Dear Friends:

Washington Monthly has released its annual college rankings. GW was ranked 2nd in the category for Service, based on what they do for the country. This year, GW was seeking to address the pandemic through various projects.

The Clinton COVID-19 Student Action Fund Awards recognized students for working with local election officials to ensure the safety of poll workers, what to expect on election day, and working with local election officials.

The SLSV Coalition’s Worker Recruitment Day is an opportunity to register your organization as a poll worker. This webinar will provide information on how to register and help organizations promote poll worker opportunities.

Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards

If you are a community organization looking to table your work, writing, or communications, the Nashman Center has opportunities for students to engage with. Meet and learn from community organizations and find a project that you are interested in.

Check out the full list of community organizations and find a project that you are interested in.

NOTEWORTHY

Civic Leadership Certificate

Applications should be submitted on September 8th. The estimated time commitment is 2 hours/week and both current students and alumni are eligible to apply. The SLSV Coalition provides opportunities for students to serve with EngageDC, SmartDC, or Jumpstart! If you have Federal Work Study, you can use it in these positions!

Civic Engagement and Public Service

The program allows students to expand their knowledge of well-being, identify ways in which well-being plays an integral role in their success at GW, and gain knowledge of on-campus well-being services.

Apply to the Raise Up GW Co-Curricular Certificate Program!

The program allows students to strengthen their civic leadership knowledge and skills during this educational gap. The estimated time commitment is 2 hours/week and both current students and alumni are eligible to apply.

Apply to the Civic Leadership Certificate Program!

To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

Washington, DC 20052 United States
837 22nd St NW

View this email
Got this as a forward?
Check out the full list ranked 2nd in the category for Service.

based on what they do for the country. This year, GW was seeking to address the pandemic through various projects.

Global Initiative University (CGI U) recognized students through the COVID-19 Student Action Fund Awards.

Five GW Students Receive CGI U COVID-19 Action Fund Awards

If you are a community organization looking to table your work, writing, or communications, the Nashman Center has opportunities for students to engage with. Meet and learn from community organizations and find a project that you are interested in.

Check out this article to learn more.

JUMPSTART FEDERAL WORK-STUDY CORPS MEMBER POSITION

SMARTDC FEDERAL WORK-STUDY LEADER POSITION

If you have Federal Work Study, you can use it in these positions!

Serve with EngageDC, SmartDC, or Jumpstart! If you have Federal Work Study, you can use it in these positions!

Open Positions At Nashman Center

COMMUNITY OPPORTUNITIES

To learn more, you can visit the Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service website.

Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service

"Nothing in life is to be feared, it is only to be understood. Now is the time to understand more, so that we may fear less." - Marie Curie

Congratulations to you and to our school for focusing on how we support our country and improve mobility, research, student activism, and service.

Washington Monthly

And great news! This week documents, mapping for community support, and making neighborly reassurance calls to DC seniors. Registration is still open for working with local election officials.

"Nothing in life is to be feared, it is only to be understood. Now is the time to understand more, so that we may fear less." - Marie Curie

"Nothing in life is to be feared, it is only to be understood. Now is the time to understand more, so that we may fear less." - Marie Curie