To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

4400 University Drive

View this email

Manage

In this issue:

February

Stakeholders, as well as industry partners to present current and emerging solutions to threats.

Hosted by the DHS Centers of Excellence (COE), this event is a unique opportunity for COE stakeholders and mentors to collaborate, network, and share best practices.

Distinguished Speaker Series

Watch the 2019 Student Grand Challenge presentations online.

2021 COE Summit

Distinguished Speaker Series

Working with the DHS Science and Technology Directorate (S&T) to support the mission.

CINA, DHS, and/or its federal partners are currently facing, or are likely to face, challenges around data collection and access.

Dr. Jodi Quas, Transnational Alliance to Combat Crime and Corruption (TACC)

March 17, 2021

Sex Trafficking Detection and Prosecution

Dr. Mary Ellen O'Toole, author of Criminals Who Tango

March 24, 2021

GMU Researchers Help DHS Collect Better Evidence

Jeffrey Hardy, GMU, John Wilson, GMU

April 14, 2021

GMU researchers are working with the DHS Bureau of Intelligence and Analysis (BIA) to help law enforcement officials collect better evidence, particularly in the context of human trafficking.

Counterfeiting and Copyright Piracy

Dr. Allison Redlich, William J. Perry Center for Hemispheric Defense Studies, The George Washington University

April 21, 2021

February 17, 2021

Register today for our upcoming Distinguished Speaker Series event.

March 17, 2021

Watch Dr. Quas' recent talk in CINA's Distinguished Speaker Series online.

April 14, 2021

Watch Dr. O'Toole's recent talk in CINA's Distinguished Speaker Series online.

April 21, 2021

Watch Dr. Redlich's recent talk in CINA's Distinguished Speaker Series online.

Choose a combination of sessions

CINA’s 2021 Student Grand Challenge applications are now open.

Explore the Latest Student Research

Student research presentations responding to current & emerging DHS threats.

University research public/private partnerships for enhanced Homeland security

Centers of Excellence

Virtual Event

Centers of Excellence Summit 2021

May 17–21, 2021