Dear Friends:

Congratulations to you and to our school for focusing on how we support our country and improve the world!

The Washington Monthly released its annual college rankings. GW was ranked 44th among national colleges overall and ranked 2nd nationally in terms of service. This is a testament to the efforts of our students, faculty, and staff in seeking to address the pandemic through various projects.

GW Ranks 2nd Nationally in Service

Global Initiative University (CGI U) recognized students through the COVID-19 Student Action Fund, the Clinton COVID-19 Action Fund Awards, Life Awards, and attend a special event with the Deans. Interested students should apply on Engage.

Meet and learn from community organizations and find a project that you are passionate about. GW Ranks 2nd Nationally in Service.

COVID-19 Student Action Fund

The service score includes the number of students in community service Federal Work-Study, the number of students serving virtually - recording children's books, transcribing Smithsonian and National Archives documents, mapping for community support, and making neighborly reassurance calls to DC seniors. Registration is still open for the Fall Community Service Fair on September 23.

In remote Fall Community Service Fair, organizations have opportunities for students to work directly and many have indirect service opportunities, like community-engaged research, grant writing, and providing administrative support.

GW Ranks 2nd Nationally in Service, and you can find more opportunities, like community-engaged research, grant writing, and providing administrative support.

In remote Fall Community Service Fair, organizations have opportunities for students to work directly and many have indirect service opportunities, like community-engaged research, grant writing, and providing administrative support.

Students selected for the 2020-2021 Civic Leadership Certificate will be required to complete a full academic year as part of a cohort. The program will be open to all undergraduate students. Students selected for the 2020-2021 Civic Leadership Certificate will be required to complete a full academic year as part of a cohort.

And great news! This week classes started! The excitement of a new school year is definitely in the air and on our screens.

September 8th, 7:00pm ET, Remote Civic Leadership Dialouges

Thank you for being a part of this important effort. We are all in this together.

Best,

Honey.