JULY NEWS

Large Commercial and Multifamily Building Energy Benchmarking Now Required in City of San Diego - Deadline is Sept 1.

In Feb. 2019, the City of San Diego adopted a Building Energy Benchmarking Ordinance that requires all building owners and managers with commercial and multifamily buildings greater than 50,000 square feet within San Diego City jurisdiction to report their whole-building energy use to the city by June 1, 2020. Due to COVID-19, the City is allowing building owners to submit energy data until Sept. 1.

Donate Now to BOMA San Diego's Virtual Back to School Drive Benefiting Promises2Kids

BOMA's Annual Back 2 School Drive benefiting Promises2Kids is now live. From now until Aug. 25, BOMA San Diego will be accepting donations to help provide 3,000 foster children the tools to overcome challenges and improve the possibilities for a better tomorrow. This year, in lieu of an in-person drive, we will be hosting a virtual drive to generate donations that will go directly to the unique needs foster children are facing, now more than ever, as they navigate the challenges of remote learning. For questions about this fundraiser, please contact subcommittee chairs Elvira Ocampo or Courtney Johnson.
