Celebrate the work of the Learning Assistants (LAs) who work in more than 40 courses across the College of Science.

December 6, 2022 | noon to 2 p.m. | Exploratory Hall Atrium

Make that decision, what legal protections you have, resources available to you, and how to have the conversation with a potential employer.

December 5, 2022 | 4 to 5 p.m. | Virtual

Supervisors are encouraged to join an interactive session focused on faculty and staff engagement.

Participants will actively participate in discussions surrounding Gallup survey engagement data and current best practices as well as learn new strategies to enhance the faculty and staff experience.

Mason students and campus organization representatives are invited to participate in a discussion on building support and communications, exchanging ideas, and thinking about common strategies. This meeting will help us to plan our direction for the future. We invite you to take a moment to provide your feedback as part of the strategic planning initiative to gain insights and perspectives that will be useful as we develop our strategic plan.

By Fernando Miralles-Wilhelm

A culture of gratitude, civility, and kindness seems like we are on a fast track to completing our monstrous to do lists. Stress is high and time seems to fly by.

Between the hustle and bustle of holiday preparation, traveling, final exams, and shorter days of sun, it seems like we are on a fast track to completing our monstrous to do lists. Stress is high and time seems to fly by.

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

Pause and recognize how very thankful I am that we are able to do so again. Morning). And as we come together for end of the year and Mason anniversary celebrations, I take a moment to reflect on the good things in my life.

(Although the getting dark earlier transition time each year does make me grateful for the sunrise each morning). And as we come together for end of the year and Mason anniversary celebrations, I take a moment to reflect on the good things in my life.

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

I take a moment to reflect on the good things in my life.

Member of the Mason Science community, your feedback is valuable for this important planning survey. We thank you for taking the time to share your perspectives.

As members of the Mason Science community, your feedback is valuable for this important planning survey. We thank you for taking the time to share your perspectives.

A culture of gratitude, civility, and kindness seems like we are on a fast track to completing our monstrous to do lists. Stress is high and time seems to fly by.

Between the hustle and bustle of holiday preparation, traveling, final exams, and shorter days of sun, it seems like we are on a fast track to completing our monstrous to do lists. Stress is high and time seems to fly by.

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

Pause and recognize how very thankful I am that we are able to do so again. Morning). And as we come together for end of the year and Mason anniversary celebrations, I take a moment to reflect on the good things in my life.

(Although the getting dark earlier transition time each year does make me grateful for the sunrise each morning). And as we come together for end of the year and Mason anniversary celebrations, I take a moment to reflect on the good things in my life.

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

I take a moment to reflect on the good things in my life.

Member of the Mason Science community, your feedback is valuable for this important planning survey. We thank you for taking the time to share your perspectives.

As members of the Mason Science community, your feedback is valuable for this important planning survey. We thank you for taking the time to share your perspectives.

A culture of gratitude, civility, and kindness seems like we are on a fast track to completing our monstrous to do lists. Stress is high and time seems to fly by.

Between the hustle and bustle of holiday preparation, traveling, final exams, and shorter days of sun, it seems like we are on a fast track to completing our monstrous to do lists. Stress is high and time seems to fly by.

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

Pause and recognize how very thankful I am that we are able to do so again. Morning). And as we come together for end of the year and Mason anniversary celebrations, I take a moment to reflect on the good things in my life.

(Although the getting dark earlier transition time each year does make me grateful for the sunrise each morning). And as we come together for end of the year and Mason anniversary celebrations, I take a moment to reflect on the good things in my life.

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

We've just come off the Thanksgiving break. And is it just me or do we all feel like we really, really needed some time to just rest, relax, and regroup before heading into the last few weeks of the semester?

I take a moment to reflect on the good things in my life.

Member of the Mason Science community, your feedback is valuable for this important planning survey. We thank you for taking the time to share your perspectives.

As members of the Mason Science community, your feedback is valuable for this important planning survey. We thank you for taking the time to share your perspectives.