FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: March 12, 2020

(Omaha, Nebraska) – In the interest of public health and safety, the Nebraska Arts Council is postponing the Governor's Arts Awards scheduled for March 27 at the Nebraska State Capitol. Executive Director Suzanne Wise stated, "In light of the public health emergency we face, everyone's health and safety is our top priority. The Governor's Arts Awards is a celebratory event that is meant to be shared. We will reschedule the ceremony on a more suitable date in the future."

About the Nebraska Arts Council
