

Dear Colleague,

Picture this: It's New Year's Eve and you're attending an elegant party in Reykjavik or celebrating under fireworks at a community bonfire in the Icelandic countryside.

Or perhaps your clients prefer a warmer climate to celebrate the festive season. Pax More Greece can arrange the ideal Aegean end-of-the-year getaway.

Whatever the destination, the countdown to midnight should be a spectacular occasion. Any of the cool companies and destinations in our Europe portfolio can help your clients arrange a memorable transition to the new year in Iceland, Greece or Porto and northern Portugal.

Four Ways to Discover Northern Portugal

Northern Portugal offers four distinct regions — Porto, the Douro, Minho and Trás-os-Montes — with their own experiences, encounters and adventures.

Porto

Some say that the North of Portugal begins in Porto, others say that it ends there. Either way, the nation's second largest city welcomes everything and everyone. Whether you come for history or modernity, river or sea, work and pleasure, it's a never-ending party.
