The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. We strive to foster an inclusive and welcoming environment that embraces diversity and promotes the well-being of our community.

Upcoming Religious Celebrations and Observances

- February 28 - Thirty Years of Living Our Enneagram Book Club: Starting February 28th, join us for a six-week book club exploring the Enneagram, a spiritual self-assessment tool for chaplains and how it offers a unique spiritual path to liberation from the egoic self. Books will be provided to students, and summaries of the week's topic will be shared. Facilitated groups will meet for an hour each Wednesday, starting on Wednesday, February 16, 7:00 p.m., Interfaith Center.

Resources, Scholarships, and Opportunities

- Join the LGBT Center, the SMFA at Tufts, Tisch College of Civic Life, and the University Chaplaincy at the Trans Day of Rememberance Gallery.

Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to its mission.

Please register for dinner here. More information can be found here. Please register for the LGBT Center's Trans Day of Rememberance Gallery here.

See No Stranger at Tufts Learning Series

- Hosted by the Africana Center and the Department of Studies in Race, Colonialism, and Diaspora, with the support of the South Asian Political Action Committee (SAPAC).

- Join the Latinx Center, the Africana Center, and the University Chaplaincy, continuing Black Legacy Month with Kalyānamitta: A Good Friend Show.

- Join the Latinx Center, the Africana Center, and the University Chaplaincy, continuing Black Legacy Month with Brujería y Bendiciones: Reflections on Black Spirituality in the Diaspora.

- Join the Latinx Center, the Africana Center, and the University Chaplaincy, continuing Black Legacy Month with joel guitierrez.

Subscribe for More Information

Sign up by Monday, February 21 via this link.

Support the University Chaplaincy

Please register for dinner here. More information can be found here.

We are grateful for your support

The University Chaplaincy is grateful for the support of the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Tufts University and the Office of Student Accessibility Services. We welcome input on how we can improve our services and programs. Please contact University Chaplaincy program manager Nora Bond at norab@tufts.edu with any questions or feedback.

Disclaimer

The information presented in this document is for educational purposes only and should not be considered as medical, legal, or professional advice. Please consult a professional for advice specific to your individual situation.