

Register for Free NAC Grant Writing Workshops!

Grant Overview

This session will give attendees an overview of the grant categories the Nebraska Arts Council currently has to offer.

Budget Detail

This session will take a closer look at the process of filling out an application budget from the Nebraska Arts Council. This session will cover what expenses are allowable, as well as, strategies for creating a successful budget.

follow the link for registration!

Register Here

NASAA Features NebraskaStrong Creative Relief Program

NASAA features NebraskaStrong Creative Relief Project, and gives praise for State Arts Agency Ingenuity amongst adversity.

Want More Info?

Kick-Off Webinar

Join us online for a Poetry Out Loud Kickoff Thursday, August 15 from 3:30 to 3:45pm.

All Nebraska high school teachers, administrators, and students are invited!

This Zoom webinar will feature Matt Mason, Nebraska State Poet, Marissa Payzant from the Nebraska Department of Education, and Anne Alston from NAC.

Produce, Consume, Discard | Sarah Kolar

Produce, Consume, Discard represents the dynamic relationship between the consumption that commodity obsessed culture imposes and forms articulated with a specific material that has served its intended purpose.

Exhibition dates: August 9 - October 4, 2019
Opening reception: Friday, August 9, 5 - 7pm
Public hours: Mon - Fri., 8 - 5pm Fred Simon Gallery

Want more info?

Kyren Conley
Executive Director
Carnegie Arts
Center

Judy Chaloupka
Theatre West

Billy Estes
Executive Director
Midwest Theatre

Panhandle Arts Conference BiTSy Award Winners

Want More Info?

KHN Residency Application

We are currently accepting applications for 2020 Session. One residency scheduled from January 6 - June 19, 2020.

Nebraska alumni can now re-apply ONE year after their initial award application and all other alumni can re-apply TWO years after their original award application.

Deadline
Sept. 1, 2019

Want More Info?

Every two years, the NAC presents the Governor's Arts Awards to artists, patrons and organizations who have made a significant contribution to the cultural landscape of Nebraska. Now, we recognize some of the people who make the arts happen—behind the scenes—BiTSy!

Kyren Conley

Conley is an excellent example of the next generation of arts administrators, she is the newly appointed Executive Director at the Carnegie Arts Center in Alliance. Her ideas for community engagement are breaking down barriers, and are spreading through the community.

Want more info?

Judy Chaloupka

The long-time leader of Theatre West in Scottsbluff. It may come as no surprise that our hosts, the Western Nebraska Community College, has the Judy Chaloupka Theater. Judy's love of the arts and the community shows in her legacy in Scottsbluff.

Want more info?

Billy Estes

Is open, genuine, kind and willing to meet people wherever they are. His high artistic standards and willingness to work with other presenters across the state have allowed Scottsbluff to bring in remarkable artists to the Midwest Theatre.

Want more Info?

Carrie Brown

The High Plains Arts Council in Sidney, Nebraska is an organization that has seen high highs and low lows. When the staff at NAC heard that Cabela's was closing, we fearfully wondered what would happen to the High Plains Arts Council. To our never ending delight, we received word from Carrie that at a curtain speech they explained the situation and the dire need for board members. And you know what? The community stepped up. For persevering through the stormy economic situation and rallying the community around the arts!

This email was sent to .

To ensure that you continue receiving our emails, please add us to your address book or safe list.

manage your preferences | opt out

Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.

Subscribe to our email list.