Alternative Breaks Rolling Application

There is still time to apply to one of the four completely virtual, free service experiences for this academic year. The services experiences will focus on: Disaster Relief and Sustainability, Community Empowerment and Systemic Racism, Indigenous Rights and Education, and Border Relations and Immigration. Apply today.

Lesson Check-In

Lesson Check-In is a nonprofit organization created to support students and families adjusting to the challenges of distance learning. The organization pairs middle and high school students with undergraduate and graduate volunteers, who "check-in" and assist students on a weekly basis. In addition to helping the students succeed in school, volunteering helps parents and guardians, who may be overwhelmed by the personal and professional challenges stemming from the pandemic. Learn more.

Rethinking DC Policing and Youth Diversion Instagram Launch

The @rethinking.dc social media platform recently launched as an initiative partnered with the Black Student Union, the Nashman Center, and the GW Sociology Department to study DC Policing.

Up to Us

Up to Us is a competition aimed at raising awareness and generating non-partisan ideas from our brightest students around issues that affect you and your fiscal future. Build and deepen your network by designing, strategizing, and executing a fiscal future awareness campaign. There is a $10,000 grand prize, leadership training and exclusive access to the Up to Us alumni network when students join
