

Community Cleanup and Volunteer Block Party

When: April 20, 2024, Check-in - 8:30 AM

Where: Multiple Locations in the city

The community cleanup started as a grassroots effort in 2009 when a pair of Westside residents got together with their neighbors!

This event grew into a larger effort since and most recently had over 600 participants! This year the event is spread out to make it more accessible to neighbors. They are focusing on cleanup efforts in multiple neighborhoods in the City of Grand Rapids.

A block party for volunteers is being held at John Ball Zoo after the cleanup.

Russell G. Mawby Fellowships in Philanthropic Studies

All members of the Grand Valley State University faculty, including teaching Administrative Professional staff and Affiliate Faculty, are invited to submit a proposal for the 2024-2025 Mawby Fellowships in Philanthropic Studies. This fellowship honors long-time president and CEO of the W.K. Kellogg Foundation and co-founder of the Dorothy A. Johnson Center for Philanthropy, Dr. Russ Mawby. One faculty member is selected annually to conduct research focused on the intersection of philanthropy and their field of study. The fellow selects two undergraduate student fellows as research assistants.

Proposals are due April 5, 2024.

Engaged Scholarship Research/Creative Activities Grants

Conducting scholarship that is mutually beneficial for both university scholars and communities is the very foundation of engaged scholarship. Through the Engaged Scholarship Research/Creative Activities Grants Program, the Engagement Scholarship Consortium is offering financial support to help facilitate positive outcomes for both scholars and communities.

Faculty and staff from ESC member institutions may apply for up to $5,000 to fund a one-year project. Collaborative projects among faculty and/or staff from more than one discipline and/or at more than one university are encouraged.

Applications are due May 3, 2024.
