

February

Stakeholders, as well as industry partners to present current and emerging solutions to threats

Hosted by the DHS Centers of Excellence (COE), this event is a unique opportunity for COE stakeholders, as well as industry partners to present current and emerging solutions to threats. The event focuses on advancing the state-of-the-art in homeland security and critical infrastructure protection. The agenda includes presentations on topics such as cybersecurity, counterterrorism, and border security.

Watch the 2019 Student Grand Challenge presentations

The 2019 Student Grand Challenge is an annual event that highlights the innovative solutions developed by students from academic institutions and DHS industry partners. The presentations showcase research and projects addressing real-world challenges in the field of homeland security. The event provides an opportunity for students to engage with stakeholders and learn about potential career opportunities.

February

New products and tools to assist operational decision-makers

GMU Researchers Help DHS

With the increasing complexity of modern threats, there is a need for new products and tools to assist operational decision-makers in homeland security. GMU researchers have been working on developing innovative technologies to enhance decision-making processes.

February

A new generation of cybersecurity professionals

GMU Researchers Help DHS Fight Cybercrime

GMU researchers have been working on developing innovative technologies to enhance decision-making processes. These technologies are designed to help operational decision-makers in homeland security to make more informed decisions.

February

Data on this clandestine activity has previously been scarce, but there is mounting concern about the impact of cybercrime on the global economy.

From smuggling, counterfeiting and tax evasion, to the trafficking of pharmaceuticals, cybercrime is a major problem that affects the global economy. The amount of data available to law enforcement is limited, making it difficult to track and prosecute these crimes.

February

Combat Illicit Trade on Wednesday, April 14 from 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. EST

Combat Illicit Trade on Wednesday, April 14 from 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. EST. The event focuses on the latest developments in the fight against illicit trade.

February

Register today for our upcoming Distinguished Speaker Series event

Register today for our upcoming Distinguished Speaker Series event. The series features leading experts in the field of homeland security, offering insights into the latest trends and challenges in the industry.

February

Solving complex problems through innovation and technology

Solving complex problems through innovation and technology. The event focuses on showcasing innovative solutions developed by researchers and practitioners in the field of homeland security.

February

The team is collecting and analyzing court cases, assessing federal law enforcement needs, and interviewing trafficking victims.

The team is collecting and analyzing court cases, assessing federal law enforcement needs, and interviewing trafficking victims. These efforts are aimed at understanding the scope of the problem and developing effective strategies to address it.

February

Stay Connected

Stay Connected. Learn about upcoming events, research projects, and other initiatives by subscribing to our newsletter and following us on social media.

February

Visit our website

Visit our website to learn more about the COE and our ongoing initiatives in the field of homeland security.