To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

The future of the HSE workforce.

Watch the 2019 Student Grand Challenge presentations address a significant Homeland Security issue.

Working with the DHS Science and Technology Directorate

the RFP open period (June 2020 – June 2021).

2021 COE Summit

Research

While data on this clandestine activity has previously been scarce, there is mounting evidence of the economic, social and environmental losses it can cause.

Trade in the Forms of Trademark

Counterfeiting and Copyright Piracy

Wednesday, April 14: Fighting Illicit

Dr. Dolliver will also cover the methods criminals take to obfuscate transactions to hide their activities and avoid attribution, as well as discussing best practices for law enforcement agencies handling cryptocurrencies.

For more information, please visit https://www.cina.gmu.edu.

COVID-19 Impact on the Economy,

CINA’s Director talks in-depth about how the incident is far worse than the early data suggests and the implications for law enforcement agencies.

University research public/private partnerships for enhanced Homeland security

Track 2:

Hear keynotes & panels complemented by attendee selected sessions from two tracks:

Criminology and Criminal Justice, Academic Director, Joint Labor, University of California Irvine, and

Wednesday, March 17: Cryptocurrencies

Listen to the episode presenting the episode

For more information, please visit https://www.cina.gmu.edu.

The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) Science and Technology Directorate (S&T) monitors those threats far removed from the relative safety of our offices and labs.

Risking Lives for Important Data

The risk of law enforcement officers in the course of their duties is striking. In the first 11 months of 2020, according to the National Law Enforcement Officers Memorial Fund, 120 law enforcement officers were killed in the line of duty.

About one quarter of sex trafficking victims are under 18, and unwilling to do so. As the assistance of recalcitrant victims is so important in combatting human trafficking, CINA is funding a project to address this challenge.

Dr. Quas’ recent talk in CINA’s Distinguished Speaker Series

Opt out
dausti@gmu.edu

Read more about what’s in the January issue of the Journal of Applied Criminal Justice and Social Ethics, including an essay on the impact of COVID-19 on the economy.

You’re invited to submit articles, photos, videos, and story ideas to include in upcoming issues of the Journal of Applied Criminal Justice and Social Ethics.

Register today for our upcoming Distinguished Speaker Series event

CINA offers workforce development opportunities for the next generation of cybersecurity professionals.

Ready to offer a student internship experience? Contact

cina@gmu.edu

May 17–21, 2021

The Centers of Excellence Summit 2021

May 17–21, 2021

The Centers of Excellence Summit 2021

The Centers of Excellence Summit 2021

The Centers of Excellence Summit 2021