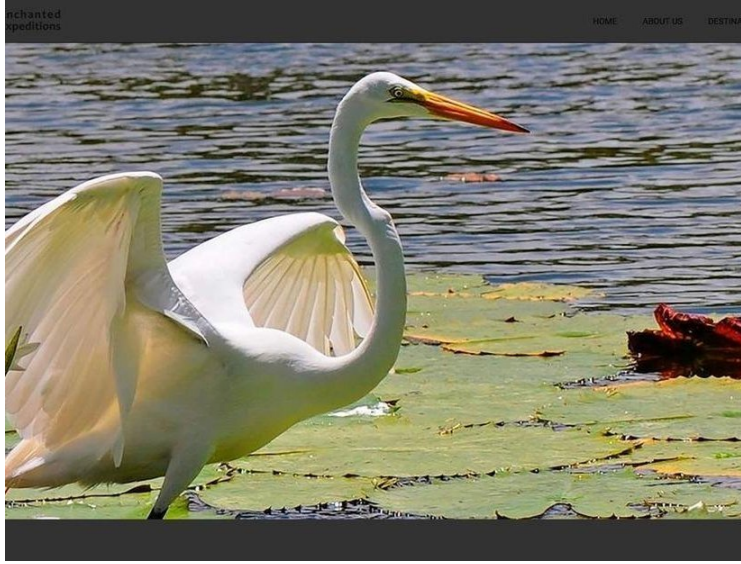

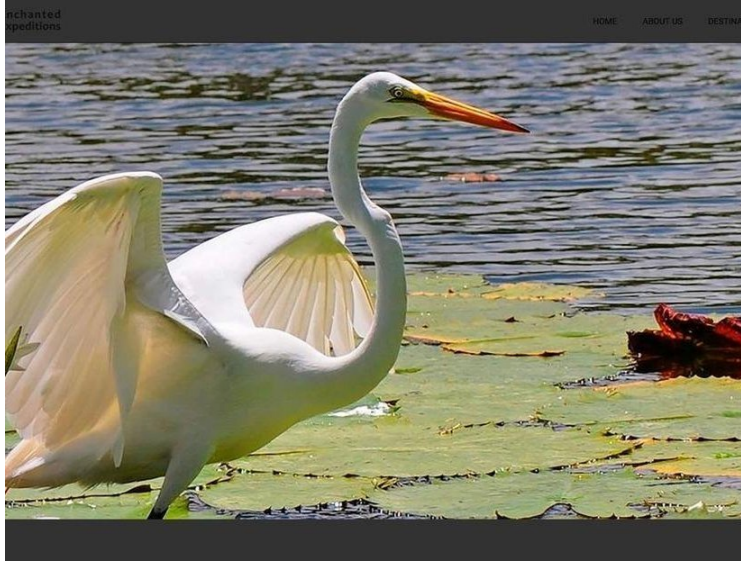

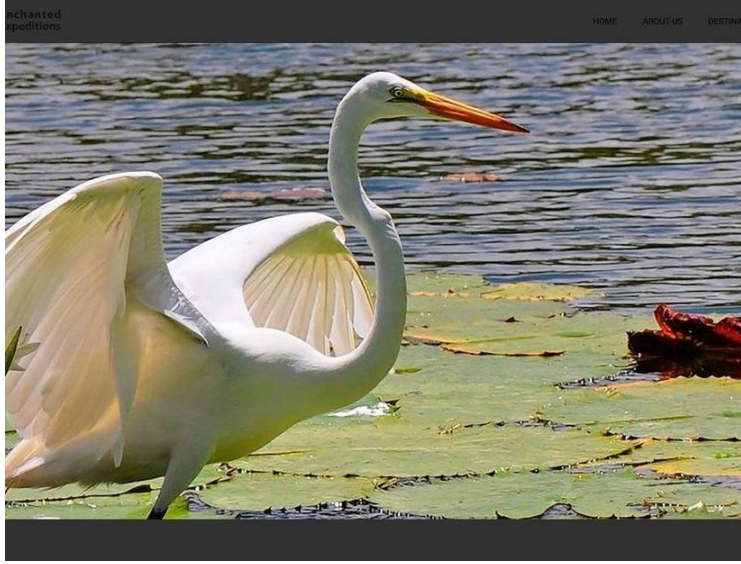

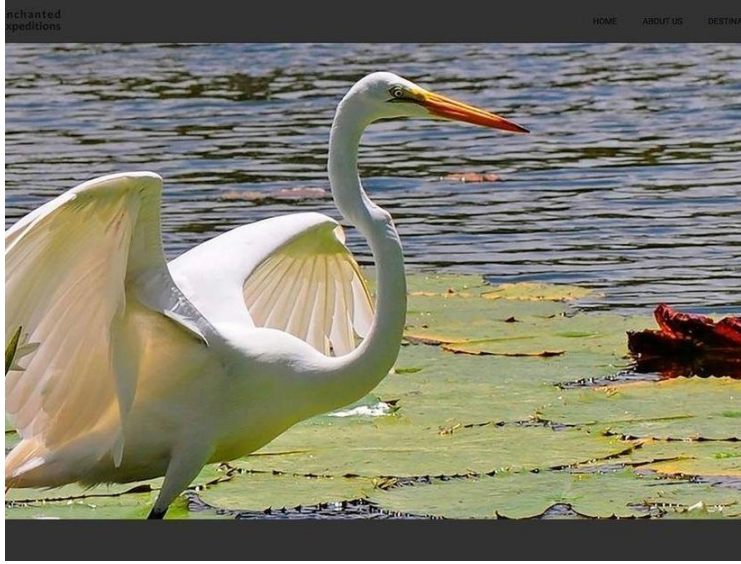

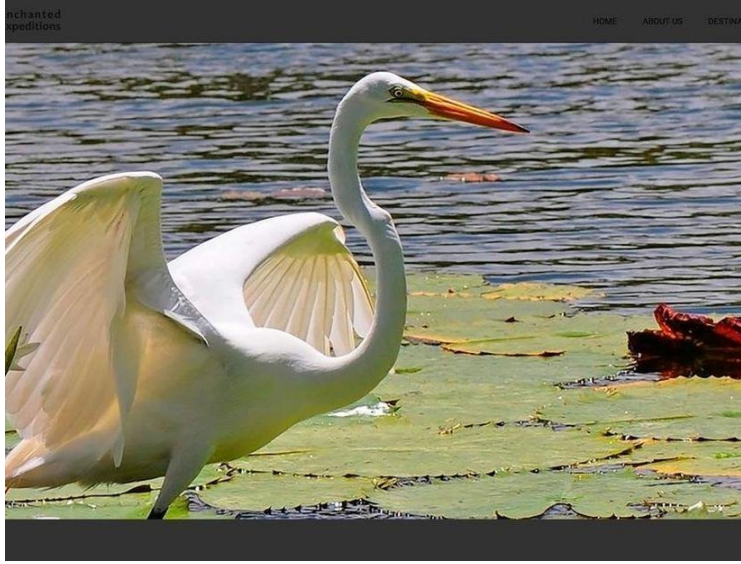

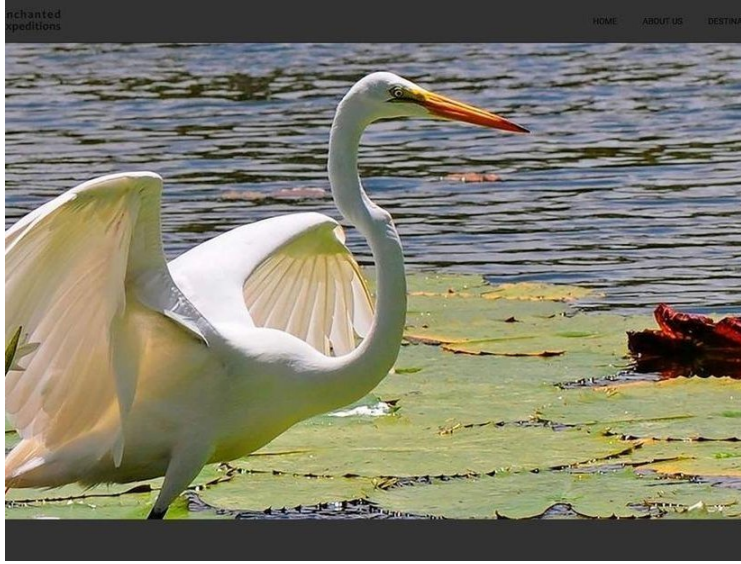

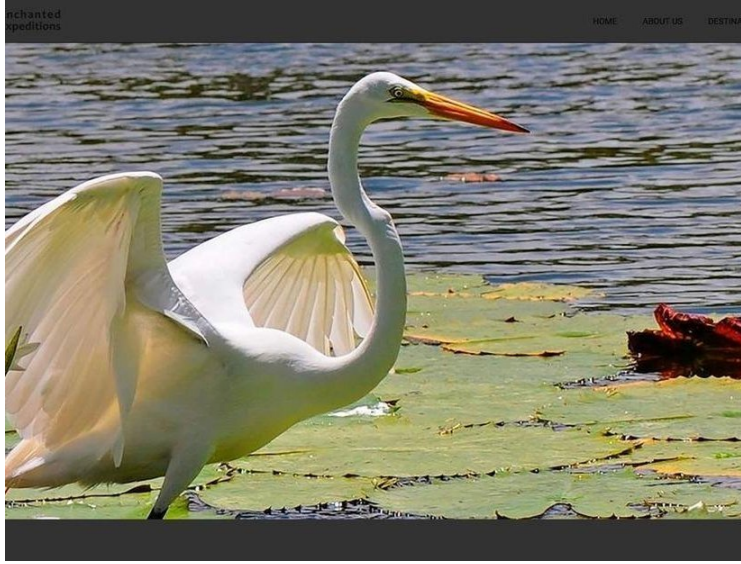

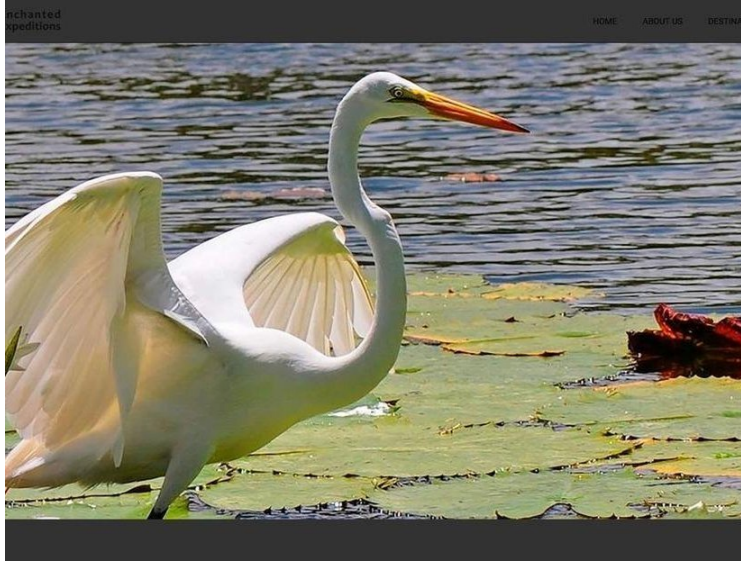

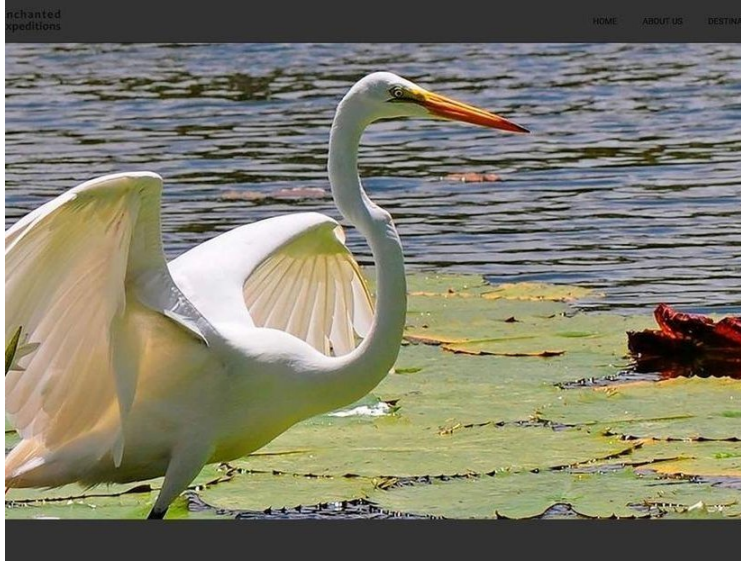

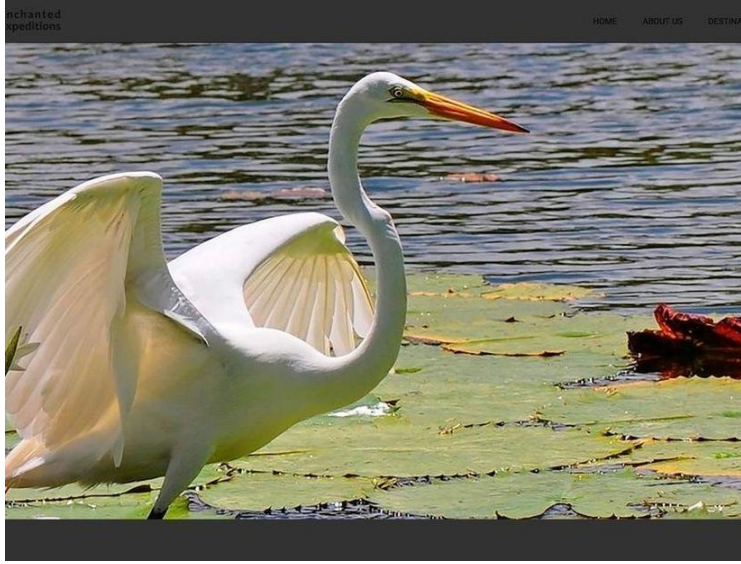

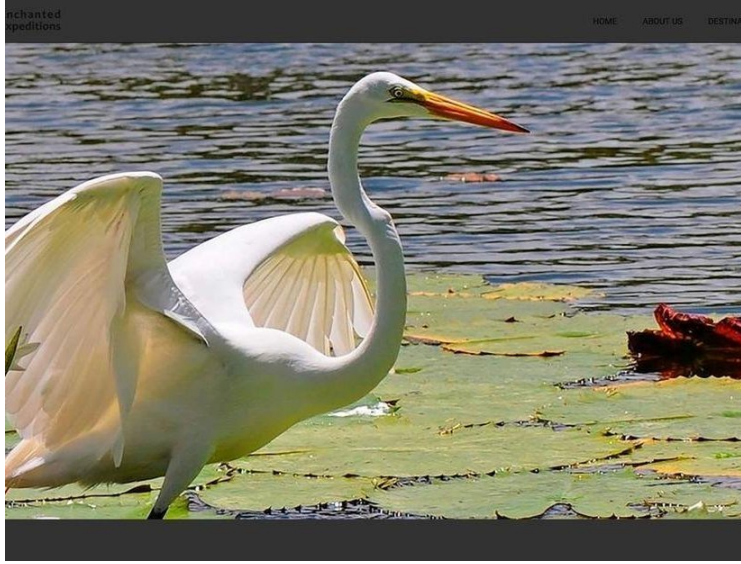

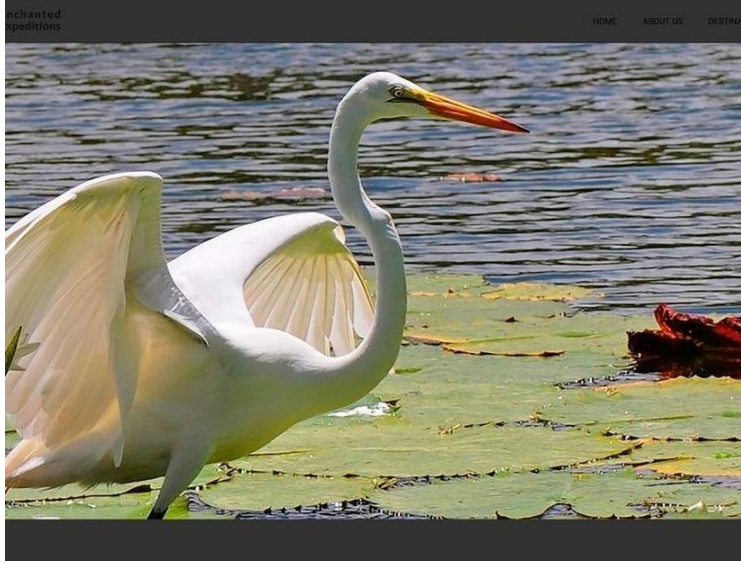

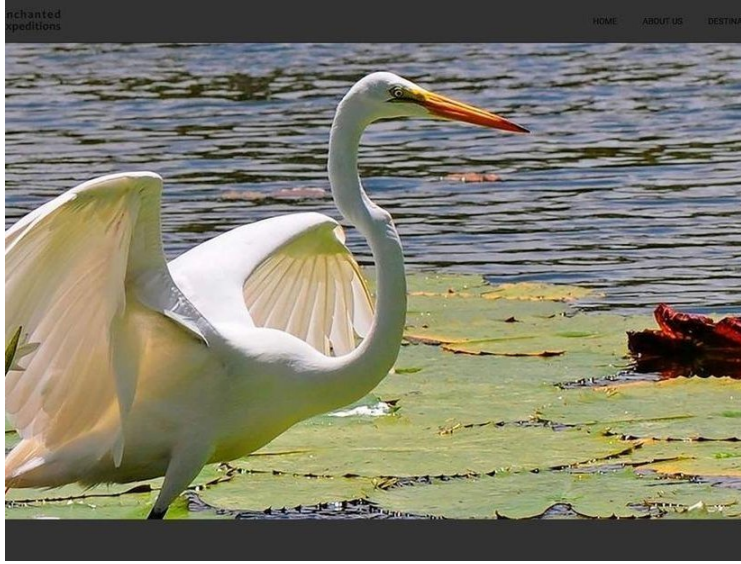

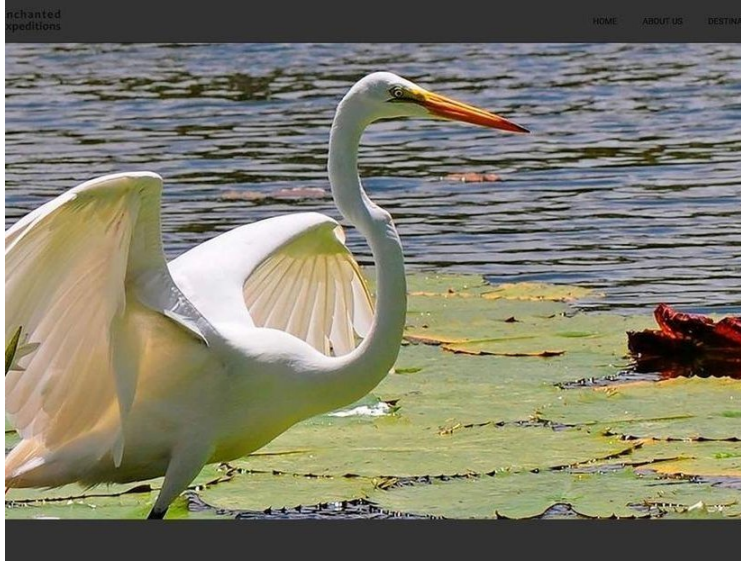

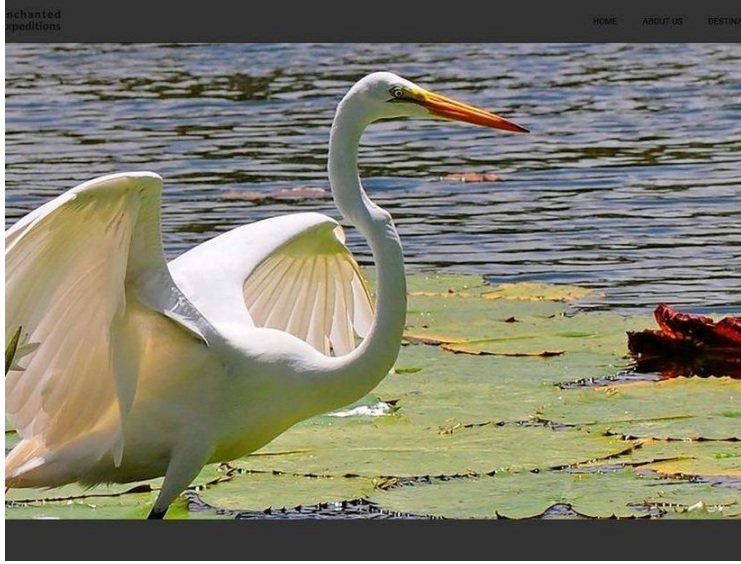

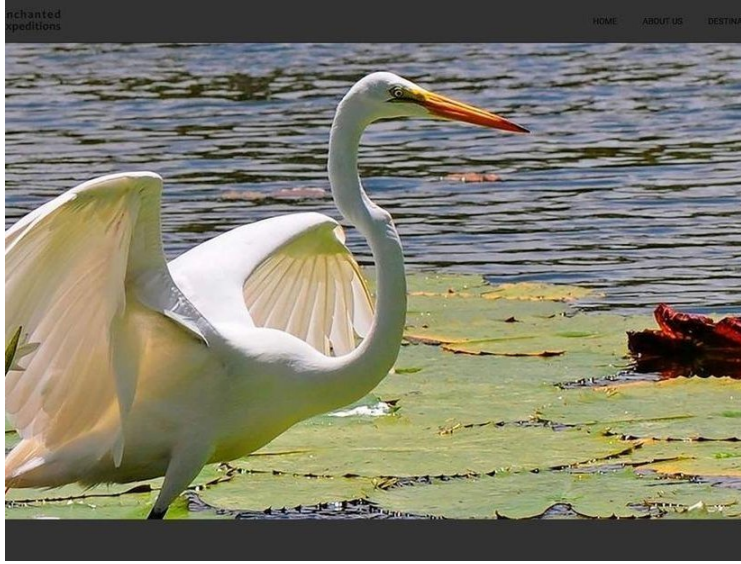

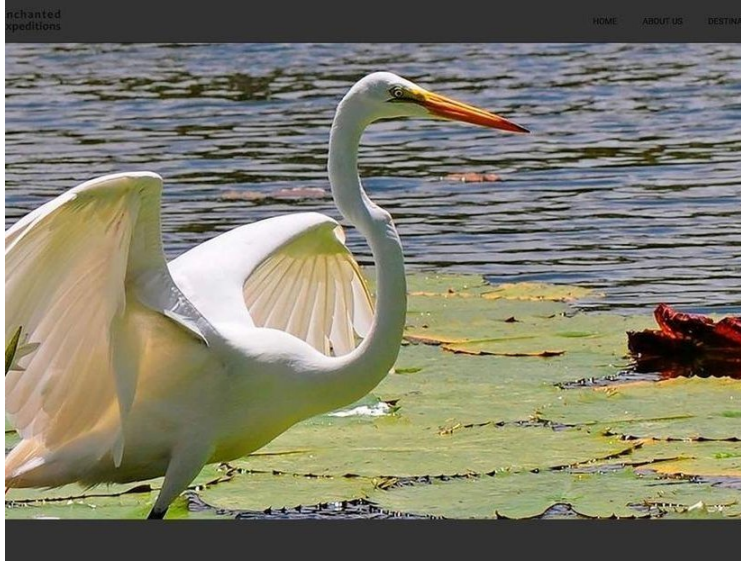

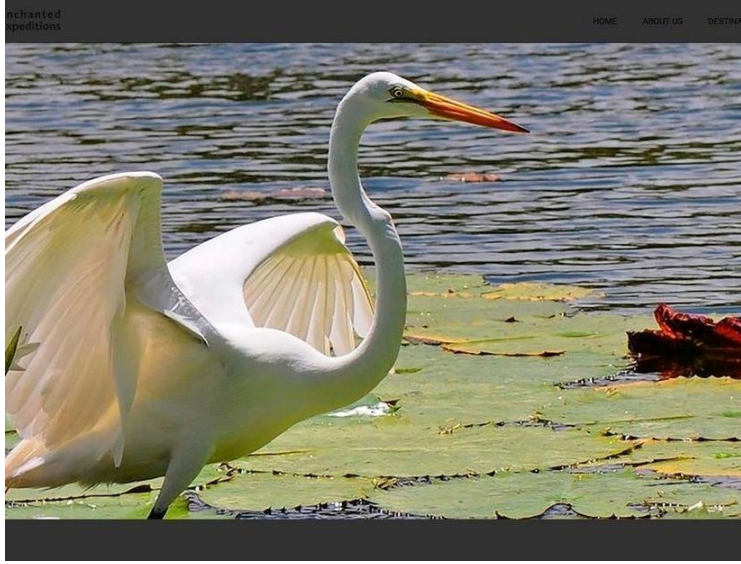

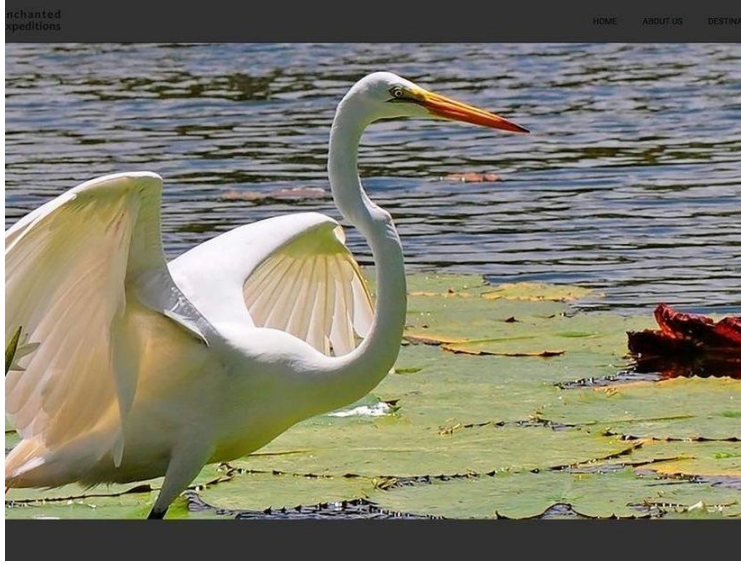

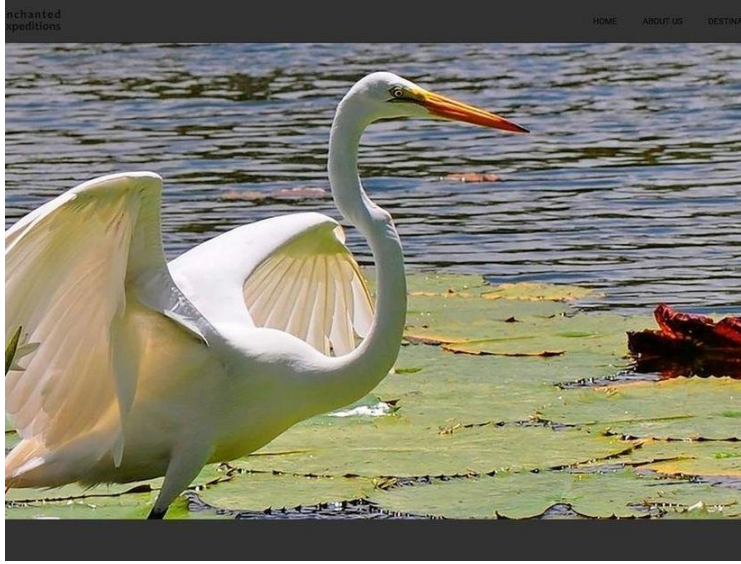

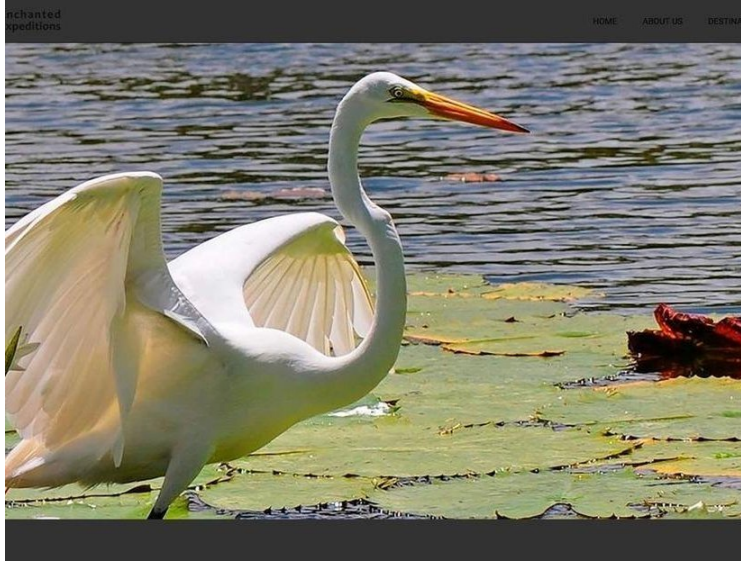

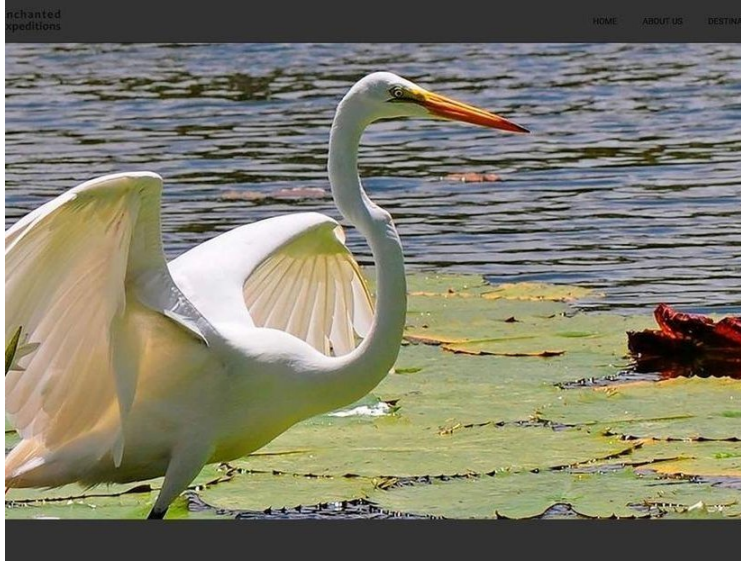

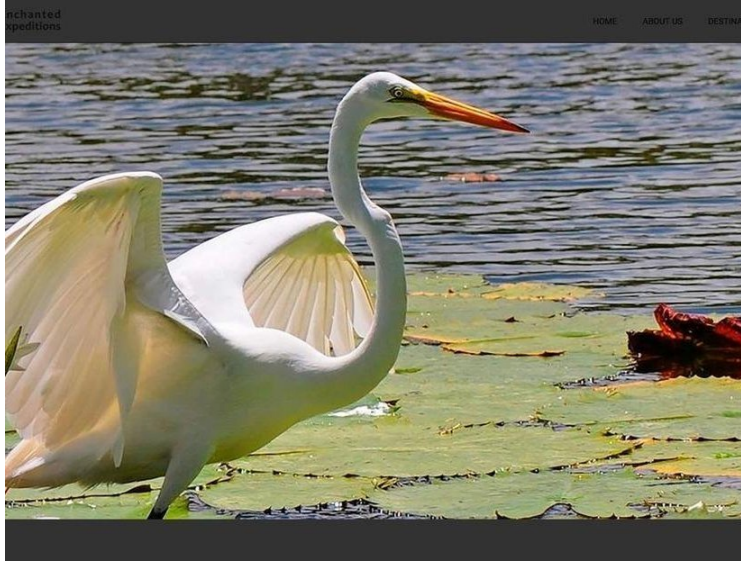

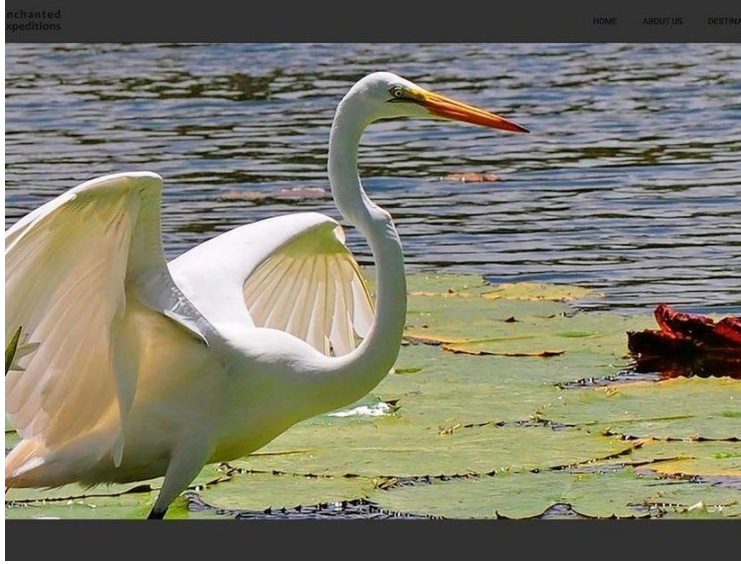

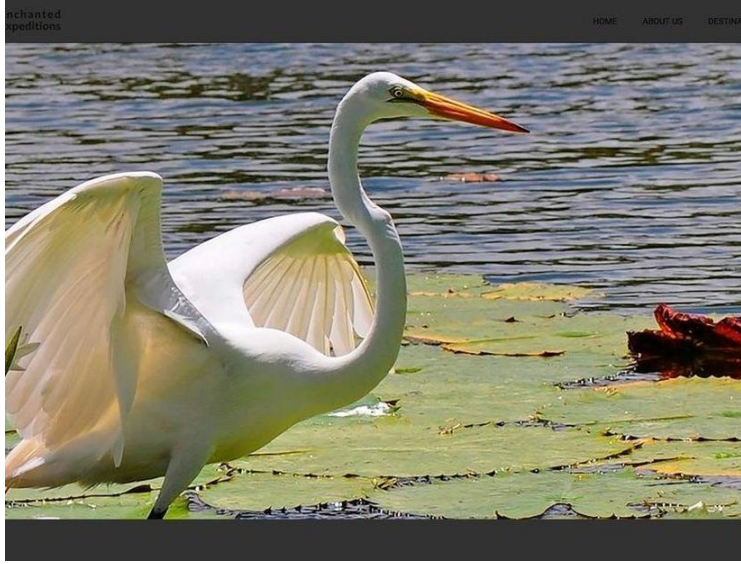

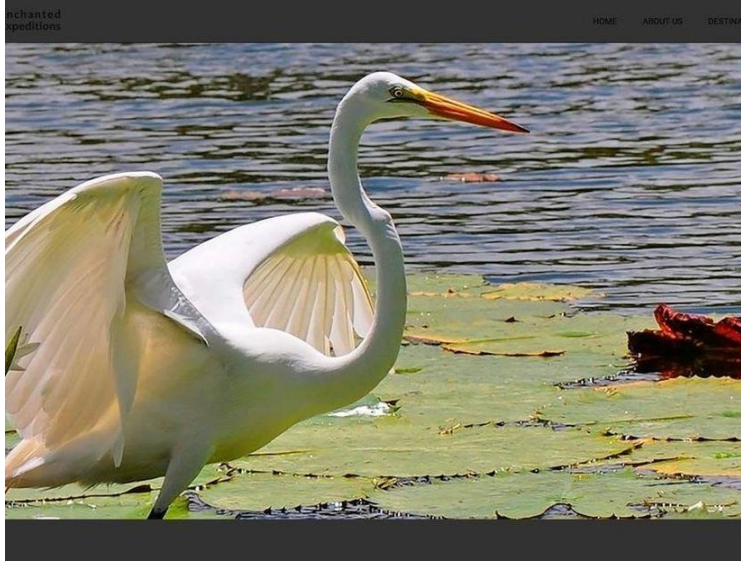

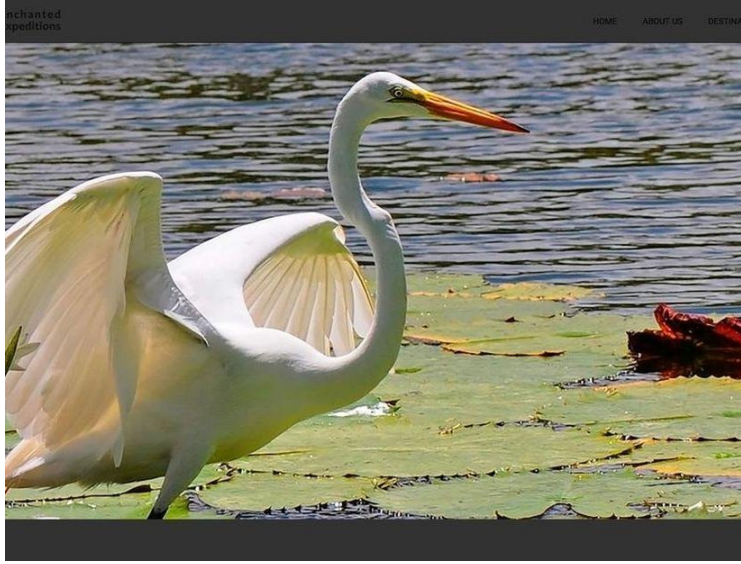

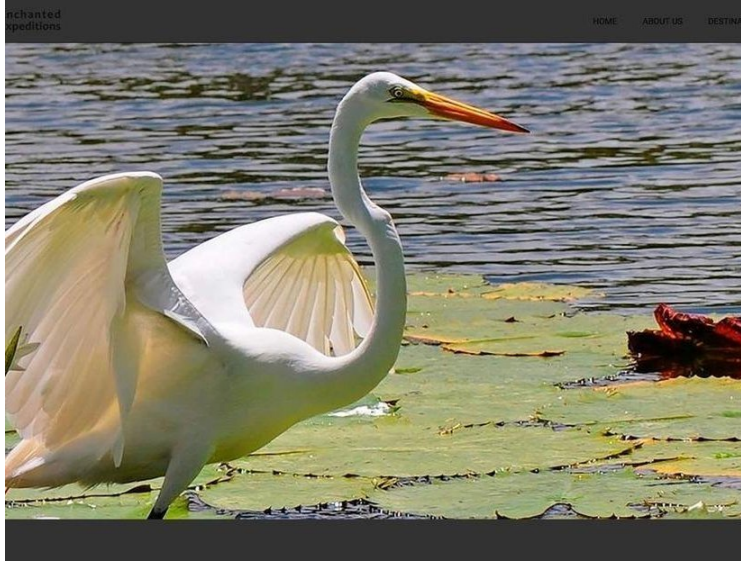

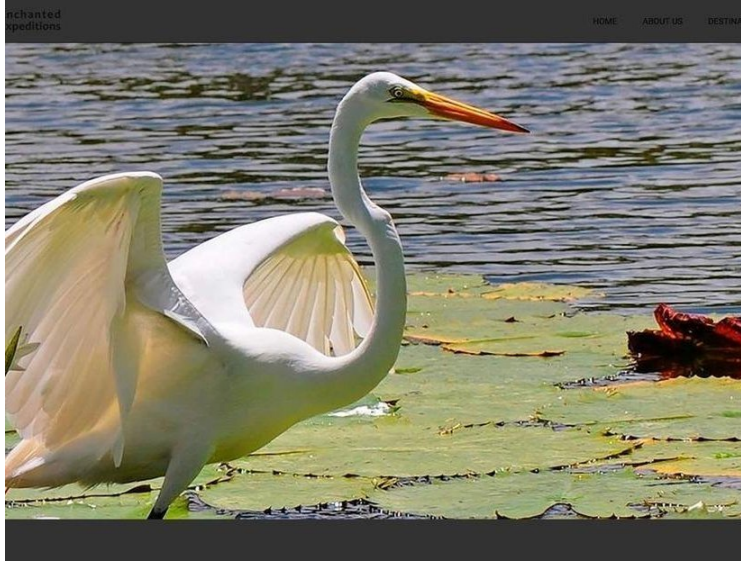

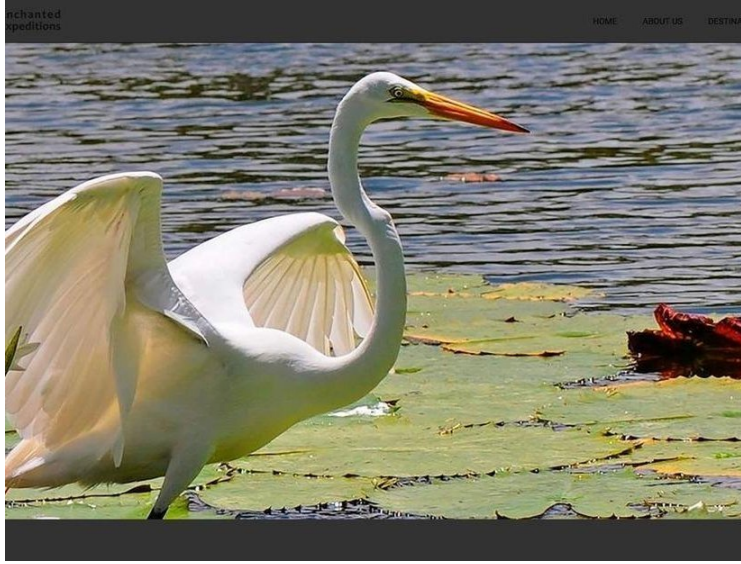

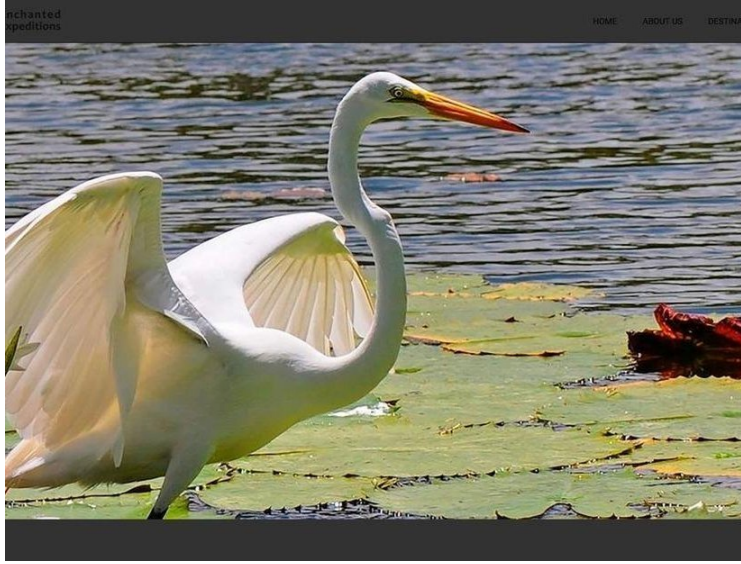

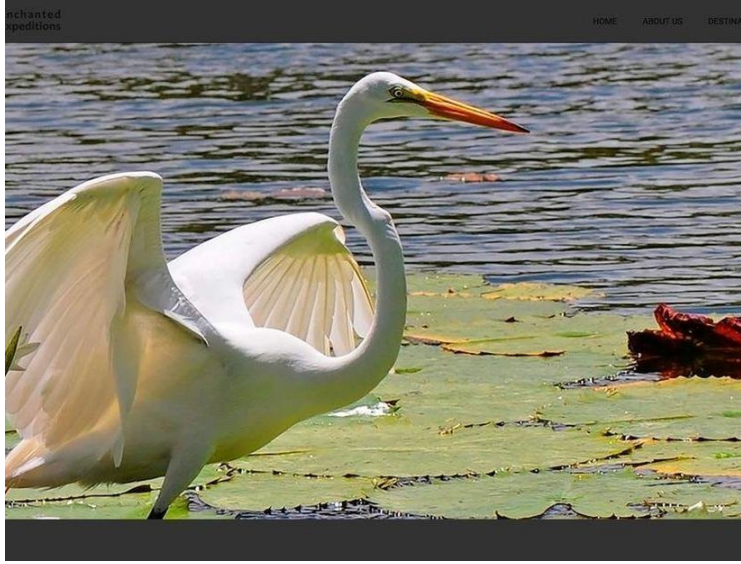

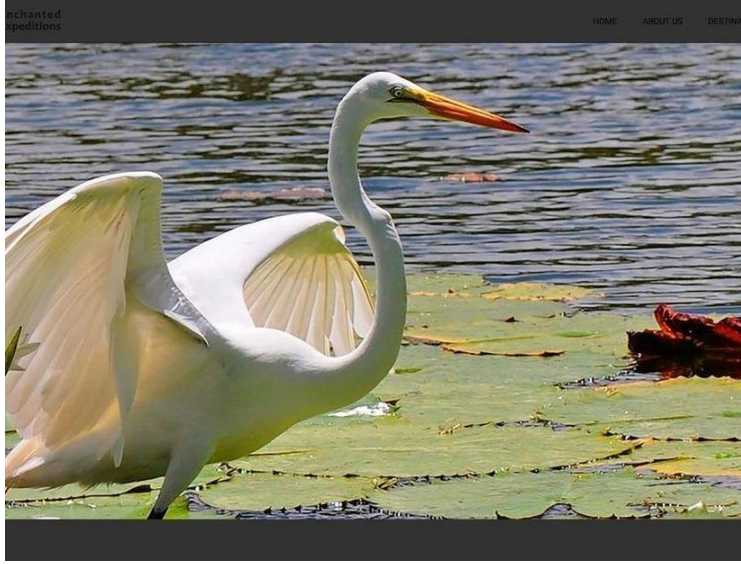

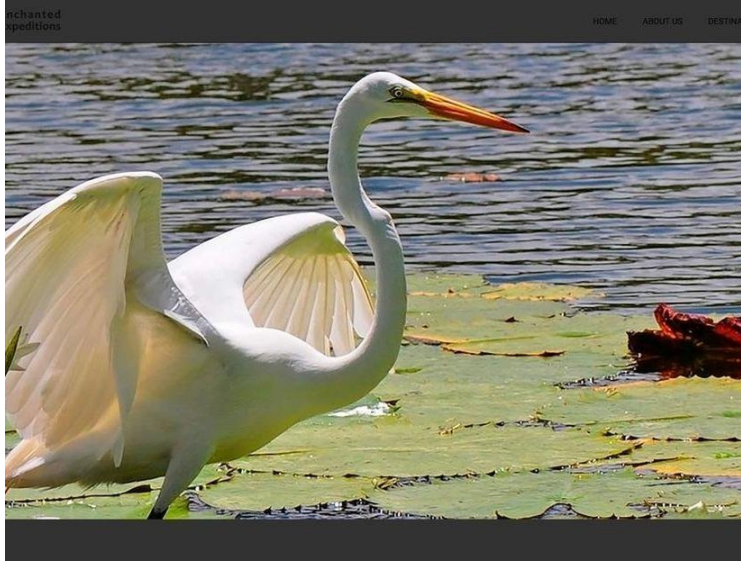

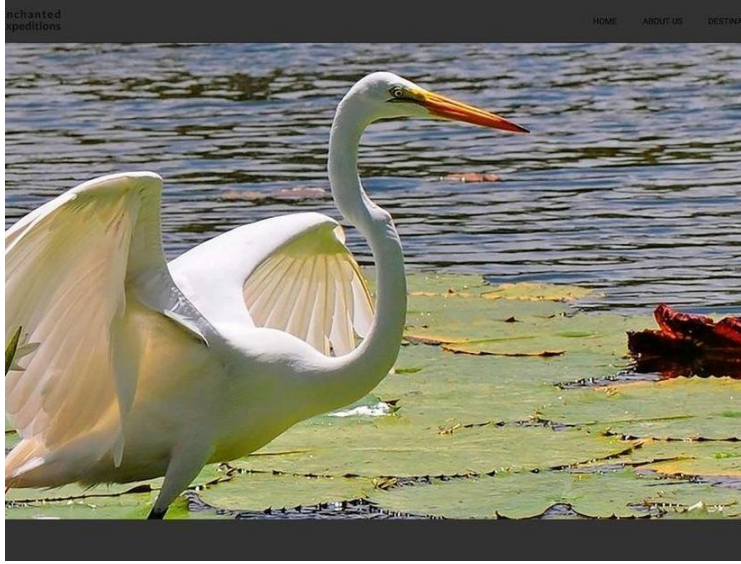

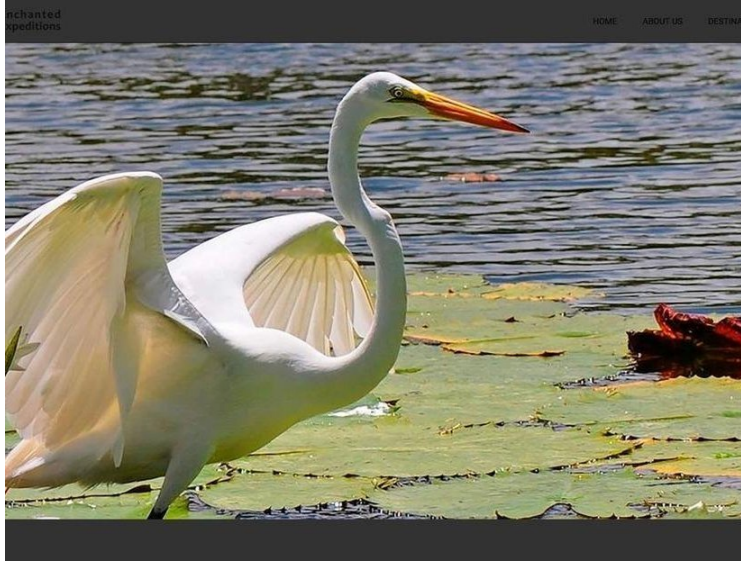

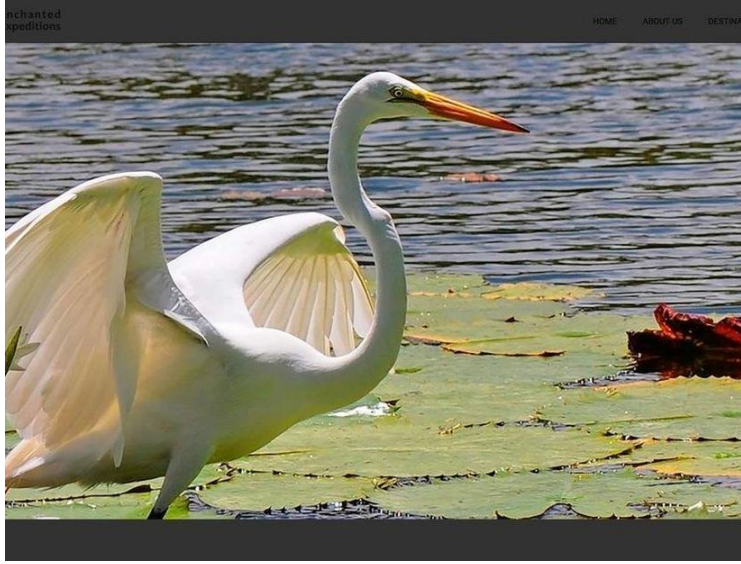

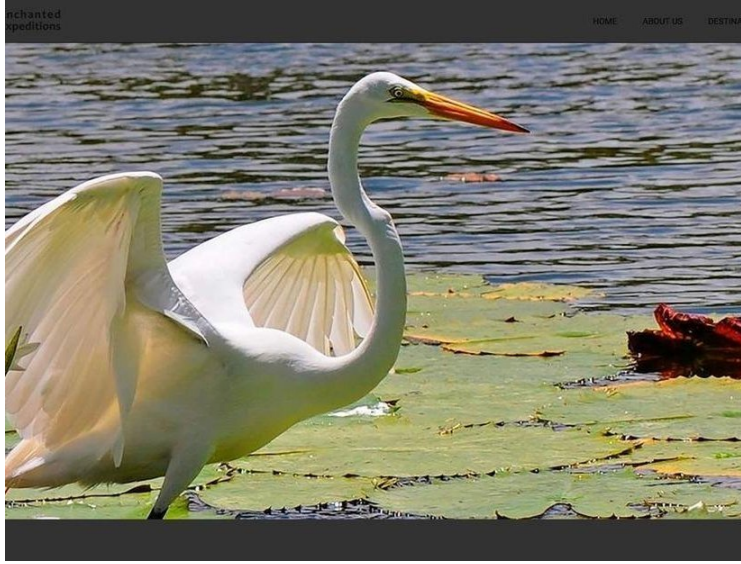

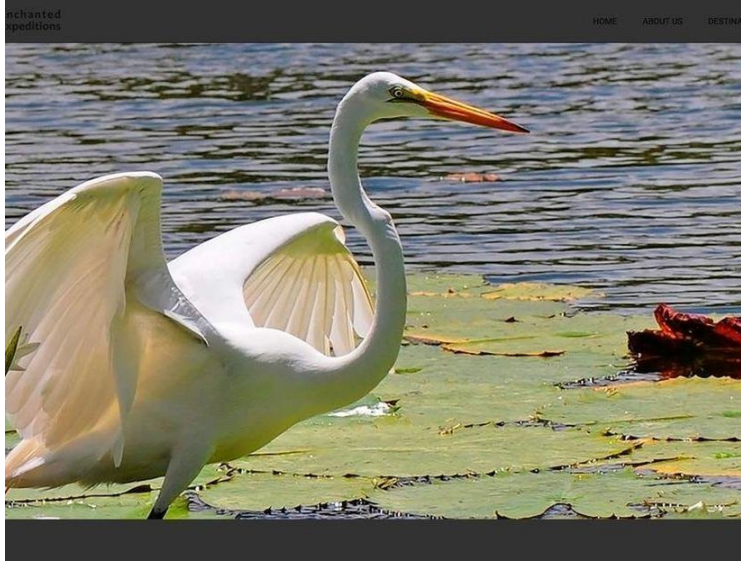

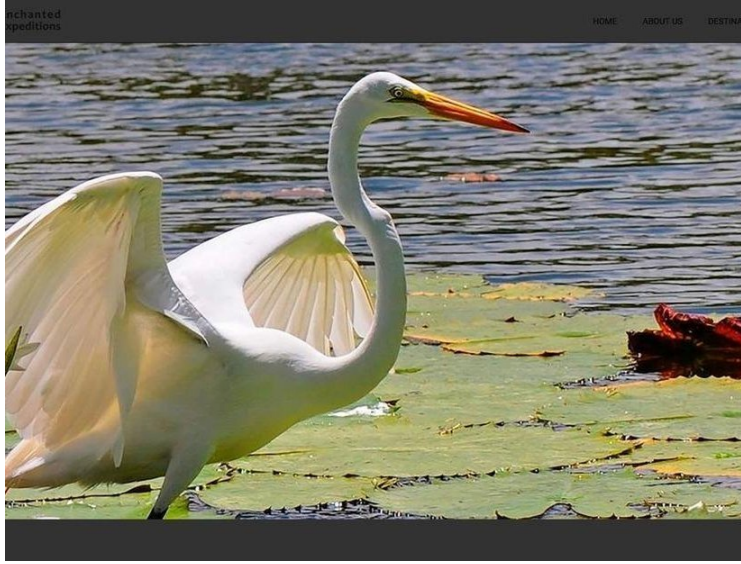

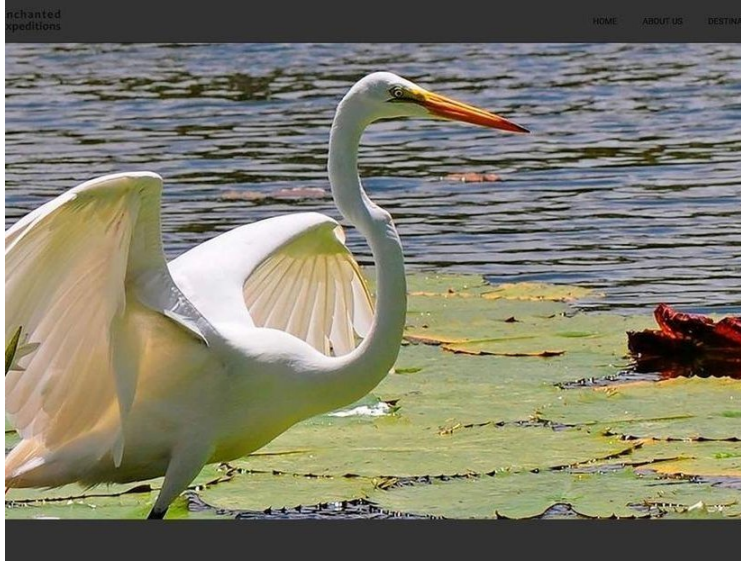

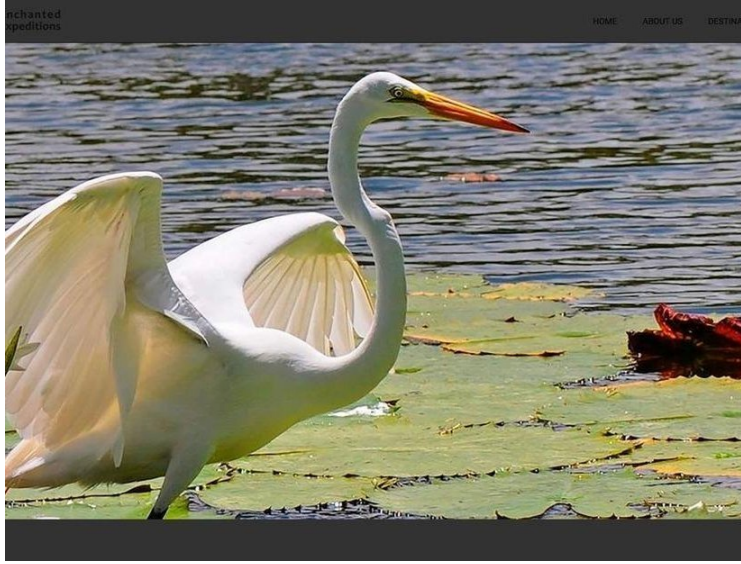

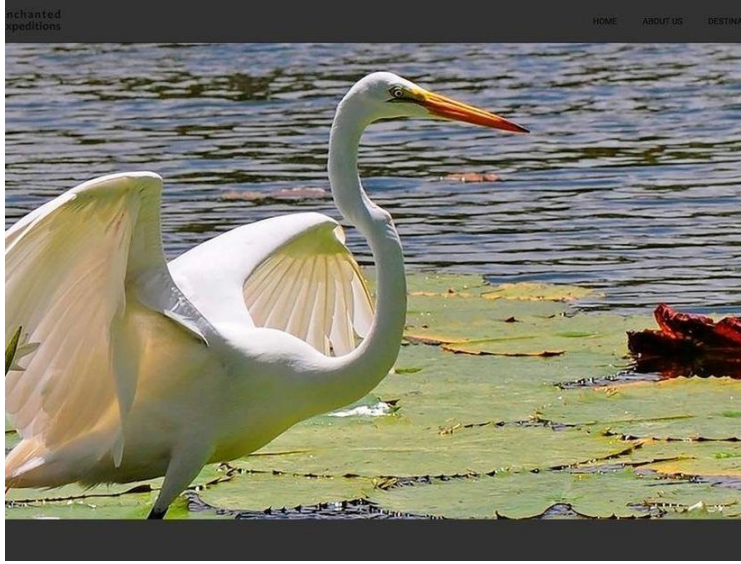

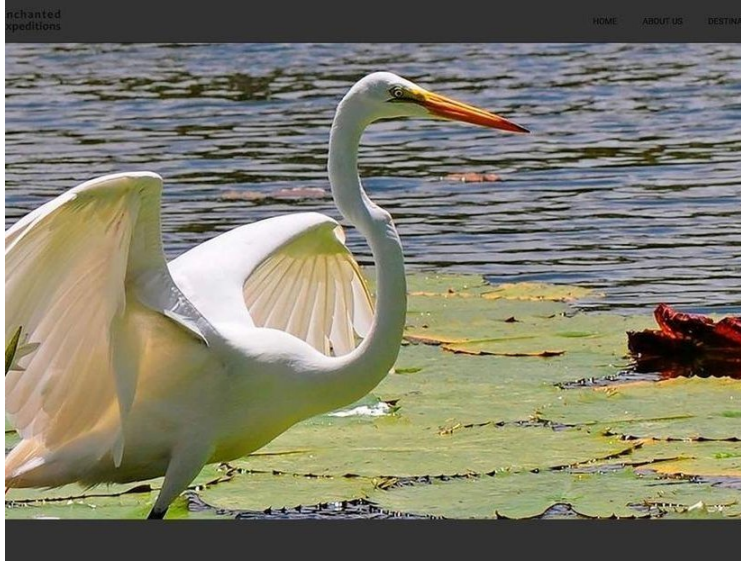

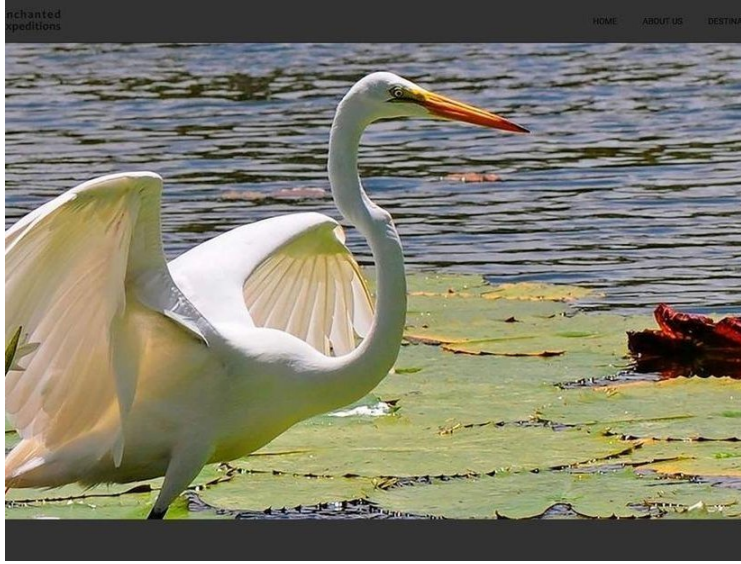

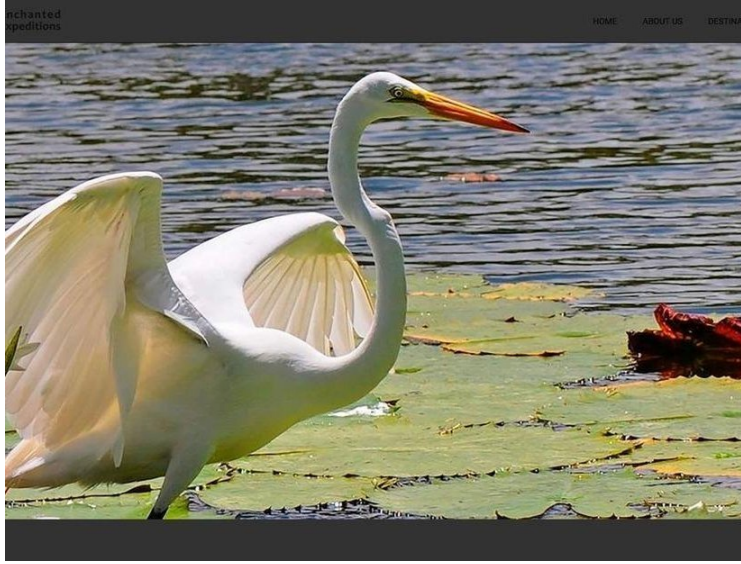

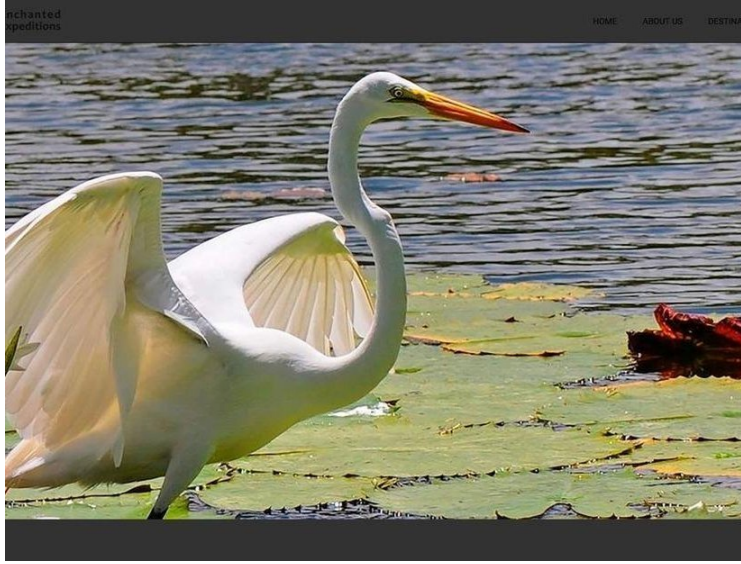

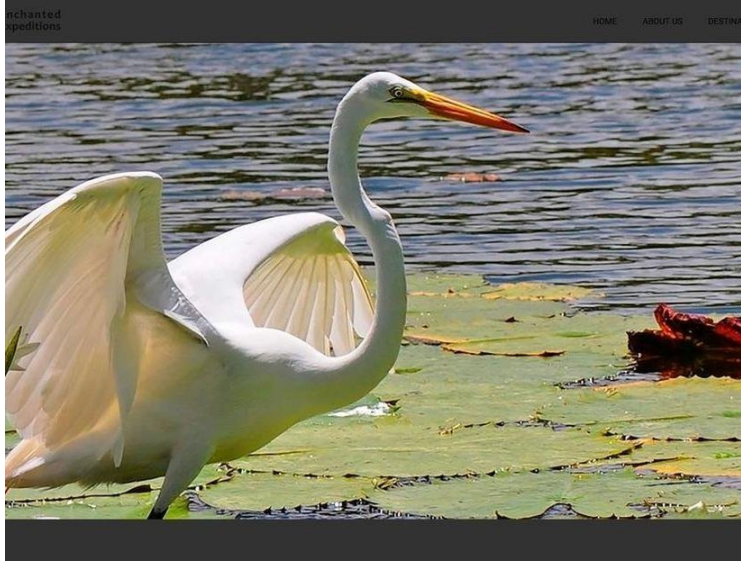

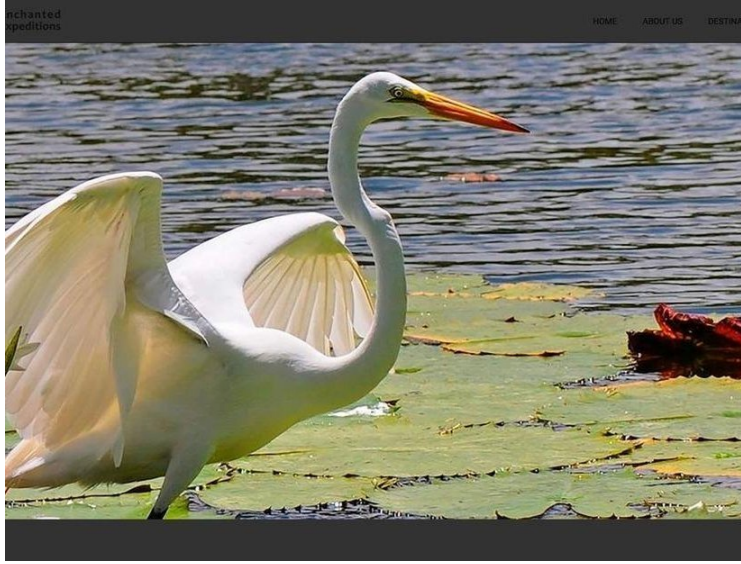

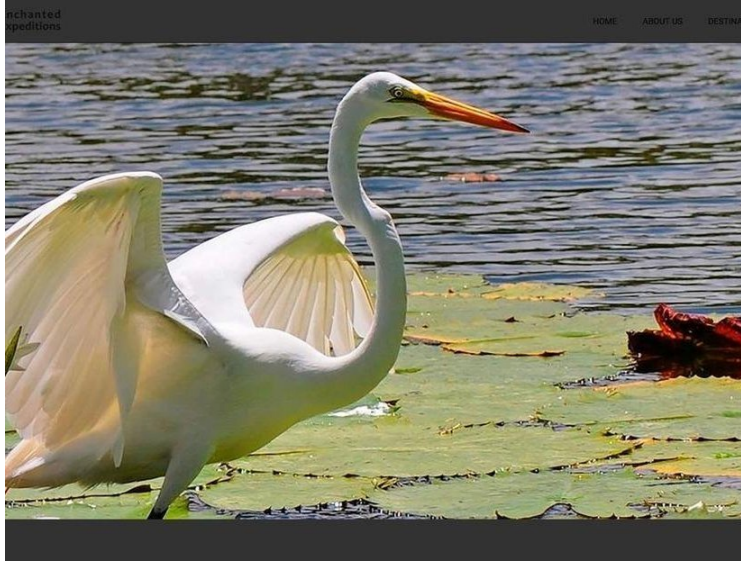

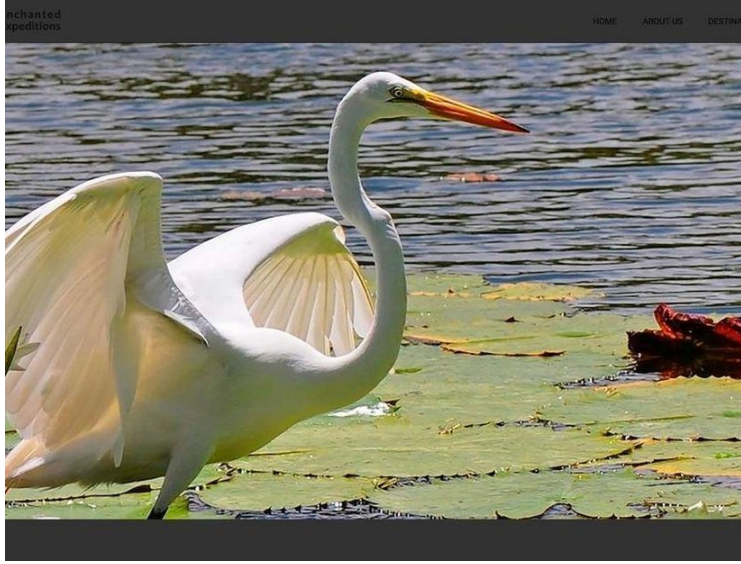

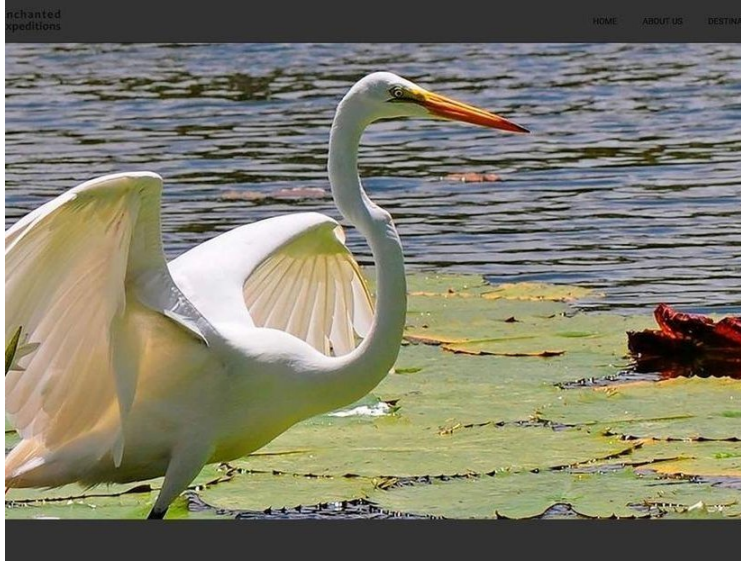

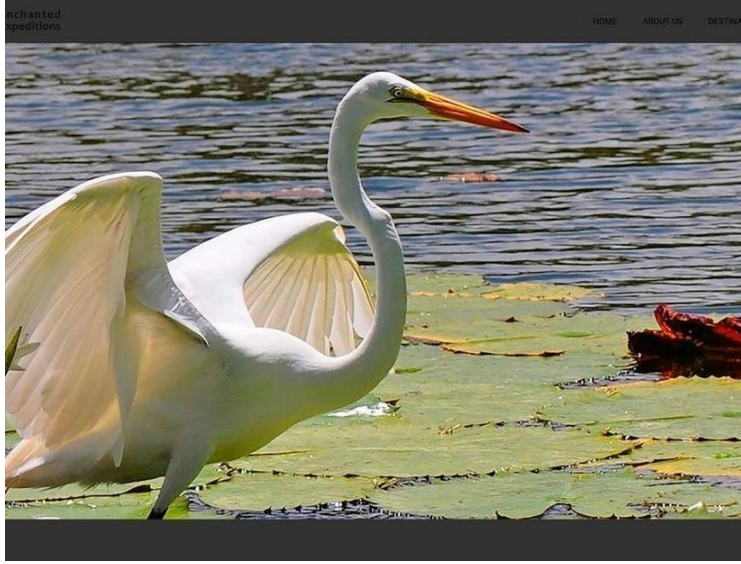

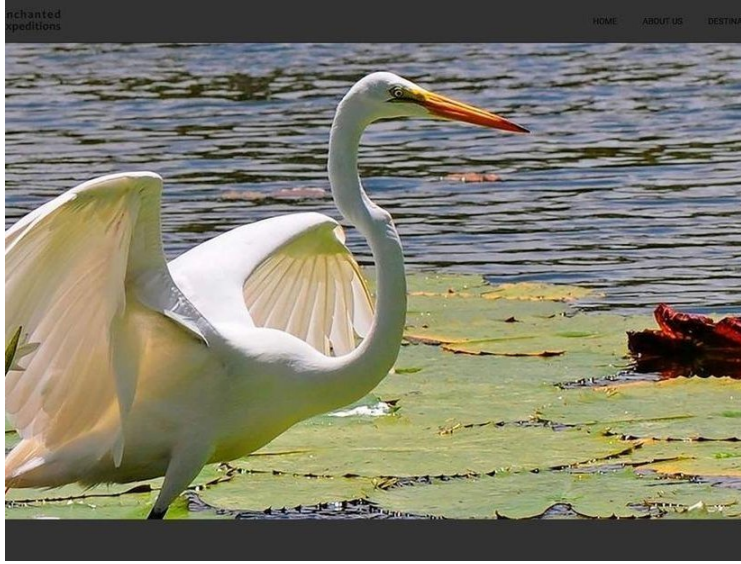

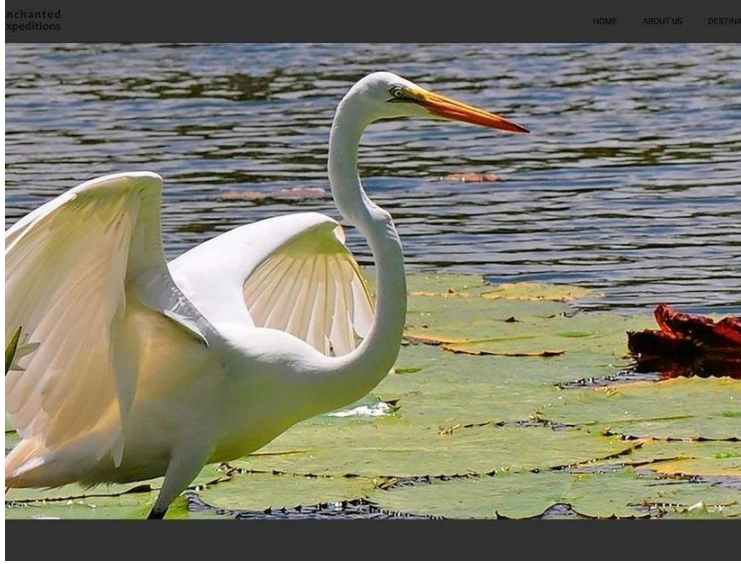

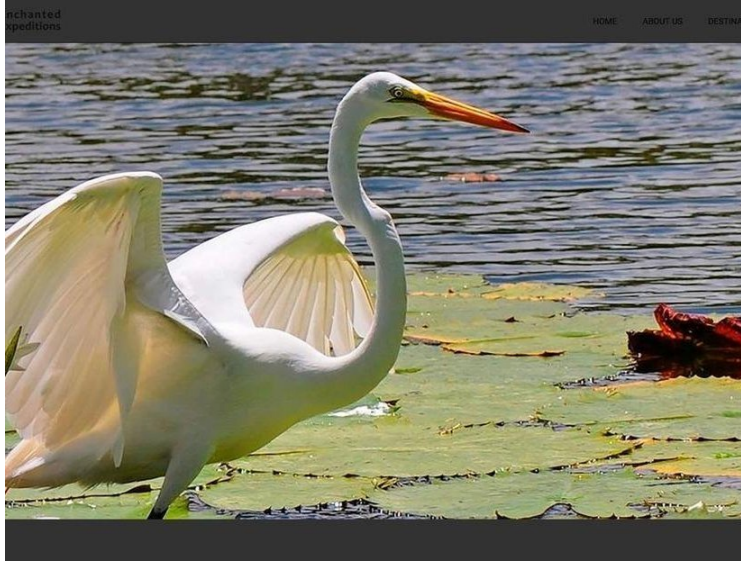

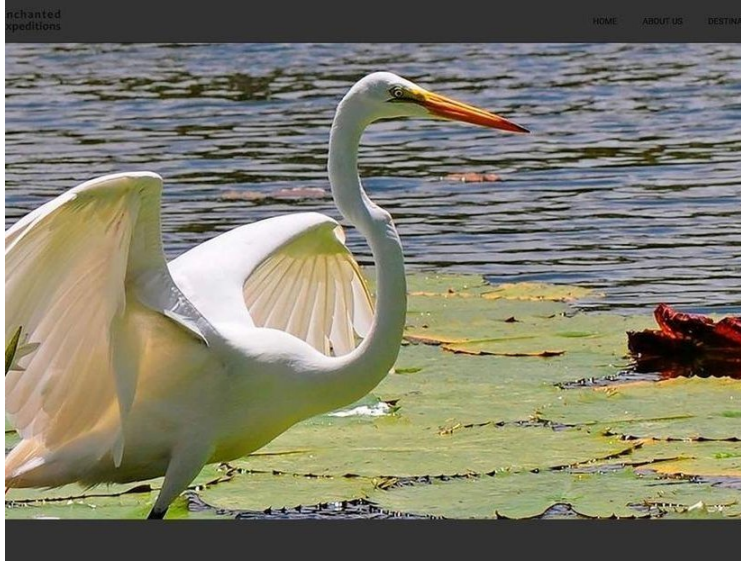

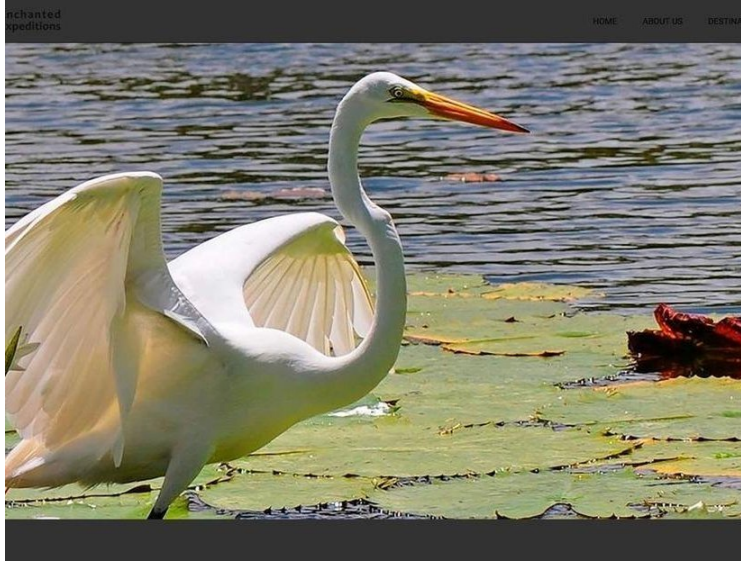

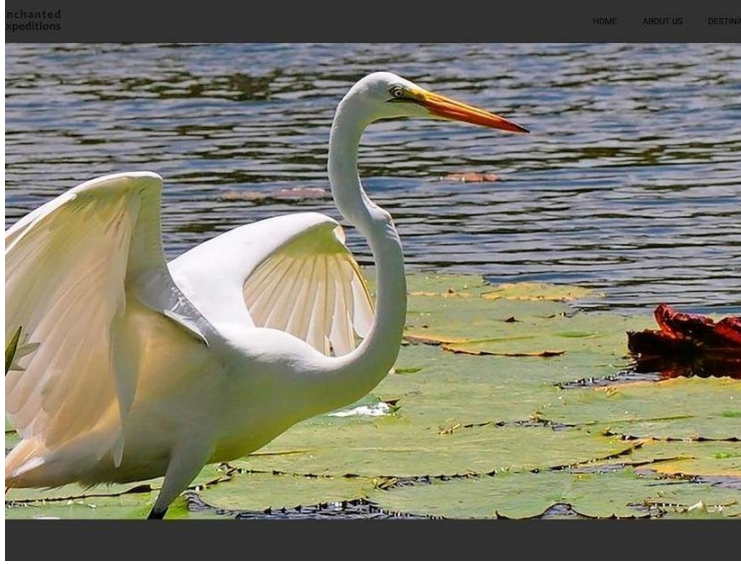

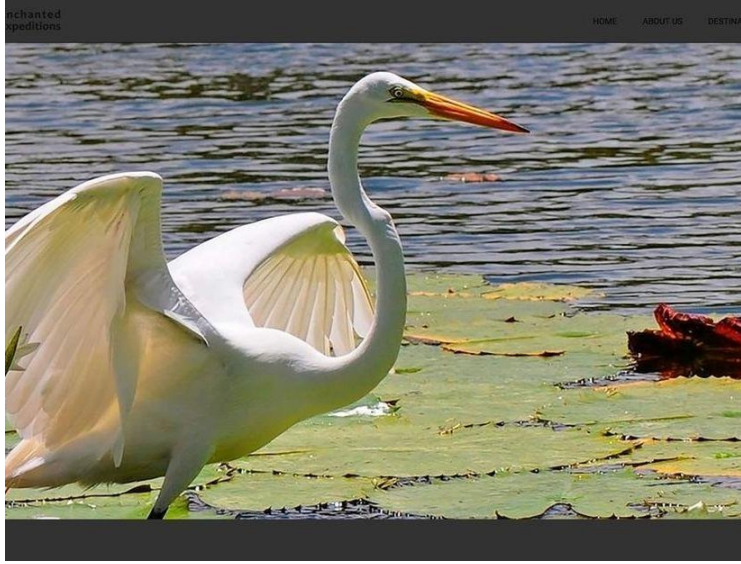

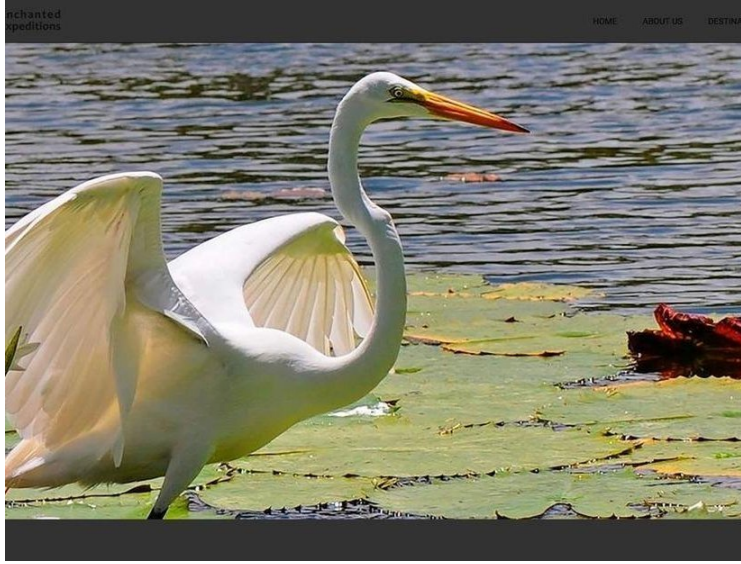

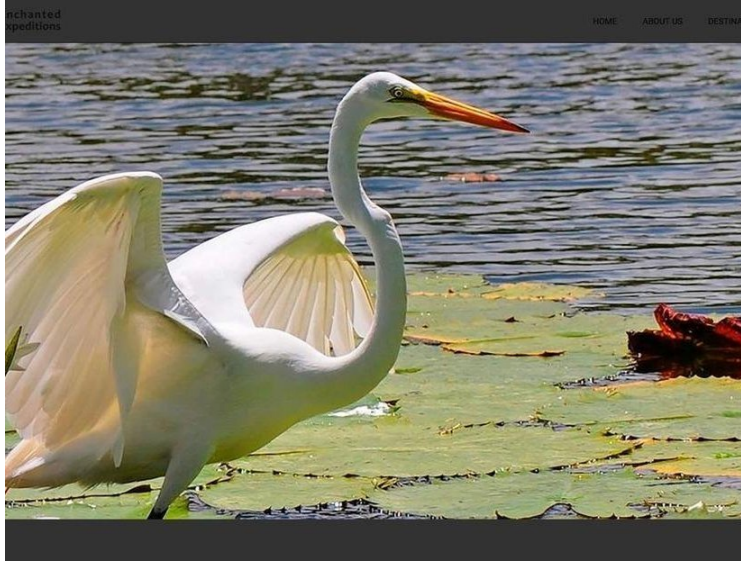

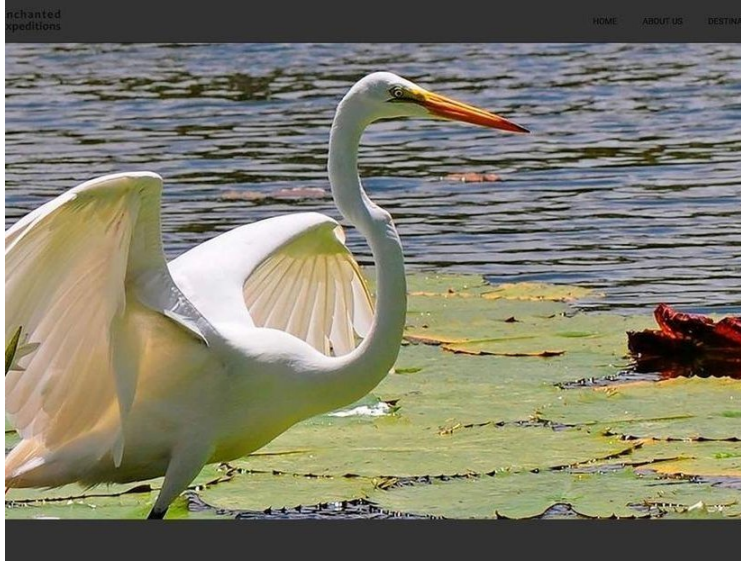

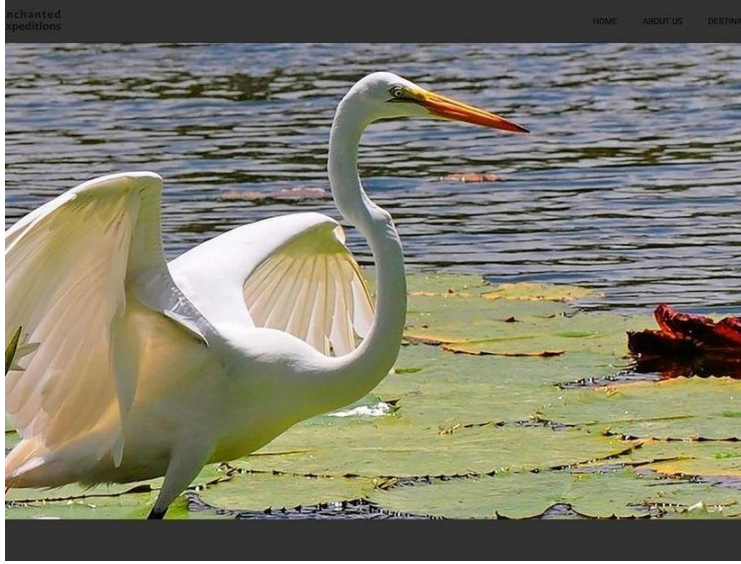

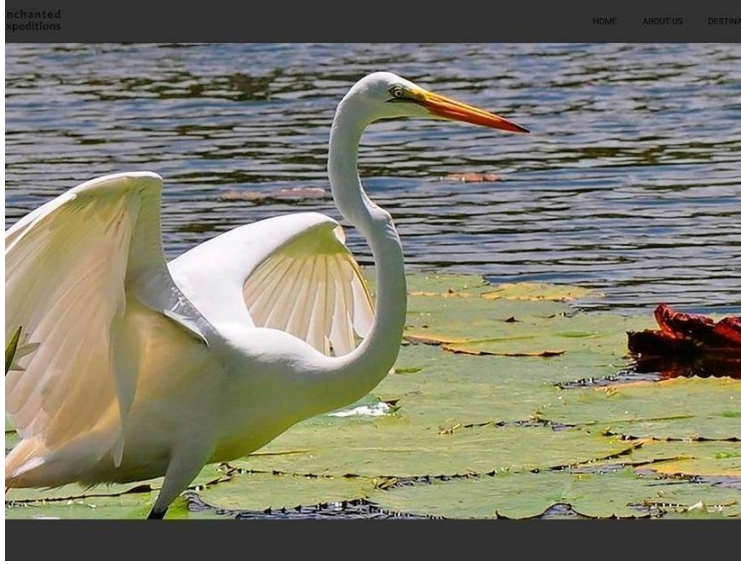

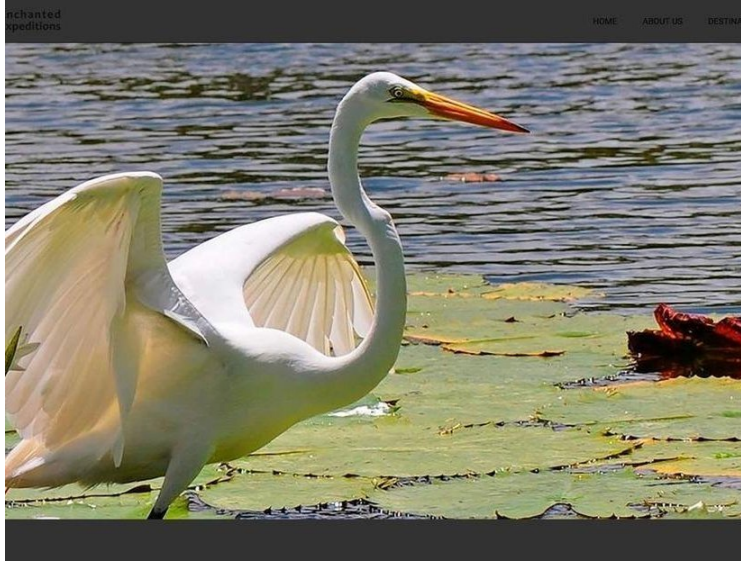

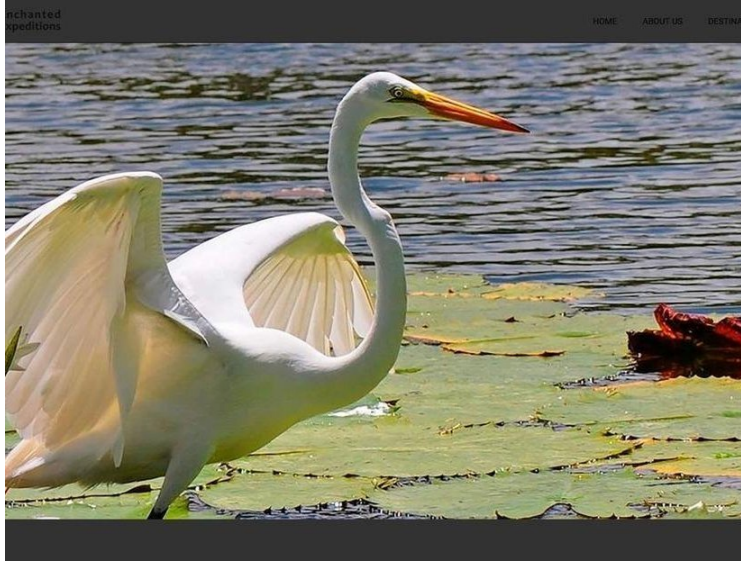

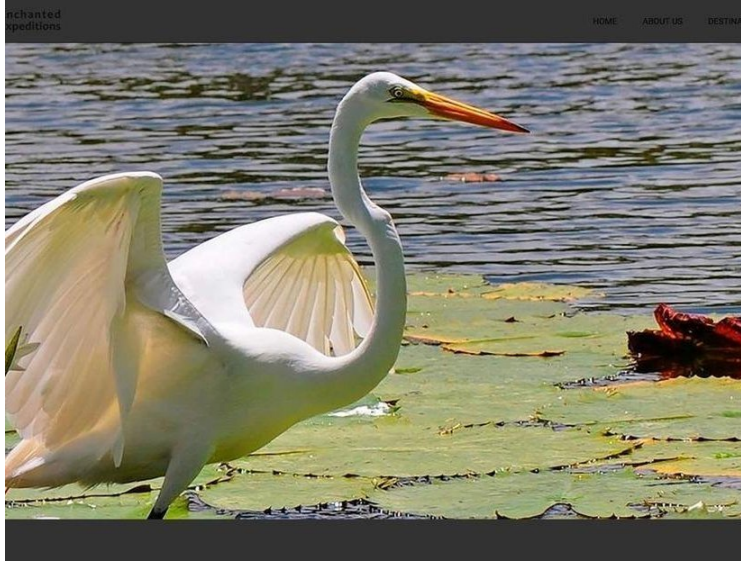

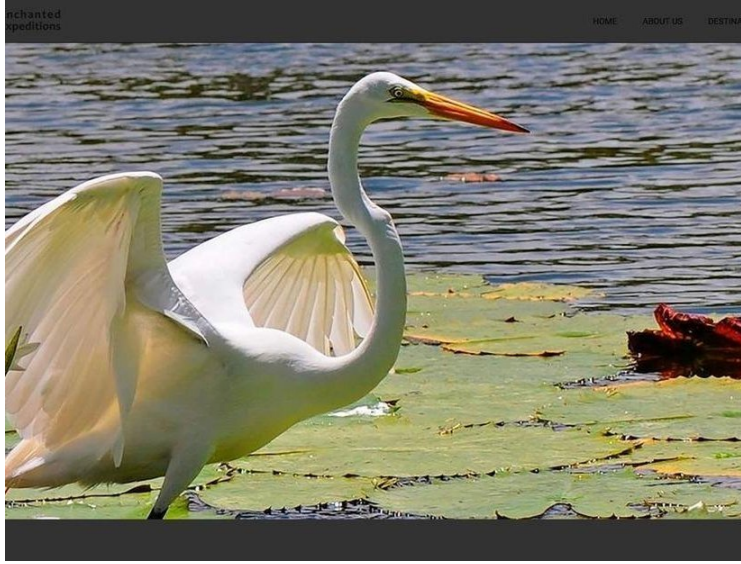

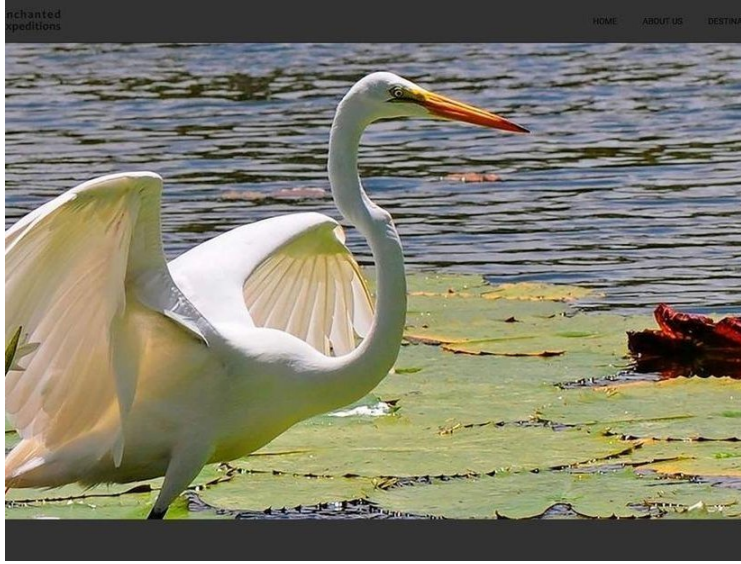

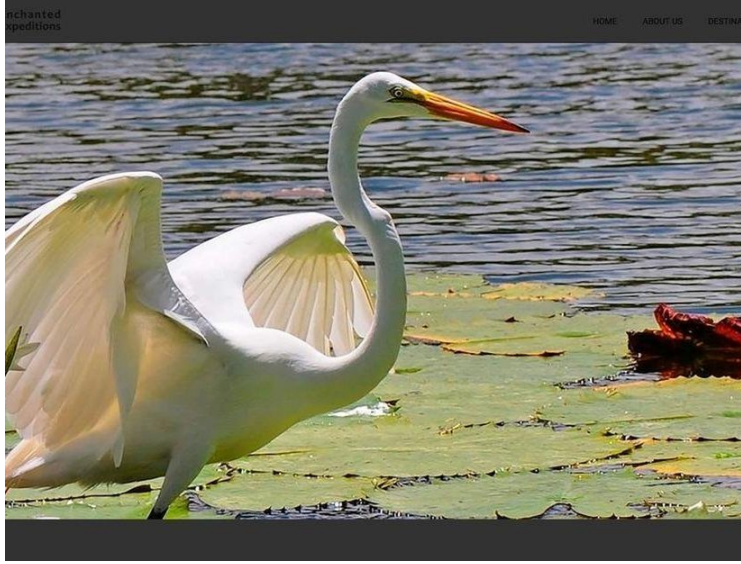

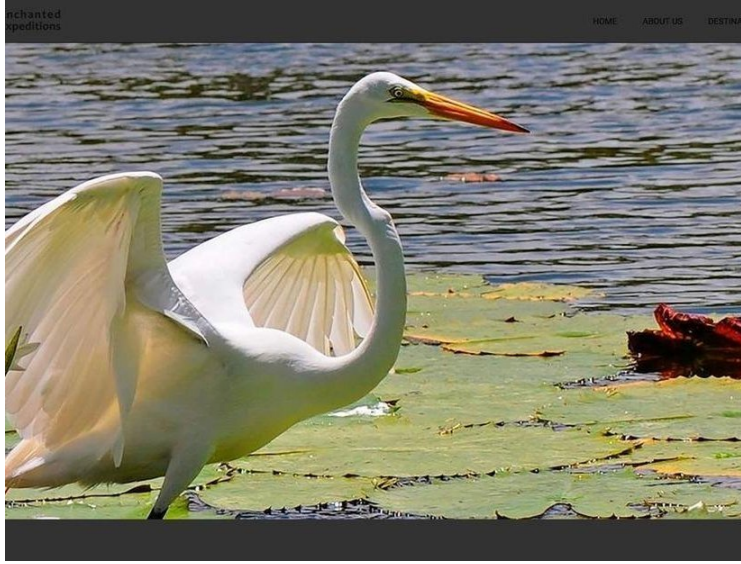

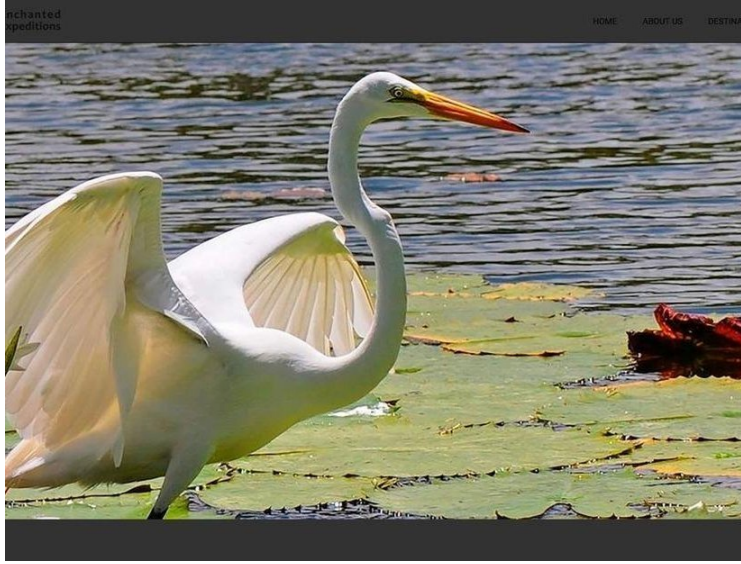

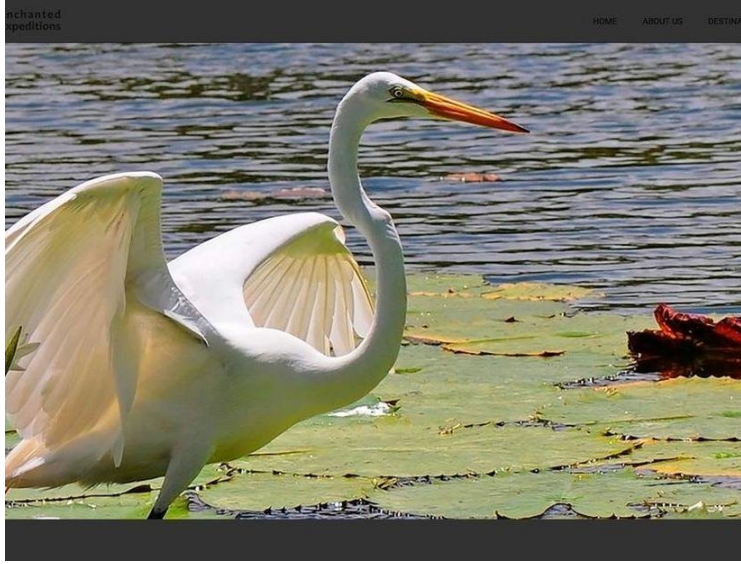

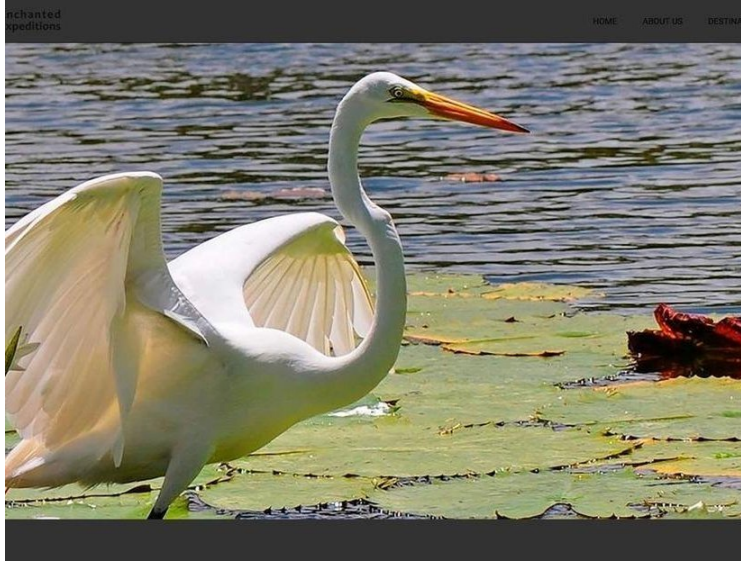

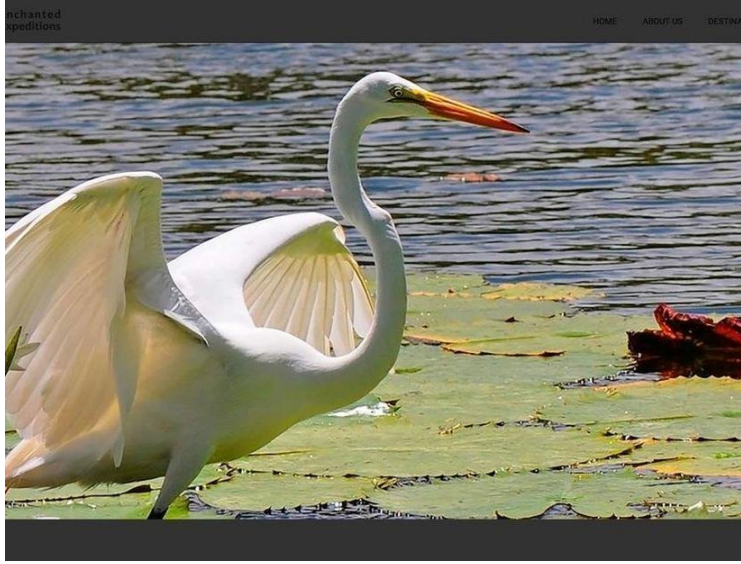

Responsible tourism is a two-way street. Any destination has a responsibility to maintain the authenticity and integrity of its natural and cultural attractions. They are, after all, the reasons you visit Guyana in the first place.

You, the traveler, have a shared responsibility to help destinations in their mission to ensure tourism generates positive socio-economic and conservation outcomes. But don't worry! It's nothing that will lessen your vacation fun. In fact, it will add to it.

Golfing in the Shadow of the Andes

Guests at River House Lodge in Argentina's Patagonian region can tee off on several links around the nearby town of San Martín de los Andes.

The closest place to sharpen your driving and putting is the 18-hole, 72-par course at Chapelco Golf Club. With a backdrop of snowcapped Andes, dark-green forest, and several lakes, it would be hard to find a more scenic course anywhere in South America.
