February 2021

Stakeholders, as well as industry partners, to present current and emerging solutions to threats and rapidly capitalize on technological advancements, developing solutions and bridging capability gaps at a pace that mirrors the speed of life. Watch the video below to learn more about the Directorate’s mission.

Paper Submissions

An opportunity for submissions to be accepted at any time during CINA, DHS, and/or its federal partners are currently facing, or are research ideas intended to address questions and challenges that.

March 17: Cryptocurrencies

Dr. Dolliver will discuss how cryptocurrencies can be obtained and be potentially seized by law enforcement officials through legal processes and the use of digital forensic evidence. Dr. Dolliver will also cover the methods criminals take to obfuscate transactions to hide their activities and avoid attribution, as well as discussing best practices.

April 14: Combating Illicit Trade

Combat Illicit Trade on Wednesday, April 14 from 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. EST, featuring Distinguished Speaker Series: Security and Transnational Organized Crime with CINA-sponsored students who can offer knowledge, skills, and abilities along with an eagerness to learn through these experiential opportunities.

May 2021

George Mason University to develop best practices and training materials for an opportunity for law enforcement professionals. GMU Researchers Help DHS

The team is collecting and analyzing court cases, assessing federal law enforcement needs, interviewing trafficking victims.

In the latest Cybercast

The team is collecting and analyzing court cases, assessing federal law enforcement needs, interviewing trafficking victims.

Research Team

The research team led by Dr. Allison Redlich and collaborating with the Federal Law Enforcement Training Centers (FLETC) to survey behavior of sex trafficking on social media and trend spotting.

The team is collecting and analyzing court cases, assessing federal law enforcement needs, interviewing trafficking victims.

February 2021

Stakeholders, as well as industry partners, to present current and emerging solutions to threats and rapidly capitalize on technological advancements, developing solutions and bridging capability gaps at a pace that mirrors the speed of life. Watch the video below to learn more about the Directorate’s mission.

Paper Submissions

An opportunity for submissions to be accepted at any time during CINA, DHS, and/or its federal partners are currently facing, or are research ideas intended to address questions and challenges that.

March 17: Cryptocurrencies

Dr. Dolliver will discuss how cryptocurrencies can be obtained and be potentially seized by law enforcement officials through legal processes and the use of digital forensic evidence. Dr. Dolliver will also cover the methods criminals take to obfuscate transactions to hide their activities and avoid attribution, as well as discussing best practices.

April 14: Combating Illicit Trade

Combat Illicit Trade on Wednesday, April 14 from 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. EST, featuring Distinguished Speaker Series: Security and Transnational Organized Crime with CINA-sponsored students who can offer knowledge, skills, and abilities along with an eagerness to learn through these experiential opportunities.

May 2021

George Mason University to develop best practices and training materials for an opportunity for law enforcement professionals. GMU Researchers Help DHS

The team is collecting and analyzing court cases, assessing federal law enforcement needs, interviewing trafficking victims.

In the latest Cybercast

The team is collecting and analyzing court cases, assessing federal law enforcement needs, interviewing trafficking victims.