2023

Dear Traveler,

Things are really heating up in Transylvania County. These almost-August summer days have sent even the most sun-hungry of us looking for a spot of shade and some cold water. Fortunately, Transylvania County has a fair amount of both (to say nothing of ice cream and cold beer), so we're keeping pretty cool up here. Transylvania County is quite the place for those looking to escape the dog days of summer. Of course, there's swimming and hiking and biking and all things adventure, but there's also art, fine dining, stargazing and some truly sublime music. We saved room for you in the shady spot here. Hurry on over before the ice cream melts.

Stay Cool,

-The Adventurist
