EVENTS AND PROGRAMS

Career Center: Research Career at Yale, May 11

PATHS Virtual Trek: Exploring Careers in Media & Publishing, October 19

Career Advisory at UChicago, October 20

EVENTS OF INTEREST:

- "Dogs and My Academic Life," Inside Higher Ed and Inside Higher Ed Alumni Association, September 6
- "The Damaging Myth of the Natural Teacher," The Chronicle of Higher Education, August 28

OTHER JOBS/INTERNSHIPS

The French Heritage Society - Internships for Interns, Editors, and Publishing Interns

Send a cover letter, resume, and references to the address below. Applications received by November 19, 2021 will receive assured consideration.

For more details about the French Heritage Society and how it would advance your academic and/or professional goals. The final projects will be part of your portfolio and may be listed on your CV.

JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Marketing Coordinator, Library Collections, UChicago Press

French Heritage Society Internships

Katherine M. Brown Library Collections, Howard University: Internships

Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #72888) Apply by Nov. 15th

Public History Practicum with Professor Jim Hart

In this two quarter course, students will engage in the theory and practice of public history in partnership with organizations doing community-oriented work. In the winter colloquium, we will read and discuss the Gargoyle (agwenzel@uchicago.edu) by November 22.

JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Council on Foreign Relations Spring Internships: Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #73000) Apply by Dec. 2nd

GRAD Gargoyle: Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #73000) Apply by Dec. 2nd

GRAD HQ: 3rd floor of the UChicago Bookstore; Register in

COURSES

Public History Practicum with Professor Jim Hart

In this two quarter course, students will engage in the theory and practice of public history in partnership with organizations doing community-oriented work. In the winter colloquium, we will read and discuss the Gargoyle (agwenzel@uchicago.edu) by November 22.

Career Advisory at UChicago, October 20

EVENTS OF INTEREST:

- "Dogs and My Academic Life," Inside Higher Ed and Inside Higher Ed Alumni Association, September 6
- "The Damaging Myth of the Natural Teacher," The Chronicle of Higher Education, August 28

OTHER JOBS/INTERNSHIPS

The French Heritage Society - Internships for Interns, Editors, and Publishing Interns

Send a cover letter, resume, and references to the address below. Applications received by November 19, 2021 will receive assured consideration.

For more details about the French Heritage Society and how it would advance your academic and/or professional goals. The final projects will be part of your portfolio and may be listed on your CV.

JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Marketing Coordinator, Library Collections, UChicago Press

French Heritage Society Internships

Katherine M. Brown Library Collections, Howard University: Internships

Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #72888) Apply by Nov. 15th

Public History Practicum with Professor Jim Hart

In this two quarter course, students will engage in the theory and practice of public history in partnership with organizations doing community-oriented work. In the winter colloquium, we will read and discuss the Gargoyle (agwenzel@uchicago.edu) by November 22.

JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Council on Foreign Relations Spring Internships: Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #73000) Apply by Dec. 2nd

GRAD Gargoyle: Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #73000) Apply by Dec. 2nd

GRAD HQ: 3rd floor of the UChicago Bookstore; Register in

COURSES

Public History Practicum with Professor Jim Hart

In this two quarter course, students will engage in the theory and practice of public history in partnership with organizations doing community-oriented work. In the winter colloquium, we will read and discuss the Gargoyle (agwenzel@uchicago.edu) by November 22.

Career Advisory at UChicago, October 20

EVENTS OF INTEREST:

- "Dogs and My Academic Life," Inside Higher Ed and Inside Higher Ed Alumni Association, September 6
- "The Damaging Myth of the Natural Teacher," The Chronicle of Higher Education, August 28

OTHER JOBS/INTERNSHIPS

The French Heritage Society - Internships for Interns, Editors, and Publishing Interns

Send a cover letter, resume, and references to the address below. Applications received by November 19, 2021 will receive assured consideration.

For more details about the French Heritage Society and how it would advance your academic and/or professional goals. The final projects will be part of your portfolio and may be listed on your CV.

JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Marketing Coordinator, Library Collections, UChicago Press

French Heritage Society Internships

Katherine M. Brown Library Collections, Howard University: Internships

Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #72888) Apply by Nov. 15th

Public History Practicum with Professor Jim Hart

In this two quarter course, students will engage in the theory and practice of public history in partnership with organizations doing community-oriented work. In the winter colloquium, we will read and discuss the Gargoyle (agwenzel@uchicago.edu) by November 22.

JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Council on Foreign Relations Spring Internships: Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #73000) Apply by Dec. 2nd

GRAD Gargoyle: Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #73000) Apply by Dec. 2nd

GRAD HQ: 3rd floor of the UChicago Bookstore; Register in

COURSES

Public History Practicum with Professor Jim Hart

In this two quarter course, students will engage in the theory and practice of public history in partnership with organizations doing community-oriented work. In the winter colloquium, we will read and discuss the Gargoyle (agwenzel@uchicago.edu) by November 22.

Career Advisory at UChicago, October 20

EVENTS OF INTEREST:

- "Dogs and My Academic Life," Inside Higher Ed and Inside Higher Ed Alumni Association, September 6
- "The Damaging Myth of the Natural Teacher," The Chronicle of Higher Education, August 28

OTHER JOBS/INTERNSHIPS

The French Heritage Society - Internships for Interns, Editors, and Publishing Interns

Send a cover letter, resume, and references to the address below. Applications received by November 19, 2021 will receive assured consideration.

For more details about the French Heritage Society and how it would advance your academic and/or professional goals. The final projects will be part of your portfolio and may be listed on your CV.

JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Marketing Coordinator, Library Collections, UChicago Press

French Heritage Society Internships

Katherine M. Brown Library Collections, Howard University: Internships

Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #72888) Apply by Nov. 15th

Public History Practicum with Professor Jim Hart

In this two quarter course, students will engage in the theory and practice of public history in partnership with organizations doing community-oriented work. In the winter colloquium, we will read and discuss the Gargoyle (agwenzel@uchicago.edu) by November 22.

JOBS AND INTERNSHIPS

Council on Foreign Relations Spring Internships: Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #73000) Apply by Dec. 2nd

GRAD Gargoyle: Applications are due to Professor Goff by November 22. For more details (ID# #73000) Apply by Dec. 2nd

GRAD HQ: 3rd floor of the UChicago Bookstore; Register in

COURSES

Public History Practicum with Professor Jim Hart

In this two quarter course, students will engage in the theory and practice of public history in partnership with organizations doing community-oriented work. In the winter colloquium, we will read and discuss the Gargoyle (agwenzel@uchicago.edu) by November 22.