The Washington Monthly has ranked GW 2nd in service among national colleges.

GW was ranked 2nd in the category for Service based on what they do for the country. This year, GW was ranked 44th among national colleges overall and 2nd in the category for service.

Since 2005, the Washington Monthly has ranked colleges seeking to address the pandemic through various projects. Global Initiative University (CGI U) recognized students through the COVID-19 Student Action Fund. GW Students were honored with a total of five awards.

Check out this article to learn more.

Five GW Students Receive CGI U Life Awards, and attend a special event with the Deans. Interested students should apply on Engage.

Meet and learn from community organizations and find a service opportunity, like community-engaged research, grant writing, or communications.

If you are a community organization looking to table with GW, apply to the Raise Up GW Co-Curricular Certificate program. This program allows students to serve directly and many have indirect service with.

Mentors to help high school graduates who could not matriculate to college this year build critical college-level skills during this educational gap. The estimated time commitment is 2 hours/week and both current students and young alumni are encouraged to apply.

Apply to the Raise Up GW Co-Curricular Certificate program! This program requires you to complete a full academic year as part of a cohort.

Apply to the Civic Leadership Certificate program! This program is hosted by the Nashman Center and provides an opportunity for GW students to strengthen their civic leadership knowledge and skills.

Meet and learn about the pathways to Public Service in this year's first Civic Leadership Dialogue. Come listen to experts and partners across the SLSV Coalition's National Poll Worker Recruitment Day.

The service score includes the number of students in community service Federal Work-Study, the number of students engaging in Federal Work-Study, the number of students participating in student activism, and providing research and mobility.

The rankings focus on how well colleges serve the country, including through social mobility, research, student activism, and service.

Applications should be submitted on September 8th.

Learn more.

Welcome to the Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service.

Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service
United States
837 22nd St NW

Phone: (202) 994-9900

NOTeworthy

Co-Curricular Certificate Programs

Civic Leadership Certificate:

This Certificate program is hosted by the Nashman Center and provides an opportunity for GW students to strengthen their civic leadership knowledge and skills through various activities.

Applicants should have completed at least two years of college and must submit a letter of recommendation. The estimated time commitment is 2 hours/week.

For more information, visit the Nashman Center website.

Community Opportunities

EngageDC Federal Work-Study Participant Position:

SmartDC Federal Work-Study Tutor Position:

SmartDC Federal Work-Study Leader Position:

Open Positions At Nashman

Connect With Us!

Subcribe

Without a doubt, the most impactful way to get involved with the Nashman Center is through volunteering. Whether it's working with local election officials or helping out with Community Service projects, there are endless opportunities to make a difference.

Learn more.

Civic Engagement and Public Service

Nothing in life is to be feared, it is only to be understood. Now is the time to understand.